WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday last the 5th Instant, about Five o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. William Marsh, jun of Hendon, Farmer, was, on his Way to Smithfield Market, in his Lamb Cart, attacked at the Tile Kiln opposite the Inoculating Hospital at Pancras, and attempted to be robbed by Four Footpads armed with Cutlasses and Pistols, one of whom seized his Horse by the Reins and ordered Mr. Marsh to stop, but, upon his refusing, and discharging a Gun at the Villain, he relinquished his Hold: That then, with dreadful Imprecations, and threatening to murder Mr. Marsh, they renewed their Attempt, cutting and mangling the Cart and Harness with their Cutlasses, and discharging their Pistols, when Mr. Marsh presented his Blunderbuss, which one of them seized by the Barrel; and struggled, but in vain, to wrench it from him; but that upon Mr. Marsh's discharging it, and hearing some Carriages approaching, they all desisted, and fled across the Fields: And that from a Quantity of Blood appearing on the Collar and other Parts of the Harness, and a Horseman, who passed by the Spot in a few Minutes after, declaring he saw a Man crawling across the Road, it is not to be doubted but that one at least of these Villains was wounded:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and atrocious Attempt above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his Accomplices therein, so that they, or any Two of them, shall be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Squire Cox

I am a Proprietor of India Stock and so is my eldest Son, it is our whole dependance and that of a numerous Family, and We are therefore determined with our all to lose our Lives — I hear it will all depend upon the house of Commons and I understand there are some Members so wicked as to buy their Seats only to make a property of it by robbing their Country and all mankind, and that those are to Vote to Rob us Proprietors, it is reported that you are not only one of the most corrupted among all the Members but are in very high Spirits about our Plunder — Now this is to warn you that as your haunts are known you will be watched and if you are seen to visit a certain great Man (as you are known to be very great there) before the India Business is settled, or if you are found any ways active in Robbing Us you may depend upon it that it will be endeavoured to Cutt you off at least from doing us any harm — what is life worth when we have lost our Property — from a determined Man
