From Saturday October 18, to Tuesday October 21, 1783.

Dublin Castle, October 14, 1783.

THIS Day the Parliament having met according to Appointment, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers; and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, his Excellency sent for the Commons and directed them to choose a Speaker; and they having unanimously elected the Right Honourable Edmund Sexton Pery into to that Office, he was by them presented to his Excellency and approved of. His Excellency then made the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is with more than ordinary Satisfaction that in Obedience to His Majesty's Commands I meet you, in the full Possession and Enjoyment of those Constitutional and Commercial Advantages which have been so firmly established in your last Parliament. The sacred Regard on the Part of Great Britain, to the Adjustment made with Ireland at that Period, has been abundantly testified by the most unequivocal Proofs of Sincerity and Good Faith.

It will ever be my Wish, as it is my Duty, to promote the mutual Confidence of both Kingdoms, and the uniting them in Sentiments as they are in Interest; such an Union must produce the most solid Advantages to both, and will add Vigour and Strength to the Empire.

I sincerely congratulate you on the happy Completion of His Majesty's anxious Endeavours to restore the Blessings of Peace to his faithful People. The Establishment of the Public Tranquility is peculiarly favourable at this Period, and will naturally give Spirit and Effect to your Commercial Pursuits. Both Kingdoms are now enabled to deliberate with undivided Attention on the surest Means of increasing their Prosperity, and reaping the certain Fruits of reciprocal Affection.

I have the highest Satisfaction in acquainting you of the Increase of His Majesty's domestic Happiness by the Birth of another Princess.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to lay the National Accounts before you: From them you will be enabled to judge of the Circumstances of the Kingdom; and I rely upon your Wisdom and Loyalty to make such Provision as shall be fitting for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Miseries of an approaching Famine have been averted by the Blessing of Divine Providence upon the Measures which the Privy Council advised; the good Effects of which were soon visible in the immediate Reduction of the Price of Grain and the Influx of a valuable and necessary Supply to the Market. Any temporary Infringement of the Laws to effect such salutary Ends, will, I doubt not, receive a Parliamentary Sanction.

Among the many important Objects which demand your Attention, I recommend to your Consideration Laws for regulating the Judicature of the Court of Admiralty, and for making a new Establishment of the Post-Office.

The Linen Manufacture being the Staple of your Country, it is needless for me to recommend Perseverance in the Improvement of that most important Article.

The Fishery on your Coasts will claim your Attention as a promising Source of Wealth to this Kingdom; and the Encouragements granted to it will no Doubt be regulated by you in the Manner most likely to produce the best Effect, and least subject to Fraud and Imposition.

The Protestant Charter Schools, an Institution founded in Wisdom and Humanity, are also most eminently intitled to your Care.

I recommend likewise to your Attention the Proposals adopted by Government for providing an Asylum for the distressed Genevans. It well becomes the Generosity of the People of Ireland to extend their Protection to ingenious and industrious Men, who may prove a valuable Acquisition to this Country, which they have preferred to their own. But in forming this Establishment, you will doubtless consider it as a Part of your Duty to avoid unnecessary Expence, and ultimately to secure the utmost Advantages to your Country.

I anticipate the greatest national Benefits from the Wisdom and Temper of Parliament, when I consider that the General Election has afforded you an Opportunity of observing the internal Circumstances of the Country, and of judging by what Regulations you may best increase its Industry, encourage its Manufactures, and extend its Commerce.

In the Furtherance of Objects so very desirable to yourselves, I assure you of every good Disposition on my Part; sensible that in no Manner I can better fulfil the Wishes and Commands of our Gracious Sovereign, than by contributing to the Welfare and Happiness of His loyal Subjects. With an honest Ambition of meriting your good Opinion, and with the warmest Hope of obtaining it, I have entered upon my present arduous Situation; and with Sentiments pure and disinterested towards you, I claim your Advice, and firmly rely upon your Support.

[Price Seven Pence.]

upon humble Addresses to His Majesty the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord-Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return our most humble Thanks to your Majesty for those gracious Expressions we have received from the Throne, of that tender Concern and paternal Regard for the Happiness of this Kingdom, which we have ever so happily experienced.

Impressed at all Times with the deepest Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, we most thankfully acknowledge, as a fresh Instance of it, the placing us under the Government of a Nobleman, whose amiable Character, whose Integrity and Abilities, afford every Prospect of National Prosperity to the Country over which he is to preside.

The unequivocal Proofs we have received from Great Britain of her sacred Regard for the Adjustment of our Constitution and Commerce, made and established in the last Parliament, not only afford us the fullest Security for our Constitutional and Commercial Rights, but must excite in us the warmest Affection towards our Sister Country, and strengthen that Union of Sentiment, as well as of Interest, between the Two Kingdoms, upon which the Power and Happiness of both so materially depend.

To contribute to give Permanency to that Union, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, it will ever be the first Wish of our Hearts, as it will be the first Object of our Endeavours.

