WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that an Incendiary Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was left by the Penny Post at the House of Laurence Cox, Esq; addressed as follows, To — Cox, Esq; M. P. Pallace Yard Westminster

Nemo Me impune lacessit

Squire Cox

I am a Proprietor of India Stock and so is my eldest Son, it is our whole dependance and that of a numerous Family, and We are therefore determined with our all to lose our Lives — I hear it will all depend upon the house of Commons and I understand there are some Members so wicked as to buy their Seats only to make a property of it by robbing their Country and all mankind, and that these are to Vote to Rob us Proprietors, it is reported that you are not only one of the most corrupted among all the Members but are in very high Spirits about our Plunder — Now this is to warn you that as your haunts are known you will be watched and if you are seen to visit a certain great Man (as you are known to be very great there) before the India Business is settled, or if you are found any ways active in Robbing Us you may depend upon it that it will be endeavoured to Cutt you off at least from doing us any harm — what is life worth when we have lost our Property — from a determined Man

WHEREAS on Friday the 10th Instant, Richard Morze and William Ward, Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in the Port of Portsmouth, in attempting to board a Vessel called the Eagle, Cornelius Rose, Master, from Acarney, then being in Langstone Harbour, within the Limits of the said Port, were violently and forcibly obstructed by the said Rose, who at first refused them Admittance, and being armed with an Hatchet, threatened Death to any Man that should attempt to board his Vessel; but to which he at length consented; when the said Officers having got on Board were knocked down by the said Rose, and, on their making some Resistance, Morze had one of his Fingers cut from his Right Hand, and both him and Ward were much bruised and beat: That being thus violently assaulted, and apprehending their Lives in Danger, they were obliged to quit the said Vessel in order to get further Assistance, which having procured, they again attempted to go on Board, in which, after some Obstruction, they succeeded, and seized and carried the said Vessel into Portsmouth Harbour; but the said Cornelius Rose made his Escape by jumping overboard, and swimming to a Wherry, into which he was taken up, and carried off to Sea.
