St. James's, September 25, 1783.

This Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, of the City of London, waited upon Her Majesty, (being introduced by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by Thomas Harrison, Esq; Deputy-Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations upon the Birth of another Princess, and your Majesty's happy Recovery.

Permit us, Madam, farther to congratulate your Majesty upon his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales having attained his Age of Twenty-one Years, And we sincerely hope and trust, that he will fill the important Station to which he is called, with Dignity to himself, and Prosperity to his Country.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer.

I T H A N K you for your Congratulations on the Birth of another Princess, on My Recovery, and on the Prince of Wales having attained the Age of Twenty-one Years.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, September 26.

This Day Anthony Storer, Esq; had the Honour to kiss the King's Hand, on being appointed His Majesty's Secretary of Embassy to the Most Christian King.

IN Pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to enable the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to serve in Parliament, in the room of such Members as shall die during the Recess of Parliament;" I do hereby give Notice, That the Death of Lovel Stanhope, Esquire, late Member of Parliament for the City of Winchester, in the County of Southampton, hath been certified to me in Writing, under the Hands of Two Members of Parliament: And that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the Electing of a Citizen to serve in this present Parliament for the said City of Winchester, in the room of the said Lovel Stanhope, Esquire, deceased, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the Gazette. Dated the Twenty-fourth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-three.

C. W. CORNWALL, Speaker.
