AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of November, 1783.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 6th of June last, allowing the Importation of Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, and from thence imported directly into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British or American Ships, by British Subjects, or by any of the People inhabiting in, or belonging to, the said United States, or any of them, and containing Regulations for the Landing and Warehousing, under His Majesty's Locks, all such Tobacco, it is, among other Things, directed, That the Importer shall pay down in ready Money the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America, and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That during the Continuance of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from Time to Time, to give such Directions and to make such Regulations with respect to Duties, Drawbacks or otherwise, for carrying on the Trade and Commerce between the People and Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and the People and Territories of the said United States, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and direct, That the Importer of any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, and imported directly from thence into the Ports of London, Bristol, Liverpool, Cowes, Whitehaven, and Greenock, or either of them, in the Manner expressed in the above-recited Order, shall be at Liberty, until further Order, to enter into Bond for the Payment as well of the said Duty, commonly called the Old Subsidy, as of all the further Duties due for such Tobacco, in the Manner, and with the Allowances mentioned in the said Order: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order and direct, That if any Tobacco which has been or shall be so imported, during the Continuance of this Order, from the Territories of the said United States, into the said Ports of London, Bristol, Cowes, Liverpool, Whitehaven, and Greenock, shall be afterwards taken, within the Time limited, out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured under His Majesty's Locks, as directed by the before recited Order, at either of the above Ports, to be exported directly from thence, the Bonds which have been, or shall be, entered into for Payment of the said Duties, shall be discharged in Manner directed by the several Acts of Parliament in Force. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, November 8.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord North, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Inverness.

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Inverness, assembled at the Michaelmas Head Court, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Birth of a young Princess; on the Recovery of our most amiable Queen from a late dangerous Illness, and on his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales attaining to the Years of Majority; and your Majesty may be assured that we shall always feel particular Satisfaction in whatever has a Tendency to strengthen and perpetuate the Hanoverian Line of Succession to the Crown of Great Britain.

It is with grateful Hearts we acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Goodness in the late Supply of Provisions sent to the Poor of this County, which has proved a most seasonable Relief to many of your Subjects, reduced through Want of Subsistence to a most deplorable Condition.

Signed by our Appointment, by Simon Fraser, Praeses.

Inverness, October 7, 1783.
