St. James's, January 16, 1784.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Earl of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by James Adair, Esq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, consider it incumbent on us, at the present alarming Moment, to approach the Throne with renewed Assurances of our most faithful and constant Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Your faithful Citizens lately beheld, with infinite Concern, the Progress of a Measure, which equally tended to encroach on the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East India Company, and to raise a new Power unknown to this free Government, and highly inimical to its Safety.

As this dangerous Measure was warmly supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, we heartily rejoice in their Dismission, and humbly thank your Majesty for exerting your Prerogative in a Manner so salutary and constitutional.

It is impossible for us to consider that Event without fresh Admiration of the Constitution handed down by our Ancestors; and we trust that in the well-compounded Legislature of this Kingdom, there will ever be found some Branch, ready to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preserve inviolate the Faith and Honor of Parliamentary Engagements.

S I R E!

The Prerogatives of your Majesty's high Office were annexed thereto for the Good of the People; and we beg your Majesty will receive our earnest Assurances, that the Citizens of London will always support the Constitutional Exercise of them to the utmost of their Power.

Highly sensible of your Majesty's Paternal Care and Affection for your People, we pray the Almighty that you may long reign in Peace over a free, an happy and united Nation.

Signed, by Order of Court,

William Rix.

[ Price Seven Pence. ]

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I THANK you for this dutiful and affectionate Address, and for the Expressions of your Attachment to My Person, and your Zeal for the excellent Constitution of this Country.

My Faithful Citizens of London may always depend upon My earnest Attention to the Welfare of all My Subjects, and may assure themselves that, in the Exercise of the Powers with which I am invested by the Constitution, I shall uniformly endeavor to promote the Happiness and Prosperity of My People.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Barnard Turner, Esq; Alderman, and one of the Sheriffs.

St. James's, January 17.

Last Tuesday Their Majesties came from Windsor to the Queen's Palace, to reside during the Winter.

Their Royal Highnesses the Princes and Princesses are also removed from Windsor and Kew to their respective Residences in Town for the Winter Season.

Whitehall, January 17.

The King has been pleased to appoint Samuel Eitwick, Esq; to be Secretary and Register to the Royal Hospital at Chelsea.

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Twenty-eighth Day of August, in the Sixteenth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands

Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes may, either by Accident, or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who, by Colour of such Passes, may carry on their Trade; We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That all such Passes of the present Form, now in being, shall not continue in Force longer than till the Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, (except such Passes as have been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes; and that in such Case, the Passes of the present Form do continue in Force for Two Years, from and after the said Thirty first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four). And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, before the Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, return the same (except such as are before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out-Ports of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our Foreign Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Treaty subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council on the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remain unaltered by the Regulations made by Us in Our Council on the Twenty-eighth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and according to the further Regulations then there made, and Our Instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, touching the same: And whereas many Ships and Vessels belonging to Our loving Subjects, continue several Years trading from Port to Port in the Mediterranean, without returning Home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their Passes to be exchanged; We do hereby, for the Ease of Our trading Subjects, publish and declare Our Pleasure, That upon the Application of any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other substantial Merchant, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and Oath made by him of the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and that Three Fourths of the Company are Our Subjects, according to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, (intituled, "An Act for encouraging and encreasing of

"Shipping and Navigation,") or such other Proportion as may be authorized by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a Bond for the Return of such Pass at the End of Three Years, or of the Voyage, if that shall sooner determine, it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a New Pass for such Ship or Vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said Owner or Merchant shall desire, with Direction to such Consul, that, upon Application to him from the Master of the Ship, for which the Pass is made out, and surrendering up his Old Pass, and entering into a like Bond for the Return of such New Pass, he shall deliver out the said New Pass to such Master, and transmit the Old One, with the Bond, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any Abuses that may be attempted by Foreigners relating to the New Passes to be issued as aforesaid; We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That all such New Passes, to be hereafter issued for any Ships or Vessels whatsoever, belonging to any of Our Subjects, inhabiting the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, shall be made out in a peculiar Form, different from the Form of the New Passes, to be issued for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions; and that such New Passes shall be lodged with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and issued out only by him, according to the Regulations made by Our said Royal Predecessor King George the First, and Ourselves in Council as aforesaid: And the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief, is hereby charged and required, not to issue or deliver out any such Passes to any Persons whatsoever, other than such as are really Our Subjects, inhabiting in the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and strictly to conform themselves to the Regulations and Instructions made and given as aforesaid: But in regard it sometimes happens, that Ships belonging to Our Subjects of other Parts of Our Dominions, call in at Gibraltar without Passes, and have Occasion to be furnished therewith; We do, for the further Convenience of Trade, hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, and they are respectively hereby empowered, to lodge Mediterranean Passes, of the same Form with the New Passes, for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions, in the Hands of Our Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, with Directions to him to issue and deliver out such Passes to any of Our Subjects, not being Inhabitants of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar; provided the Person or Persons applying for the same, do comply with and conform to the several Rules and Regulations now in Use, and required to be observed by such Our other Subjects. And We do hereby order, That the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain, and the Commissioners of Our Revenue in Ireland, do cause to be carried into Execution such Parts of the said Order of Council of the Fourteenth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning ing Passes, as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in Force, and of Our Order aforesaid, made in Council, on the Twenty-eighth of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventy six; and that they do direct their Officers in the several Ports of Our Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, to demand of the Masters of all Merchant Ships, so soon as they shall return into Port from a Foreign Voyage, all Passes granted as aforesaid, which shall be in their Possession, to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and that if the same shall appear to be of an older Date than Twelve Months, for Ships and Vessels trading on this Side the Straights Mouth, or for Ships and Vessels trading to a greater Distance, in case the Voyages of such last mentioned Ships and Vessels shall be determined, then such Passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such Passes, according to the true Intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the Name of every such Master, and of the Ship or Vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, to the End that Directions may be given for putting the Bond, entered into on the granting any such Pass, in Suit: And all Our Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our Islands, Colonies or Plantations, Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, are hereby expressly required and commanded to yield due Obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the Orders, Instructions, Regulations, and Directions before mentioned, on Pain of Our High Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

