

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 26, to Saturday August 30, 1783.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of August, 1783,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Edward Earl of Derby was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the Custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Honourable Edward Earl of Derby, the Oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship.

Whitehall, August 30.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Reverend John Randolph, Bachelor of Divinity, the Office and Place of Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, together with the Place and Dignity of a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ in the said University, properly belonging to the Regius Professor of the said University, being both void by the Death of the Reverend Doctor Benjamin Wheeler.

Also to grant to the Honourable and Reverend Edward Seymour Conway, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canon of the said Cathedral Church, void by the Death of the Reverend Doctor Benjamin Kennicott.

Also to grant to the Honourable and Reverend George Hamilton, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Prebend of His Majesty's Free Chapel of St. George in the Castle of Windsor, void by the Death of the Reverend Doctor John James Maudie.

The King has been pleased to grant to Thomas Thompson, of the Inner Temple, London, Gentleman, (pursuant to the Will of Thomas West, late of the Parish of St. Nicholas, Deptford, in the County of Kent, Ship-builder, deceased) His Royal Licence and Authority to assume and take the Surname of West, in Addition to his present Name; and also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of July, 1783,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT having been represented to His Majesty, that several Persons who formerly obtained Orders from His Majesty in Council for Grants of Land in the Province of Nova Scotia, have not proceeded to locate and survey the Lands directed to be granted to them by such Orders, but have, in many Instances, sold and transferred them to others, who have also delayed to carry them into Execution, to the great Injury of His Majesty's Revenue of Quit Rents, and Retardment of the Cultivation and Improvement of the said Province: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke and make void (and doth hereby revoke and make void) all Orders made by His Majesty in Council for the Grant of Lands in the Province of Nova Scotia, which bear Date prior to the 1st of January, 1774, and have not yet been carried into Execution: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that the Governor or Commander in Chief for the Time being of His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, do forbear to issue any Order of Survey to the Surveyor-General of Lands in the said Province, or to pass any Grants under the Seal of that Province, of any Lot or Parcel of Land within the said Province, in Pursuance of any Order made by His Majesty in Council, which bears Date prior to the 1st Day of January, 1774: And that this His Majesty's Order in Council be published in The London Gazette, to the End that all Persons concerned may have due Notice thereof.

Serph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 8th of August, 1783,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that sundry Ships and Vessels are arrived, and others expected daily to arrive, from Dantzick and other Ports in Royal and Ducal Prussia and Pomerania, laden solely with Corn and other Grain; that the Corn from the Baltick, by the Length of the Voyage and the Warmth of the Weather, is very much heated, and nearly in a State of Fermentation; and that it is of the utmost Importance that the said Ships and Vessels should be exempted from the Performance of Quarantine, and permitted to deliver their Cargoes as soon as possible after their Arrival; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal and Ducal Prussia or Pomerania, so far as respects Ships laden with Corn or Grain, be taken off; and that all Ships and Vessels already arrived, or that may hereafter arrive from those Places, laden with Corn or Grain, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine; provided the proper Officer, on mustering

mustered the Crew, shall find them all in Health; that none of the Crew have died or been sick of any contagious Distemper during the Voyage; that the Ship hath not had Communication with any Ship or Vessel coming from any infected Place; and that there are no Enumerated Goods on board, other than the Bags or Sacks in which the said Corn is contained, or Mats made Use of solely for the Purpose of Dunnage: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

Dublin Castle, August 20, 1783.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint the Honorable Thomas Pelham to be his Excellency's Chief Secretary, in the Room of the Right Honorable William Windham, who has resigned.

Peterburgh, August 1. The following is a Translation of the Manifesto published by Order of the Empress, upon the Occasion of her Troops entering the Peninsula of the Crimea, the Cuban, and the Island of Taman; which Countries are thereby declared to be annexed to her Imperial Majesty's Dominions.

WE Catherine the Second, by the Grace of God, Empress and Sole Monarch of all the Russias, &c. &c. &c.

