WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That the late dreadful Fire which happened about One o'Clock in the Morning of the 5th of last November, on the Premises of Mr. George Seddon, Upholder and Cabinet-maker, in Aldersgate-street, was, as he has Reason to believe, from several Circumstances, most wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one, who will discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, December 12, 1783.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Night between the 28th and 29th Days of November last, about Two o'Clock, the Dwelling House of Thomas Dale, of King's Woir in the Parish of Nazing in the County of Essex, Collector of the River Lee Tolls there, was broken open, and an Iron Chest, (wherein he usually kept the Tolls received) containing Eighty-five Pounds and upwards, and which was fastened to the Floor of a Chamber in the said House, was by Force taken from the said Floor, and carried away by some Persons unknown:

Whitehall, December 9, 1783.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday last the 5th Instant, about Five o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. William Marsh, jun of Hendon, Farmer, was, on his Way to Smithfield Market, in his Lamb Cart, attacked at the Tile Kilm opposite the Inoculating Hospital at Pancras, and attempted to be robbed by Four Footpads armed with Cutlasses and Pistols, one of whom seized his Horse by the Reins and ordered Mr. Marsh to stop, but, upon his refusing, and discharging a Gun at the Villain, he relinquished his Hold: That then, with dreadful Imprecations, and threatening to murder Mr. Marsh, they renewed their Attempt, cutting and mangling the Cart and Harness with their Cutlasses, and discharging their Pistols, when Mr. Marsh presented his Blunderbuss, which one of them seized by the Barrel, and struggled, but in vain, to wrench it from him; but that upon Mr. Marsh's discharging it, and hearing some Carriages approaching, they all desisted, and fled across the Fields: And that from a Quantity of Blood appearing on the Collar and other Parts of the Harness, and a Horseman, who passed by the Spot in a few Minutes after, declaring he saw a Man crawling across the Road, it is not to be doubted but that one at least of these Villains was wounded:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and atrocious Attempt above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his Accomplices therein, so that they, or any Two of them, shall be apprehended and convicted thereof.
