

tion to give the Rebels Battel, who were said to be about 8000 strong. In Alsace the Armies are now in good earnest preparing to go into their Winter-quarters, which the Imperialists will have on this side the Rhine.

Brussells, Nov. 5. His Excellency has payed all the Confederate Troops, according to his last Agreement, till the 9th of October, and they will have the other Months payed them so soon as they grow due. We are told that the French are making four great Magazines, one upon the Moselle, another upon the Meuse, the third at Cambresis, and the fourth towards the Sea Coast at Dunkirk; they have put 3000 men into Mount Cassel, and have made a Winter quarter at Bell, and we are told that Marschal d'Humieres is ordered to keep his Residence this Winter at Valcrojennes. Fifteen Companies of the Black Guards, and twelve of Suiss, are come to S. n., which shews they have an eye that way. We have here a very strong Garrison, viz. Five Battalions of the Hispanes Army, besides the Spanish Infantry, and four Regiments of Horse, and one of Dragoon.

Ditto, Nov. 9. The Marquis de los Balbases the chief of the Spanish Embassy at Nimeguen, and Don Emanuel de Lyra, have been for some days at Antwerp, and the Yacht that brought them is come hither to fetch his Excellency the Duke de Villa Hermosa, who hath not yet fixed the day for his going thither, by reason the French have been assembled for some days in three or four several places in very considerable Bodies; one Body of them under the command of Marschal d'Humieres is near Conde; upon whose approach the Duke of Arschot sent 200 men from St Ghilain to the Castle of Bosna; which the Enemy however attacked, and forced to surrender, and at present continue there. They have with them Ponrons, Mortars, and Cannon; but we know not their farther design. Another Body of them betwixt 5 and 6000 strong, is about Aeth, which puts us here in great fear of Hall, it not being as yet in a condition to be defended, by reason the new Fortifications are not finished; and therefore his Excellency will not go for Antwerp till he sees what becomes of the Enemy, who alarms us on all sides. In the mean time his Excellency has sent Don Carlos de Borja his Nephew, and a Captain of his Guards to compliment the Marquis de los Balbases; who hath taken two great Houses at Antwerp for a months time, which he intends to spend there.

Hague, Nov. 5. The Conferences between Don Emanuel de Lyra the Spanish Minister, and the Deputies of the Admiralties, were continued till yesterday, when they concluded all matters necessary to be adjusted, concerning the Equipage designed for Sicily, which is now very much hastened; and in order thereunto, a very considerable Sum of Money hath been already payed at Amsterdam, and security given for the rest; so that it is believed the said Squadron, which is to be commanded by the Sieur Everz, will sail before the end of this month. The Bishop of Munster it seems pretends his Troops shall winter in the Dioceses of Liege, which this State will not allow, because that Countrey pays Contributions to it, and the Bishop persisting in his said intention, the States have written to him on this subject. From Nimeguen we have an account, that the Marquis de los Balbases, the chief of the Spanish Embassy there, was gone for Antwerp, to confer with the Duke de Villa Hermosa, Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, upon several matters relating to the present conjuncture.

Ditto, Nov. 9. This place is filled with a general joy, occasioned by the news which was brought hither by an Express on Sunday morning of the Marriage between her Highness the Lady Mary, and his Highness the Prince of Orange, being declared in England, and that it was to be forthwith consummated. The States General were assembled that afternoon, and with great satisfaction received and read the Letter writ by his Highness to acquaint them with it. On Thursday the States of Holland will be extraordinarily assembled, and then the resolutions will be taken becoming the occasion. The Minister of this State with the Elector of Brandenburg writes in his last Letters, that the Siege of Strim seemed to draw towards an end; that the Besieged were extremely weakened, and began to be out of heart, that the Besiegers had posted themselves in several places on the Town Walls; that the Burgbers had indeed made several Works and Retrenchments within, but they would stand them in little stead, save to enable them to obtain better composition, when things came to the last extremity. The Febricon in the Isle of Rugen holds out still.

Paris, Nov. 10. The last Letters we have from Alsace are dated the 5th instant, they tell us, that the Imperial Army decamped the 3d instant, and marched towards Landau, in order to goings into Winter quarters. The 5th, the French Army likewise marched to Kastelnitz, where the Troops would separate; some of them are appointed to winter in Flanders. It is said that some Troops are ordered to march towards Piedmont.

Advertisements.

IN pursuance of a former Advertisement concerning the amendment and durability of Flint Glasses, and for entire assurance of such as shall buy any marked with the Kavens Head, either from the Glass House situate in the Savoy on the River side, or from Shopkeepers who shall ever have had them from the said Glass House. It is further offered and declared, That in case any of the above said Glasses shall happen to crack or decay (as once they did) They shall be readily changed by the said Shop-keepers, or at the above said Glass-house or the money returned to content of the Party aggrieved, with the Charges also, if they shall have been sent into the Country or beyond Seas, or to any remoter Parts of the World.

Mr. Winthrop, aged about 36 years, of body short and lean, thin visage and wrinkled, light short lank hair, but weareth a Perriwig of the same colour, hath a little stammering in his Speech, and is a great Pretender to Scholarship, having been some time Usur to a School at Farnham in Surrey, went away the 2d of October last, from the George at Ashford in Kent, where he was entrusted with the Wine Cellar, and hath taken with him (though not fully known) a considerable Sum of Money. Whoever apprehends him, shall be well rewarded.

There was the 20th of October last, hired by a Gentleman, of John Burges at the George Inn in Kilsby in Northamptonshire, a black brown Gelding, having a star in his forehead, a long white snip down his nose, one white foot, about 14 hands. The said Gentleman had a red Plush Saddle of his own, and Holsters of the same embroidered; he was in tight coloured Cloaths with red trimming, and red breeches, with gold and silver Lace. Whoever gives notice of the said Gelding to Mr. John Burges aforesaid, or to William Sawbridge Bookseller in Little Britain, shall have their Charges born, and 20 s. besides for a Reward.

Lost on Tuesday evening the 23d of October last, between London-Bridge and Ludgate, two leather Bags joined together, wherein are a Comb-case, four Combs, three Perriwigs, three Razors, two pair of Stockings, one double Money-bag, one bundle of Papers, and some Linnen. Whoever shall bring the said Bags and things in it to the Three Naked Boys at Strandbridge, or to Mr. Stables Goldsmith over against the Cross-Kings in Henrietta-street in Queen's Garden, shall have 40 s. Reward.

Stolen or lost from Robert Jenner of East-Grimsted in Suffex, the 30th of October last, two white gray Horses; the one a flea-bitten branded with R. I on the near shoulder, a slit on one ear; the other a brown mane and tail, about 7 or 8 years old, both betwixt 13 and 14 hands. Whoever gives notice of both or either of the said Horses, to Robert Jenner aforesaid, or to Mr. John Wood at the Greyhound in Southwark, London, shall have 20 s. each Horse as a Reward.