OUR last War against the Ottoman Empire having been attended with the most signal Successes, we had certainly acquired the Right of re-uniting to the Territories of our Empire the Crimea, of which we were in Possession: We, however, hesitated not to sacrifice that, with many other Conquests, to our ardent Desire of re-establishing the Public Tranquility, and of confirming the good Understanding and Friendship between our Empire and the Ottoman Porte. This Motive induced us to stipulate for the Freedom and Independence of the Tartars, whom we had reduced by our Arms; hoping to remove for ever, by this Means, every Cause of Dissension, and even of Coolness, between Russia and the Ottoman Porte, exposed too often to these Inconveniences by the Form of Government which then subsisted among the Tartars.

Great as were our Sacrifices and our Efforts for realising those Hopes, they were soon, to our great Regret, considerably diminished. The Restlessness natural to the Tartars, fomented by Insinuations, the Source of which is not unknown to us, caused them easily to fall into a Snare laid by Foreign Hands, which had sowed amongst them the Seeds of Disturbance and Confusion to such a Degree, as to induce them to labour for the weakening, and even the total Ruin of an Edifice which our beneficent Cares had erected for the Happiness of that Nation, by procuring them Liberty and Independence, under the Authority of a Chief elected by themselves. Hardly was their Khan established according to this new Form of Government, before he saw himself deprived of all Authority, and even obliged to desert his Country, to give Place to an Usurper, who would again subject the Tartars to the Yoke of a Dominion, from which our Beneficence had released them. The greater Part of them, as blind as they were ignorant, had submitted to that Usurper; the Rest, thinking themselves too weak to resist, would infallibly have yielded to his Yoke; and thus we should have lost the Fruits of our Victories, and the principal Recompence for the Sacrifices which we willingly made at the last Peace, if we had not instantly taken under our immediate Protection, such of the well-disposed Tartars, who, prizing the Blessings of their new political Existence, lamented their being forced to submit to the Usurper who had expelled their lawful Khan. By thus effectually protecting them, we furnished them with the Power and the Means of chusing a new Khan, in the Room of Sahib-Gheray, and of establishing an Administration analogous to this State of Affairs. It was to attain this End that our Military Forces were put in Motion; that a considerable Body of our Troops were ordered, notwithstanding the Severity of the Season, to enter the Crimea, where they were subsisted at our Expence, and obliged to exert the Power of our Arms for the Support of the good Cause, in order to recall such of the Tartars as were estranged from it by their Revolt. The Public is not ignorant that a Rupture between Russia and the Ottoman Porte had very near ensued upon this Occasion; but, Thanks to the Divine Assistance, we disposed Matters in such a Manner, that the Ottoman Porte again acknowledged the Independence of the Tartars, and the Validity of the Election of Schaghin-Gheray, their lawful Sovereign. Notwithstanding all the Inconveniences above-mentioned, as long as we were sustained and animated by the Hope of re-establishing the Repose necessary to the Advantage and Preservation of good Neighbourhood with the Ottoman Empire, we regarded the Crimea according to Tenour and Letter of the Treaties, as a free and independent Country, confining ourself solely to appeasing the Troubles which prevailed amongst them: From our Love of Peace we found in this Conduct a sufficient Recompence for the great Expences incurred by it; but we were soon undeceived in this Respect by the fresh Revolt occasioned in the Crimea last Year, the Encouragement of which always flowed from the same Source. We have been obliged in consequence to have Recourse again to considerable Armaments, and to cause Troops to enter into the Crimea and the Cuban, whose Presence is become indispensable for maintaining Tranquility and good Order in the adjacent Countries. The sad Experience of every Day demonstrates more clearly, that if the Sovereignty of the Ottoman Porte in the Crimea was a perpetual Source of Discord between our Two Empires, the Independence of the Tartars exposes us to Subjects of Contention no less numerous and important, since the long Servitude to which that People have been accustomed, has rendered the greater Part of the Individuals incapable of valuing the Advantages of the new Situation procured for them by that Independence of which we sought to give them the Enjoyment; and which, laying us under the Necessity of being always armed, occasions not only great Expences, but also exposes our Troops to inevitable and continual Fatigues.

