Ceremonial of the Introduction of His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of WALES, into the House of Peers, at the Meeting of Parliament on Tuesday November 11, 1783.

HIS Royal Highness having been, by Letters Patent dated the 19th Day of August, in the Second Year of His Majesty's Reign, created Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester, was, in His Robes, which with the Collar of the Order of the Garter he had put on in the Earl Marshal's Room, introduced into the House of Peers in the following Order:

Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod,
with his Staff of Office.
Earl of Surrey,
Deputy Earl Marshal of England.
Earl of Carlisle,
Lord Privy Seal.

Garter Principal King of Arms, in his Robe, with his Sceptre, bearing his Royal Highness's Patent.
Sir Peter Burrell,
Deputy Great Chamberlain of England.
Viscount Stormont,
Lord President of the Council.

THE CORONET

On a Crimson Velvet Cushion, borne by Viscount Lewisham, One of the Gentlemen of His Royal Highness's Bed-Chamber.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE OF WALES,
Carrying his Writ of Summons, supported by his Uncle, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and the Dukes of Richmond and Portland.

And proceeding up the House with the usual Reverences, the Writ and Patent were delivered to the Earl of Mansfield, Speaker, on the Woolfack, and read by the Clerk of the Parliament at the Table, His Royal Highness and the rest of the Procession standing near: After which His Royal Highness was conducted to His Chair on the Right Hand of the Throne, the Coronet and Cushion having been laid on a Stool before the Chair; and his Royal Highness being covered as usual, the Ceremony ended.

Some Time after His Majesty entered the House of Peers, and was seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnities, and having delivered His most gracious Speech, retired out of the House.

Then His Royal Highness at the Table took the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and made and subscribed the Declaration; and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration.

St. James's, November 15.

The following Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, has been presented to the King by Sir George Collier, Knt. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of this ancient City, should think ourselves much fallen off from that true Sense of Duty, and faithful Attachment, which our Ancestors have been peculiarly distinguished for, to the Illustrious House of Hanover, were we to delay any longer this our humble Request, hoping that your Majesty will be pleased to accept of our sincere Congratulations upon his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales having attained his Age of Twenty-one Years; a Prince who, from his many eminent and distinguished Virtues, cannot but add to the Felicity and Happiness of your Majesty, our Illustrious Queen, and your Majesty's People in general.

As a great Commercial City, whose Woolen Manufactures are its principal Support, we cannot be too thankful for the Blessings of Peace, which, through the Providence of God, and your Majesty's great Goodness, has been brought to a final Conclusion. — May your Majesty and your Royal Consort be blessed with a long and happy Reign, are the Prayers and Wishes of us, who are your Majesty's true and loyal Citizens.
