AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of April, 1783.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honourable David Viscount Stormont Lord President of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable Frederick Earl of Carlisle, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Sir Frederick North, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, commonly called Lord North, and the Right Honourable Charles James Fox, to be His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, they were this Day, by His Majesty's Command, sworn His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

Whitehall, April 5.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint his Grace William Henry Duke of Portland, the Right Honourable John Cavendish, commonly called Lord John Cavendish, the Right Honourable Charles Howard, commonly called Earl of Surrey, Frederick Montagu, Esq; and Sir Grey Cooper, Bart. to be Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Exchequer.

St. James's, April 5.

The following Address of the Merchants and Traders of London, has been presented to the King by Mess. Ingram, Strachan, Clay, Roberts, Sanson, and Petrie, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of London, interested in the Commerce with North America.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Merchants and Traders of London, interested in the Commerce with North America, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preference to express the grateful Sense we entertain of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in having been graciously pleased to put an End to the Calamities of a War, peculiarly distressing to the Commercial Interests of your Majesty's Dominions. And although the Efforts that have been made to give to your faithful Subjects the Advantages they may have promised themselves from returning Peace have hitherto proved ineffectual; we have the fullest Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, that you will recommend such Measures to be adopted as may be most likely to revive the Commercial Intercourse between this Country and North America; that the Laws which may be made for the Regulation thereof, may be made with that Liberality which we conceive to be the true Policy of Commercial States, which may tend to re-establish and perpetuate perfect Harmony and Friendship between the Two Countries, and secure to the British Empire the invaluable Blessings of Peace.

That your Majesty may long be preferred to govern a free and grateful People; and that your Posterity may be for Ages the Protectors of the Commerce, and the Guardians of the Civil and Religious Liberties of this Country, is the ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

We think it our Duty at this Time to publickly to declare our Disapprobation of those selfish and interelld Measures that have caused such Confusion in your Majesty's Councils, and which our Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of our Country leads us to detest and abhor.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall be wanting that can in any Degree contribute to give Ease and Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, which we pray may long continue over a loyal and grateful People.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the Leave to express our grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's paternal Care and Regard in terminating a long, calamitous and expensive War, and restoring to these Kingdoms the Blessings of Peace.

We rely on the same paternal Attention which your Majesty hath manifested to your Subjects in the happy Restoration of Peace, for promoting its permanent Continuance.

Fully confident of your Majesty's Attachment to

we have the firmest Hope and Expectation, that such salutary and well directed Measures will be pursued, as may be most conducive to that End.

Impressed with a deep and lively Sense of the stances, it is our hearty and unfeigned Wish, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and Prosperous;

Caserta, March 11. The Accounts from Calabria and Messina continue to give great Alarm here. On the 6th Instant, another violent Shock of an Earthquake destroyed the few Houses that had been left standing at Messina, and obliged the Troops to quit the Citadel, and to encamp. Part of the Citadel in the Island of Lipari was destroyed by the same Shock. The Number of Towns and Villages in Calabria, that have already been either totally or in great Part destroyed, is really prodigious. Amongst the principal ones are Francavilla, Briatico, Monteleone, Vallelonga, Francia, Mileto, Soriano, Arena, Rosano, Anfoia, Gioia, Cinquefrondi, Droiti, Polistino, St. Martino, Terra-nuova, Catal-nuova, Palma, Seminara, Oppido, Bagnara, Sinopoli, St. Euphemia, Scilla, Reggio, Bova, Messano, Ardore, Girace, Grotteria, and Castel-verere. The Earthquake does not appear to have affected the Country above the narrow Neck of Land that lies between the Gulphs of St. Euphemia and Squillace, but to have ranged over the whole of what is generally called the Toe of Italy, affecting the nearest Corner of Sicily, and the Lipari Islands.

Exact Returns of the Mortality have not yet been received here; but, from private Calculations which are circulated at Naples, it is feared it will amount to upwards of Twenty-six Thousand. Measures are taken to procure more authentic Accounts of this dreadful Calamity.

Whitehall, April 1, 1783.