The Efforts they made to extinguish the Flame of Discord, in succouring the Well-intentioned of that Nation, exposed them to the Violences of the Seditious and ill-intentioned, whom we were willing to leave unpunished, in order to avoid even the Shadow of an Act of Sovereignty, so long as we could cherish the least Hope of at length restoring good Order, and preventing by this Means the essential Interests of our Empire from being injured.

But to our great Regret all these Measures, dictated solely by our Love of Humanity, tended only to bring upon us Losses and Damages, which we have the more sensibly at Heart, as they affected our Subjects. The Loss in Men is not to be appreciated; we will not attempt to estimate it; that in Money, according to the most moderate Calculations, amounts to upwards of Twelve Millions of Roubles. To these Particulars is to be added another of the utmost Importance, both in its Object and with regard to its Consequences: We have just been informed that the Porte has begun to lay Claim to the Exercise of Sovereignty in the Tartar Dominions, by sending one of their Officers, at the Head of a Detachment of Troops, to the Island of Taman, who has even proceeded to cause the Officer to be publicly beheaded who was sent to him by the Khan Schaghin-Gheray, with a Commission only to enquire of him what were the Motives for his Arrival in that Island; and what evidently proves the Nature of the Mission of this Commandant of the Troops is, that he made no Difficulty in declaring openly to the Inhabitants of Taman, that he looked upon them as Subjects of the Porte. This decisive though unexpected Step, convincing us of the Inutility of the Sacrifices we had made upon the last Peace, annuls in Consequence the Engagements we had contracted, with the sole Intention of firmly establishing the Freedom and Independence of the Tartars, and sufficiently authorizes us to enter again into the Enjoyment of those Rights which we had lawfully acquired by Conquest; the more so, as it is the only Means remaining for us to secure hereafter a solid and permanent Peace between the Two Empires. Animated therefore with a sincere Desire of confirming and maintaining the last Peace concluded with the Porte, by preventing the continual Disputes which the Affairs of the Crimea produced, our Duty to ourself, and the Preservation of the Security of our Empire, equally demand our taking the firm Resolution to put an End, once for all, to the Troubles in the Crimea; and for this Purpose we re-unite to our Empire the Peninsula of Crimea, the Island of Taman, and all the Cuban, as a just Indemnification for the Losses sustained, and the Expences we have been obliged to incur in maintaining the Peace and Welfare of these Territories.

In declaring to the Inhabitants of those Countries by the present Manifesto, that such is our Imperial Pleasure, we promise them, for us and our Successors in the Imperial Throne of Russia, that they shall be treated upon an Equality with our ancient Subjects; and that, in taking them under our high Protection, we will defend against all People their Persons, their Estates, their Temples, and the Religion they profess; that they shall enjoy the most absolute Liberty of Conscience, without the least Restriction, in the public Exercise of their Worship and their Ceremonies; and that not only the Nation in general, but also each Individual in particular, shall participate in all the Advantages enjoyed by our ancient Subjects. But we also expect, from the Gratitude of our new Subjects, that, touched with these Favours, they will be sensible of the Value of this fortunate Revolution, which removes them from a convulsed State of Disturbances and Dissensions to one of entire Security and perfect Tranquility under the Protection of the Laws; and that, striving to imitate the Submission, Zeal, and Fidelity of those who have long had the Happiness of living under our Government, they will render themselves worthy of our Imperial Favour, Beneficence, and Protection. Given at our Imperial Residence of St. Petersburg, the 8th of April, in the Year of Grace, 1783, and in the 21st Year of our Reign.

(Signed with her Imperial Majesty's own Hand)

CATHERINE.

