From Saturday April 26, to Tuesday April 29, 1783.

Whitehall, April 29.

THE King has been pleased to grant to John Courtney, Esq; the Office of Master Surveyor of the Ordnance :

And to Humphry Minchin, Esq; the Office of Clerk of the Ordnance.

The King has been pleased to grant to Richard Bagot, of Castle Rising in the County of Norfolk, Esq; (who is lately married to the Honourable Frances Howard, Sister of Henry late Earl of Suffolk and Berkshire, deceased) and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and use the Surname, and bear the Arms of Howard, as borne by the said late Earl, such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

The King has been pleased to grant to Charles Snell, of Aulfin Friars, London, Merchant, (pursuant to the Will of his Grandfather Charles Chauncy, late of Newington in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased) His Royal Licence and Authority to take and use the Surname, and bear the Arms of Chauncy, in Addition to his own Name and Arms, such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Stockholm, March 24. Yesterday died his Royal Highness Charles Gustavus, youngest Son of the King of Sweden.

Carlsruh, April 12. A few Days since died her Serene Highness the Princess Louisa Carolina, Margravine of Baden-Dourlach, and Sister to the Landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt.

Portici, April 1. A slight Shock of an Earthquake was felt here, and at Naples, on Friday last; and we hear from Calabria and Messina, that the Earthquakes still continue in those Parts.

Yesterday a French Frigate and a Corvette arrived at Naples, with Provisions and other Articles, which will be acceptable in Calabria, and which are offered to his Sicilian Majesty by the Most Christian King. The Grand Master of Malta, soon after the first Shock of the Earthquake, sent his Gallies to Messina with Succours, which were at that Moment of infinite Service. At present there is no Want of Provisions either in Calabria or at Messina, this Government having greatly exerted itself on that melancholy Occasion; and his Sicilian Majesty having allotted a very considerable Sum of Money (Four Hundred Thousand Ducats) for the immediate Relief of the unhappy Sufferers.

Whitehall, April 12, 1783.