We beseech your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations at the Success which has attended your Majesty's anxious Exertions to restore the Blessing of Peace to your faithful People, which must naturally give Spirit and Effect to our Commercial Pursuits. And whilst it will enable both Kingdoms to deliberate on the surest Means of increasing our common Prosperity, we shall give every Attention in our Power to promote such Measures as shall effectually secure to us the solid Benefits that must arise from reciprocal Affection.

The happy Increase of your Majesty's Royal Family, by the Birth of a Princess, has afforded us all that heartfelt Satisfaction, which we can never fail to experience upon every Increase to your Majesty's domestic Happiness.

Conscious of the Wisdom of those Measures advised by the Privy Council, which, through the Mercy of Divine Providence, have averted from the People the Miseries of impending Famine, we shall gratefully concur in a Parliamentary Sanction of the Means pursued by Government to prevent so dreadful a Calamity.

We shall also most cheerfully concur in regulating the Judicature of the Court of Admiralty as well as forming an Establishment for the Post-Office.

The Improvement of our Linen Manufacture must ever be a principal Object of our Regard.

We are too fully convinced of the extreme Importance of the Fishery on our Coasts, both to our attention on our Part, which may best encourage so valuable a Branch of our Commerce, and best prevent those Frauds and Impostions, which are so fatal to every infant Undertaking.

We shall likewise consider the Protestant Charter Schools, from the Humanity, as well as Wisdom of the Institution, highly deserving of our Care.

We conceive the liberal Intentions of Government to provide an Asylum to the industrious and distressed Genevans demand both our Acknowledgments and warmest Concurrence in every Measure that may promote the Settlement in this Kingdom of so useful a Body of Men. But whilst we shall endeavour to procure every Advantage to our Country from that Settlement, we are likewise bound to prevent as far as possible every unnecessary Expence with which the Measure might be attended.

We trust that the present Parliament will be distinguished in the Annals of their Country for their Wisdom, Temper, and Moderation, and for the Efficacy of their Regulations, to increase the Industry, encourage the Manufactures, and extend the Commerce of this Kingdom.

Whilst we shall endeavour to promote such valuable and important Objects to ourselves, we shall most cordially consider the Interest of Great Britain as immediately connected with our own; and ever having experienced the Paternal Beneficence of our most gracious Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept the Tribute of Hearts deeply impressed with Gratitude in earnestly imploring the Divine Goodness long to continue your Majesty's auspicious Reign over a loyal, happy, and united People.

W. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I WILL take the earliest Opportunity of transmitting this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to offer to your Majesty our grateful Thanks for the Appointment of a Nobleman to the Government of this Kingdom, whose Justice, Integrity and Abilities, afford the best founded Expectations of National Happiness and Prosperity under his Administration.

The Sincerity and Good Faith of Great Britain, so abundantly testified by the sacred Regard shewn on her Part to the Adjustment of our Constitution and Commerce, demand our warmest Acknowledgments, while we enjoy the full Possession of those Constitutional and Commercial Advantages which were so firmly established in the last Parliament.

We shall earnestly concur in any Measure that may confirm and strengthen the mutual Confidence of both Kingdoms, and their Union, in Sentiment as well as in Interest. From thence the most solid Advantages must arise to both Kingdoms.

doms, and Vigor will be added to the Strength of the Empire

Already do we feel the Blessings of Peace; and we intreat your Majesty to accept our humble Thanks for the happy Completion of your anxious Endeavours to restore that ineffimable Blessing to your faithful People. We hope now to reap the Fruits of our extended Commerce, and in our Deliberations we shall look upon the increasing Prosperity of Great Britain with that Regard, which must be the Effect of reciprocal Affection.

As affectionate Subjects, deeply interested in the Happiness of our beloved Sovereign, we learn with the highest Satisfaction the Increase of that Happiness in the Birth of another Princefs.

We will immediately inspect the National Accounts; and, happy in your Majesty's just Reliance upon our Loyalty, we will make such Provision as shall be fitting for the honourable Support of your Majesty's Government, consistently with the Abilities of the Nation.

We adore the Mercy of Divine Providence in averting from this People the Miseries of impending Famine; and we will cheerfully concur in a Parliamentary Sanction of those wise and salutary Measures, which Government pursued by the Advice of the Privy Council.

We shall lose no Time in the necessary Manner for regulating the Jurisdiction of the Court of Admiralty, and for making a new Establishment of the Post-Office.

We shall industriously persevere in the Improvement of our Linen Manufacture; nor shall we omit an Attention to the Fishery, that promising Source of Industry and Wealth; and we shall endeavour to regulate the Encouragements granted to it, so as to produce the best Effects, and to prevent Fraud and Imposition.

We shall likewise extend our Care to the Protestant Charter Schools.

We shall readily forward the liberal Intentions of Government to provide an Asylum for the distressed Genevans. Ingenious Men have a Claim to the Protection of a generous Nation. But our own Country is no less entitled to that Care, which it is our Duty to exert in avoiding unnecessary Expence, and securing the utmost Advantages from the Settlement of the Emigrants.

