Whitehall, May 31.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Lord North, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, beg Leave to address your Majesty with Hearts full of Affection and Attachment, and with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's Paternal Goodness, in having pursued Measures, by which, under God, we now enjoy the inestimable Blessing of Peace: A Blessing at all Times desirable, but especially at a Time when this Country, pressed by a powerful Confederacy of its inveterate Enemies, united with its former Subjects and old Allies, was also afflicted with an uncommon Degree of Scarcity of Provisions.

At the End of a War less successful than former Wars have been, we consider ourselves as specially called up by the Providence of God to exert ourselves in the Discharge of our Duty, and to cultivate in the Minds of the People committed to our Care those Sentiments of Religion and Virtue, which form the Hearts of Men to that Righteousness which exalteth a Nation.

We are happy in being able to assure your Majesty of the unaltered Affection of the People of this Part of the United Kingdom to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of their Zeal for your Illustrious Family, under whose mild Administration they have so long enjoyed the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty.

That Almighty God, the King of Kings, and the Ruler of all the Nations of Men, may continually have your Majesty under His Divine Protection; that He may bless you in your Person and in your Family; that He may reward your Majesty's private Virtues with domestick Felicity, and your mild Government with the Love and Fidelity of your Subjects; that your Reign may be long, happy and prosperous, and that at last your Majesty may, through Jesus Christ our Lord, receive a Crown of Glory, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Edinburgh, Henry Grieve, Moderator.