Copenhagen, August 16. Various Accounts have been received here of an Island having lately arisen in the Sea in the Neighbourhood of Iceland. Although the Fact itself is authentic, yet the Time of the first Appearance of this Island, its Dimensions, and Situation, are not well ascertained. The Information brought by the last Ship from thence is, that it was still increasing, and that great Quantities of Fire issued from Two of its Eminences.

Vienna, August 16. His Imperial Majesty went to the Country Palace of Laxembourg last Night, and the first grand Manœuvre of the Troops, encamped at Minkendorf, was performed this Morning in his Majesty's Presence.

Berlin, August 19. His Prussian Majesty set out for Silesia on the 15th Instant, having been preceded by the Prince Royal, who left Potsdam on the 14th.

Whitehall, August 30, 1783.

Whereas, by an Inquisition taken the 20th Day of this instant August, before Chiswell Slade, Esq; Mayor and Coroner of the ancient Town of Rye, — Ketchley, otherwise called Laughing Dick, late of Hamstreet, in the Parish of Orlesone, in the County of Kent, Mariner, Thomas Moore, late of Rye, in the County of Sussex, Mariner, and Edward Kyte, late of Dover, in the said County of Kent, Mariner, (together with divers others of the Crew of a Lug sail or Smuggling Vessel, whose Names are at present unknown) stand charged with the wilful Murder of Henry Haddock, late Master or Commander of a Vessel called the Scourge, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, the said Henry Haddock being, on the 19th Day of the said Month, on Board the said Vessel off Dongeness Point, in the said County of Kent, in order to intercept and make Seizure of any Goods that might be attempted to be run or put on Shore on that Part of the Coast; and in the Execution of such his Duty, certain Carriage and other Guns or Musquets were fired by the said — Ketchley, Thomas Moore, and Edward Kyte, and the Rest of the Crew belonging to the said Smuggling Vessel, upon the said Vessel in the Service of His said Majesty's Customs, by one of which the said Henry Haddock was mortally wounded, and instantly died:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders, who shall discover his Accomplices (except the said — Ketchley, Thomas Moore, and Edward Kyte) so that Two or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

N O R T H.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend and take, or cause to be apprehended and taken, the said — Ketchley, Thomas Moore, and Edward Kyte, or either of them, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction; and if in Consequence of such Discovery

Geo. Robinson, pro Secretary.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs having received Information that the Coin of this Realm, to a very considerable Amount, is clandestinely exported into Foreign Parts, on Board Smuggling and other Vessels, have thought it expedient to apprise all Persons who may be concerned in this illicit Practice, that by several Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, British Coin, either in Gold or Silver, is prohibited to be exported or carried out of this Kingdom into any Parts beyond the Seas (except to Ireland) without Licence from His Majesty, upon Forfeiture of such Coin, or the Value thereof, and the same will be liable to be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Customs, and prosecuted according to Law.

Geo. Robinson, pro Secretary.

The FOURTH EDITION of

An ESSAY on the VIRTUES of Dr. NORRIS'S DROPS:

TO WHICH ARE ADDED,

Many Letters and Cases, voluntarily addressed by the Parties to Dr. NORRIS, and at their Request now published, unequivocally proving the unequalled Efficacy of this Medicine in curing EVERY Species of Putrid, Inflammatory, or Malignant FEVER, with the greatest Ease and Safety, even when the Disorder has baffled the Efforts of the most eminent of the Faculty, and every other Means that Science could devise, have been resorted to in vain.

EXPERIENCE in an extensive Practice for a long Series of Years, in which the Efficacy of this Medicine has been proved in many Thousand Cases, establishes it as the safest Remedy yet discovered for every Kind of Fever;—such is its specific quality, that by reconciling Nature to herself, the Danger is removed in a few Hours, and, to the Astonishment of those present, the Cure is effected without the least Violence in Operation, or tumultuous Anxiety to the Patient, and consequently it is one of the long-wished for DESIDERATA IN PHYSIC.

