St. James's, March 21.

This Day the following Address was presented to the King, and read by Mr. David Barclay; accompanied by Mr. Jacob Hagen, Mr. Thomas Corbyn, Mr. John Eliot, Mr. John Wright, Mr. Thomas Knowles, and John Coakley Lettsom, M. D. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging;
The Address of the People called Quakers.

May it please the King!

THE peaceable Principles of Christianity, which tend to promote the temporal and eternal Happiness of all Mankind, render the Event of Peace peculiarly grateful to us thy faithful Subjects, the People called Quakers; and we rejoice, that, as the Father of thy People, thy Mind is relieved from the painful Anxiety that must have accompanied their Destruction or Distress; for when we reflect on the dreadful Calamities, and the great Effusion of Human Blood, which ever attend the Prosecution of War, we deeply lament, that any of the Professors of the Christian Religion should continue a Practice so inconsistent with the Doctrines of Christ, the Prince of Peace. We trust, however, that in the Appointment of Divine Wisdom, the Time will come, when Nation shall not lift up Sword against Nation, neither shall they learn War any more. And it is the fervent Wish of our Hearts, that a Zeal for the Discouragement of Vice, Immorality, and Dissipation, and for the Promotion of Righteousness, which exalteth a Nation, may spread and increase amongst the Inhabitants of thy Dominions.

Impressed with a thankful Sense of the religious Privileges which we enjoy under thy Government, and attached as we sincerely are in Duty and Affection to thy Person and Family, it is our earnest Prayer, that that the Arm of Almighty Power may establish thy Throne in Righteousness and Peace.

Signed on Behalf of the said People, Londo, the Nineteenth Day of the Third Month 1783.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, with all Humility acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness in putting an End to a ruinous and destructive War, and restoring to the Nation the Blessings of Peace.

Your Majesty, during the whole Course of your Reign, has demonstrated that you have had no Interests separate from your People; and the Regard you have graciously shewn by your Endeavours to lighten the Burthen of the National Expences, is such a Mark of your Majesty's tender and affectionate Concern for the Welfare of your Subjects, that we shall on all Occasions express our Gratitude.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part to convince the World, that with unshaken Zeal and Loyalty we shall constantly endeavour to support your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity, on which our own Safety and Happiness so much depend.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Twenty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

On their Arrival in the Great Ball Room, the different Persons who composed the Procession, proceeded to the Places assigned them; and his Excellency being covered and seated in the Chair of State, the King at Arms presented to him His Majesty's Letter, which his Excellency delivered to the Right Honourable John Healy Hutchinson, Secretary cretary of State, who read the same aloud, during which Time his Excellency and the Assembly remained standing and uncovered. His Excellency being again seated, Usher presented to him the Blue Ribband and Badge of Grand Master, with which his Excellency invested himself.

His Excellency then signified His Majesty's Pleasure, that the Great Ball Room should be stiled the Hall of Saint Patrick, which was done by Proclamation made by the King at Arms, at the Sound of Trumpets, and with the usual Formalities; after which

His Excellency directed the King at Arms and Usher of the Black Rod to introduce his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin, to whom the Secretary of State administered the Oath, as Chancellor of the Order, and his Grace, kneeling, was invested by the Grand Master with the proper Badge, and receiving from his Excellency's Hands the Purse containing the Seals.

