Whitehall, December 19, 1783.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That there is great Reason to suspect that the following Vessels were wilfully lost, with a View to defraud the Underwriters, viz.

The Brothers, Captain Heallie, bound on a Voyage from Clyde to Quebec, lost on the Coast of Newfoundland, in June, 1782.

The Peggy, Captain Whyte, from Clyde to Guernsey, lost on the Coast of Ireland, in February last.

The New York, Captain Fortry, from Clyde to New York, lost on one of the Capes of the Delaware in September last.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who gave the Orders for wilfully losing either of the said Ships, is graciously pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any of the Officers or Crews who will give Information against the Person or Persons who gave such Orders as above mentioned, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

NUGENT TEMPLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Underwriters do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by Mr. Robert Hunter, of King's Arms Yard, Coleman Street, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, December 19, 1783.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That the late dreadful Fire which happened about One o'Clock in the Morning of the 5th of last November, on the Premises of Mr. George Seddon, Upholder and Cabinet-maker, in Aldersgate street, was, as he has Reason to believe, from several Circumstances, most wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one, who will discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

NUGENT TEMPLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. George Seddon do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices as aforesaid, upon his or their Conviction, that he or they may be dealt with according to Law.

George Seddon.