That SPECIES of FEVER commonly, although erroneously termed NERVOUS, the Reproach of Physic, certainly yields in a short Time to the Power of these Drops; Perspiration, gentle yet continual, the sure and certain Attendant of Health, is induced,—the Circulation of the Fluids through the minute Vessels is encouraged,—and the Train of vain Fears, sleepless Nights, and indefinable Anxiety incident to Nervous Cases, give Place to Serenity and Cheerfulness; Nature is enabled throw off that which oppressed her, and the Patient is blessed with renovated Health and Spirits.—These are the happy Effects of this noble Medicine, when taken as an Alterative

HECTIC CASES, the first Stage of a CONSUMPTION, and to which so many of our Youth are devoted, are ever attended with a Fever; a Tea-spoonful, two, or three of these Drops, in half a Pint of Ases or Cow's Milk, taken Morning and Evening, remove the Cause, invigorate the Frame, and restore the Patient, even in advanced Stages, when the most alarming Symptoms appear.

GOUTY and RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS are relieved and cured by this Medicine, promoting and supporting insensible Perspiration, from the Obstruction whereof innumerable Disorders arise.

In the SCURVY, by sweetening the Blood, and enabling it to throw off those acrid Salts, the Basis of the Disorder, they effect a Cure, and prevent a Return.

In LOWNESS of SPIRITS, in SICKNESS of the STO-MACH, INDIGESTION, and particularly in all BILIOUS DISORDERS, and obstinate COSTIVENESS, from the too frequent Use of Cathartics, and in Pains of the Stomach and Bowels, there is not their Equal for Efficacy and Safety.

In the NATURAL INFIRMITIES of advanced Life, particularly in old obstinate COUGHS, and ASTHMATIC AF-FECTIONS, this Medicine will be found most salutary, restoring the balsamic Qualities of the Blood, and enabling Nature to resist the Attacks of these Disorders; where tough

Phlegm abounds, and is with great Difficulty discharged, they facilitate Expectoration in an amazing Degree.

In DISORDERS incident to the FAIR SEX, arising from Obstructions at a certain Time of Life, there is no Medicine so deserving their Confidence, or which will restore Health with such Certainty and Ease.

FEVERS, BILIOUS COMPLAINTS, and FLUXES, the Bane of EUROPEANS in HOT CLIMATES, are cured in a few Hours, and every dangerous Symptom removed; and as this Medicine is incorruptible, and rather improves by Time, there needs no further Recommendation thereof to CAP-TAINS of SHIPS, and Persons going to the INDIES and AMERICA, to make it an Article in their Store.

“When it is considered that almost every Disorder incident to human Nature derives its Origin from OBSTRUCTED PERSPIRATION, a VITIATED STOMACH, or FOUL-NESS of the BLOOD, and that every Disease for which this Medicine is recommended arises from one of these Causes, the Wonder why it is so efficacious in so many Complaints, (the same in their Source, though various in Appearance, must cease; and Dr. NORRIS most seriously assures the World, that he has in no one Instance advised this truly great MEDI-CINE, but where a long Experience of its Effects, and the Cures set forth in the ESSAY upon its VIRTUES, amply warrant his Declaration of its Efficacy, and Recommendation to the afflicted.”

These Drops are sold in moulded flat Bottles, inscribed in the Glass, “Dr. Norris's Drops for Fevers,” [with full Directions] at 2s. 6d. 5s. and 10s. 6d. each, by Dr. NORRIS, at his House in Bridge-street, Black-frisks, London; where he is consulted, as usual: Also by Mr. Kearley, No. 46, Fleet-street; Mrs. Randal, under the Royal Exchange; Mr.
Pierce, Cornhill; Mrs. Davenport, Cornhill; Carolina Coffeehouse, Birchin-lane; Mr. Burnell, No. 133, New Bond-street; Messrs. Byfield and Hawksworth, Charing-cross; Mr.
Southern, St. James's-street; and by some reputable Bookseller or Stationer in most capital Towns in England, Scotland, and Ireland; particularly the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Dublin.

†† The usual Allowance will be made to Persons taking a Quantity for charitable Uses, or Exportation.