We trust that the Wisdom and Temper of this Parliament will be manifested in all its Proceedings; and we shall endeavor to profit by every Opportunity which Circumstances have afforded us of observing the internal State of the Country, and judging what Regulations may best encourage and extend its Industry, Manufactures and Commerce.

Having constantly experienced the Benevolence of our Gracious Sovereign in contributing to the Welfare and Happiness of His faithful Subjects, we lay at your Majesty's Feet the Tribute of grateful Hearts, earnestly beseeching the Divine Goodness long to continue the Blessings of your Majesty's auspicious Reign over a happy, united, and loyal People.

Theo. Ellis, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I WILL take the first Opportunity of transmitting this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Excellency Robert Earl of Northington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, present to your Excellency our warmest Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency and ourselves upon your Appointment to the Government of this Kingdom; at a Period peculiarly auspicious to Ireland.

In the fullest Reliance upon your Excellency's Wisdom, Justice, and Integrity we anticipate the Advantages this Kingdom must derive from your Excellency's Administration; and consider your Excellency's Appointment to preside in it as a fresh Instance of His Majesty's paternal Regard for the Happiness of His faithful People.

We are highly grateful for the Warmth with which your Excellency signifies your Satisfaction at meeting us in the full Possession and Enjoyment of those Constitutional and Commercial Rights, which were so firmly established in the last Parliament.

We trust that the unequivocal Proofs given by Great Britain of her sacred Regard to the Adjustment then made with Ireland, cannot fail to cement the Union, and strengthen the mutual Confidence between Two Kingdoms, the true Interests of which are and must ever be inseparable.

We beg Leave to share with your Excellency in the Satisfaction you express, at the Success of His Majesty's Endeavours to restore the Blessings of Peace to His faithful People.

We shall, in Pursuance of your Excellency's wise and reasonable Advice, shew our Readiness to deliberate upon the Measures pointed out by your Excellency, as well for regulating the Jurisdiction of the Court of Admiralty, and the new Establishment of the Post Office, as for promoting our Commercial Pursuits, and reaping the Advantages to be derived from the Restoration of Publick Tranquility. Permit us to add; that the Recommendation of those Measures by your Excellency affords the most convincing Evidence of your Respect for the Rights, and your Capacity to discern and desire to promote the Interests of Ireland.

The Measures pursued by Government, by the Advice of the Privy Council, to avert the Miseries of an impending Famine, if not strictly conformable to Law, will appear, we doubt not, to have been urged by Necessity, and so essential to the Publick Good as to merit Parliamentary Indemnification.

We enjoy the highest Pleasure in every Addition to the domestic Happiness of our Gracious Sovereign, and participate in your Excellency's Satisfaction at the Birth of another Princefs.

We trust our well known and most sincere Loyalty to His Majesty, our Confidence in the Sincerity and Good Faith of our Sister Country, and the ample Means we have lately acquired of becoming a great and commercial People, will dispose us to carry on our Consultations for His Majesty's Honor and the Good of our Country, with that Duty, Temper and Unanimity which can alone render them successful.

ceful, and perpetuate the Harmony between the Two Kingdoms: And with the firmest Reliance on your Excellency's pure and disinterested Intentions towards us, we shall to the utmost of our Power support the Honor of His Majesty's Government, and the Ease of your Excellency's Administration.

Wm. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.
Edw. Gayer, }

His Excellency's Answer.

I Return your Lordships my sincere Thanks for this very honorable Testimony of your good Opinion, which it shall be my constant Endeavor to improve. Be assured that my Inclinations, as well as my Duty, will ever interest me deeply in the Prosperity and Happiness of Ireland.

To his Excellency Robert Henley, Earl of Northington, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WHEREAS His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne. We consider it as a strong Proof of His Majesty's gracious Attention to the Happiness and Prosperity of Ireland, that He has been pleased to commit the Government of this Kingdom to your Excellency, in whose Firmness, Justice, and Integrity we place the highest Confidence that the Powers of Government will be directed to the true Interests of the People.

We trust that your Excellency will lay before His Majesty the faithful and affectionate Duty of His loyal Subjects of Ireland, and represent their cordial Regard to Great Britain in its full Light, thereby strengthening the mutual Confidence of both Kingdoms, and uniting them inseparably in Sentiment, as they are in Interest.

We will assiduously apply ourselves to the Consideration of the many important Objects which your Excellency has recommended to our Attention. And we cannot refrain from acknowledging with Gratitude the Interest which your Excellency takes in the Prosperity of this Kingdom, when in the very Nature of those Objects we trace the just and generous Spirit which points them out to us.

We will cheerfully grant such Supplies as after a proper Investigation of the National Accounts, shall appear to be fitting for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government, considering the Abilities of the Country.

Convinced of your Excellency's Disposition to promote the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom, we shall prove ourselves not unworthy the Confidence you are pleased to repose in us, by contributing our best Endeavours to the Ease and Honor of your Excellency's Administration.

Tho. Ellis, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Answer.

I Return you my cordial Thanks for this very affectionate and obliging Address. It is my earnest Desire to merit your Confidence, and I shall anxiously endeavour to justify the favourable Opinion you entertain of me by an unremitting Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of IRELAND.
