From Tuesday April 29, to Saturday May 3, 1783.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th of April, 1783.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Most Reverend Father in God John Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Right Honourable Robert Earl of Northington, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honourable Robert Earl of Northington Lieutenant-General and General Governor of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of May, 1783.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 16th of February, 1781, to direct, That all Ships and Vessels then arrived, or that might thereafter arrive, from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal or Ducal Prussia or Pomerania, or from any other Port or Place in Courland, Samogitia, or Livonia, should be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, provided they should have no Goods or Merchandize on Board, the Produce of Turkey or the Levant, which might subject them to the Rules of Quarantine, under the Directions contained in His Majesty's Order in Council bearing Date the 20th of September then last; that they brought with them clean Bills of Health; and that the Master or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel did first make Oath before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they were bound to, that the Crews were free from all Infection: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that several Ships and Vessels are expected to arrive from the said Ports and Places without Bills of Health, and will thereby become subject to the Rules of Quarantine, to the great Loss and Detriment of the Owners; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Vessels arriving from any of the said Ports or Places be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, notwithstanding they shall omit to bring a clean Bill of Health; provided they have no Goods or Merchandize on Board the Produce of Turkey or the Levant.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of

His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Faulkner.

The following Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerset has been presented to the King by Peter Sherston, Esq; Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerset, assembled at the Assizes held at Taunton; on the Twenty-seventh Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, for the said County.

May it please your Majesty;

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerset, beg Leave to express our very sincere and hearty Acknowledgments to your Majesty, for your Goodness in restoring to us the Comforts of Peace, the happy Effects of which are already felt in the Revival of our Trade and Commerce; and we rely with the most perfect Confidence, that your Majesty's Attention to the Welfare of your Dominions will be constantly employed in improving every Circumstance that may tend to make the Advantages resulting from this important Measure as solid and permanent as possible.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free People, united by their Gratitude in their Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, is the earnest Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects,

Pt. Sherston, Sheriff.

At the unanimous Request of the Grand Jury,

John Trevelyan, Foreman.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Anglesey has been presented to the King by the Lord Viscount Bulkeley, Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Anglesey, sem.

sembled at the Affizes held at Beaumaris, on Thursday the Tenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, desire your Majesty's Permission to express our warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness and Welfare of your People, in relieving them from the increasing Burthen of a long and expensive War, which threatened the total Ruin of this Country, and procuring for them the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall be wanting that can contribute to give Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, which we pray may long continue over a loyal and grateful People.

[Signed by Morgan Jones, Sheriff; H. Williams, Foreman, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury.]
