Stamp-Office, September 5, 1783.

Tax on the Registry of Burials, Marriages, Births and Christenings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in Pursuance of an Act of the last Session of Parliament for granting a Stamp Duty on the Registry of Burials, Marriages, Births, or Christenings, which commences the 2d of October next, the said Register Books may now be stamped at this Office with the Duty required; or the Commissioners will, if such be the Option of the Parties applying, grant Licences for making the said Entries, without the Stamps being marked thereon, on Security being given for the Payment of the said Duty.

And for the Convenience of the Clergy resident in the Country, the Head Distributors of Stamps in the several Counties where such Registers are kept will also be empowered to grant Licences in like Manner; upon Application to them for that Purpose.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Sec.

Whitehall, August 30, 1783.

THE Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for enquiring into the Losses, &c. of the American Loyalists being assembled for the Purpose of carrying the Act into Execution, request such Persons as intend to make Claims, to state their Cases fully, by Way of Memorial, and to deliver the same at Mr. Forster's Chambers, No. 7, King's Bench Walks, Inner Temple, any Day (Sundays excepted) between the Hours of Ten and Two o'Clock, until the 29th of September; and afterwards at the Office of the Commissioners in Lincoln's-inn-fields. It is required that each Claimant specify, at the Time of presenting the Memorial, his Place of Abode, and the Names, Descriptions, and Places of Abode of the Witnesses by whose Testimony the Case is intended to be substantiated, otherwise the same will not be taken into Consideration. And the Commissioners recommend the Perusal of the Act to the several Claimants before they make their Applications.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Forster, Secretary.

Mrs. Peloquin's Legacies.

WHEREAS the Trustees appointed by the late Mrs.
Peloquin's Will and Codicils, have repeatedly taken Pains to inform the Parties concerned of their Interest in the same: And whereas divers Persons then residing in America, have not applied for the Payment of their respective Legacies, notwithstanding the Notice given in the News Papers of New York for that Purpose. This is therefore to give Final Notice, that unless such Legatees will apply to the Trustees, by themselves or by their Agents properly and legally authorized, for the Payment of the same (at James Dalteras, Esq; in Bristol) within Twelve Months from the Date hereof, they, the Trustees, will petition the High Court of Chancery for Leave to vest sufficient Sums of Money for discharging the said Legacies and Interests, if any due thereon, in the Funds or other Securities belonging to the said Court, to be under its immediate Controul and Direction. As witness our Hands in Bristol,