His Excellency then signified His Majesty's Pleasure, that in Consideration of the tender Age of Prince Edward, his Royal Highness should be invested in England, and that His Majesty's Dispensation for that Purpose should be entered upon the Register of the Order: And in Consequence of His Majesty's Direction, the Lord Baron Muskerry was knighted, and declared Proxy to his Royal Highness Prince Edward. His Excellency then directed that his Grace the Duke of Leinster should be called in; and as by the Statutes of the Order none but a Knight can be elected or invested, his Grace, being introduced by the Usher and King at Arms, was knighted by his Excellency with the Sword of State, and immediately delivered to the Genealogist the Proofs of Blood required by the Statutes; whereupon the Oaths were administered by the Chancellor, and his Grace, kneeling, was invested by the Grand Master with the Ribband and Badge. His Grace then joined the Procession to introduce the Earl of Clanricarde, who being sworn, was invested in like Manner, and both Knights joined the Procession to bring in the Earl of Westmeath; after which the Two Junior Knights performed this Duty, and the Senior Knight took his Seat as Companion of the Order. The Earls of Inchiquin, Drogheda, Tyrone, Shannon, Clanbrassil, Mornington, Courtown, Charlemont, and Beftive, being severally introduced by the Two Junior Knights, were each of them sworn by the Chancellor, and invested by the Grand Master, and took their Seats as Knights Companions.

The Ceremony of Investiture being ended, His Majesty's Pleasure was declared and registered for appointing his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Armagh, Primate and Metropolitan of all Ireland, to be the Prelate of the said Most Illustrious Order.

A Procession was then made from Saint Patrick's Hall to the Presence Chamber, where the Lord Lieutenant received the Compliments of the Knights of the Order, and of a numerous Assembly of Nobility and Gentry, who testified their Satisfaction in this distinguished Mark of the Royal Favour to this Kingdom.

Saint Patrick's Hall was elegantly fitted up for the Occasion, and the Galleries belonging to it were crowded with Ladies of the first Rank and Fashion; and the whole Ceremony was conducted with the utmost Propriety and with the most splendid Magnificence.

Caserta, February 25. The Court returned to this Palace on Wednesday last the 19th Instant; and on the same Day the Infant Don Giuseppe, their Sicilian Majesty's Third Son (not quite Two Years old) departed this Life.

The Mortality in Calabria Ultra and Sicily, from the Three violent Shocks of an Earthquake on the 5th, 7th, and 8th of this Month (though very great) is much less than was at first represented.
At Scilla, however, no less than Two Thousand People, who, with the Prince of Scilla, were on the Shore, having just escaped from their ruined Houses, were swept off at once, and drowned by the sudden Rise of the Sea; but from the Fright and Confusion this heavy Calamity occasioned on the Spots where it fell, no distinct Accounts have as yet been received; and the Persons who have been sent from Naples with such Succour as this Government thought necessary, have not yet had Time to make their Reports. The first Notice of the Misfortune did not reach the Capital till the 14th Instant, owing to the Distance and Badness of the Roads; and as it must be some Days before the Succours could reach Calabria, it is greatly to be apprehended that many more Lives will be lost from these unfortunate Circumstances. It appears from several Accounts, that the Earth opened in many Parts; that a Mountain has been split in Two; and that the Course of a great River was stopped for some Time.

In the Year 1659, and even some Years before, the like Calamity happened in the very same Parts of Calabria, and at Messina.

His Sicilian Majesty has allotted the Sum of Four Hundred Thousand Ducats for the Relief of such of his unhappy Subjects as have suffered on this Occasion.

Whitehall, March 13, 1783.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King,

That, in consequence of an Information of Fifteen Hundred Cases of smuggled Spirits being harboured in certain Warehouses at Deal, some Officers of Excise proceeded to that Place, attended by a Detachment of about Forty-seven of His Majesty's Troops, under the Command of Captain Pennyman: That, on their Arrival at Deal, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening of the Eighth Day of February last, they found Intelligence had been previously given of their Approach, the Smugglers being prepared to receive them; and they had not been there many Minutes before they were fired upon apparently by a Body of Persons in one Place, and afterwards from Windows and behind Walls; and that the Troops were prevented from advancing by Ropes drawn across the Street: That, having opened the Door of One Storehouse, a Quantity of Brandy, Geneva, and Raw Coffee was seized; the Smugglers continuing to fire on the Revenue Officers and Troops, they retired with what they had seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons (except those who actually fired upon His Majesty's Troops, or the Revenue Officers) who shall discover any one or more of his or their Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as above-mentioned (except as before excepted) to be paid by their Secretary, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