“So no more.”

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and dropping the said anonymous Incendary Letter above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mr. Simon Debank doth hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, aforsaid, (except as before is excepted) to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

General Post-Office, November 18, 1783.

A SUFFICIENT Number of Packet Boats of about 200 Tons and 30 Hands are established between Falmouth and New-York to support a monthly Correspondence, and the Mails will continue to be dispatched as at present from London and from New-York upon the First Wednesday in every Month.

All Persons are however to take Notice, that instead of its being any longer left to the Option of the Writer to pay or not the Postage beforehand, there is now a Necessity for the Postage on all Letters from any Part of Great-Britain or Ireland for North America to be paid up in London, without which they must be opened and returned to the Writers, but the Packet Postage of one Shilling for a single Letter and so in Proportion between London and New-York, may or not be paid at at each Place before-hand.

And all Persons upon the Continent of Europe and of North America corresponding with each other by these Packet Boats are to take particular Notice, that they are to put their Letters under Cover to their Friends in London.

Likewise, all Persons in Great-Britain or Ireland desirous of sending any Letters for the United States of America by the French Packet Boats, are to cause them to be put under Cover to some Correspondent at Paris.

NOTICE is hereby given to William Bradford, Grandson of John Bull, formerly of Durham-yard in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields in the County of Middlesex, deceased; (now called the Adelphi Buildings in the Strand), or the Heir at Law of the said William Bradford, Grandson of John Bull, to apply immediately to Mr. John Windus, Attorney at Law, in Took's-court, Chancery-lane, London, or to Mr. John Bones, Attorney at Law in Cambridge, and make Claim to a Freehold Estate in the County of Essex; and the said William Bradford, or his Heir at Law, is hereby informed, that unless Application be made as above, and the Claim clearly and satisfactorily made good within the Space of Six Calendar Months from the 23d Day of August, 1783, (being the Day of the First Insertion of this Advertisement) all Right and Title of the said William Bradford, or his Heir at Law, to the said Estate, will be for ever forfeited, pursuant to the Will of Elizabeth Graves, of Cambridge, Widow, late deceased, formerly Elizabeth Bull, Spinster.

Notice to Creditors.

THAT all who have Claims against Patrick M'Kellar, late Merchant in Greenock, are desired to lodge exact Notes thereof, with Oaths to their Verity, in the Hands of Daniel M'Kellar, Merchant in Greenock (Trustee upon the sequestrated Estate of the said Patrick M'Kellar), on or before the 2d Day of March next, as a Final Dividend of the Subject is proposed to be made on Tuesday the 16th Day of said Month, within the House of John M'Kechie, Vintner, in Greenock, where it is expected all concerned will attend by themselves, or Persons authorized to act for them, certifying to all those who refuse or neglect to comply with this Notice, that they shall be entirely cut off from having any Claim afterwards upon the Trustee.

Last Notice to the Creditors of William and Walter Tait, Merchant in Glasgow.

ALTHOUGH these Creditors have been repeatedly required, by former Advertisements, to give in their Claims, with Affidavits, yet some of them have hitherto neglected doing so.

The Trustees on Mess. Tait's sequestrated Estate therefore require those of the Creditors who have failed to lodge their Claims, with Affidavits, in the Hands of John Lang, Writer in Glasgow, on or before the 2d of February next; certifying them, that if this last Requisition is not complied with, the Trustees will divide the Fun's among the Creditors whose Claims are then proved and lodged.

ALL Persons being indebted to the Estate of Edward Woodnutt, late a Lieutenant belonging to His Majesty's Ship Ramelies, deceased, or having any Property or Effects of the said Mr. Woodnutt in their Possession are requested to pay their Debts, and deliver such Property and Effects to Mrs. Diana Thompson, of West Cowes, Isle of Wight, his Administratrix, or to Mess.
