The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum has been presented to the King by Nathaniel Still, Esq; Mayor, accompanied by the Honourable William Henry Bouverie and William Hussy, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, with all Humility acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness in putting an End to a ruinous and destructive War, and restoring to the Nation the Blessings of Peace.

Your Majesty, during the whole Course of your Reign, has demonstrated that you have had no Interests separate from your People; and the Regard you have graciously shewn by your Endeavours to lighten the Burthen of the National Expences, is such a Mark of your Majesty's tender and affectionate Concern for the Welfare of your Subjects, that we shall on all Occasions express our Gratitude.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part to convince the World, that with unshaken Zeal and Loyalty we shall constantly endeavour to support your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity, on which our own Safety and Happiness so much depend.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Twenty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

St. James's, March 19.

The King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on William Jones, Esq; one of the Judges of His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

Dublin Castle, March 11, 1783.

THIS Day having been appointed by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for the Investiture of the Knights of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, the Noblemen named in His Majesty's Letter to be Knights Companions of the Order were summoned to attend, in order to be invested with the Ensigns of that Dignity previous to their Installation; and being assembled in the Presence Chamber, a Procession was made from thence to the Great Ball Room, viz.
