St James's, January 24.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been presented to the King by Jeremiah Ives Harvey, Esq; Mayor of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most zealous Assurances of Loyalty to your Person and Attachment to our excellent Constitution.

Impressed with a Respect for and Confidence in the Legislature of our Country, we have endeavoured to avoid unnecessarily addressing our Sovereign; but at the present awful Crisis, when public Peace and private Security seem equally endangered, when a powerful and violent Confederacy of Men boldly maintain their Ministry and their Measures only to have the Sanction of the People, to continue silent were a Reproach. Permit us then, Sire, to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Interest of your Subjects; in dismissing such Men from your Councils; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall be always ready with our Lives and Fortunes to support your just Prerogatives.

That your Majesty may very long continue to reign over a free, happy, and loyal People, is the invariable Object of our most fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, this 24th Day of January, 1784.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, has been presented to the King by John Peach Hungerford, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Leicester, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Majesty!

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, most firmly attached to your Royal Person and Government, and zealously anxious for the Welfare and Stability of our Constitution in Church and State, now with the greatest Alarm and Concern, a Bill brought in and supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, and by them carried through One House of Parliament, to deprive the First Commercial Company in England of their Chartered Rights, solemnly confirmed to them by Law.

A Measure (had not one Branch of the Legislature happily prevented it) calculated to create a new Power unknown to our Country and Constitution, and to form a Precedent dangerous to the Safety of every Charter and Grant within your Majesty's Dominions.

It was with the utmost Satisfaction we heard, that your Majesty had been pleased to dismiss from your Councils, Men who had thus attempted to enforce such arbitrary Measures, and as in Duty bound, we thank your Majesty for a proper Exertion of your Royal Authority on so alarming an Occasion.

We most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall, at all Times, be ready, to the utmost of our Power, to support you in the Constitutional Exercise of your Prerogative, and pray that your Majesty may long live to reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 19th Day of January, 1784.

William Oldham, Mayor.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, has been presented to the King by Henry Beaufoy, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth, beg Leave, in the present alarming Times, to repeat to your Majesty the firm Attachment we bear to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

Sire, We have lately beheld, with equal Surprise and Indignation, that, at a Period when the Blessings of a settled and free Constitution are universally felt, artful Attempts have been made to destroy its Balance by introducing a new Power into the State, unprecedented in its Nature, and gigantic in its Size.

We

With the most grateful Pleasure we admire the Deed which has removed from the Throne the common Enemies of the Monarch's Dignity and of the People's Freedom.

May Heaven strengthen the Hand which has already done so much for us; and may that Fortitude which overturned the Designs of a violent and corrupt Party give Permanency to those who are the Objects of your own Choice, and whose public Conduct is justly intitled to our Approbation and Confidence. Thus consulting the Dignity of your Crown, and exerting, on all Occasions, the Regal Prerogative, in Opposition to the aspiring Views of ambitious and factious Men, your Majesty will command our Gratitude as loyal Subjects, and our best Assistance on the most trying Occasions; we being firmly persuaded that, in the British Government, the smallest Violation of the Rights of the Sovereign is incompatible with the Liberty and the Happiness of the People.

[Signed by 312 Persons.]

General Post-Office, November 18, 1783.

A SUFFICIENT Number of Packet Boats of about 200 Tons and 30 Hands are established between Falmouth and New-York to support a monthly Correspondence, and the Mails will continue to be dispatched as at present from London and from New-York upon the First Wednesday in every Month.

All Persons are however to take Notice, that instead of its being any longer left to the Option of the Writer to pay or not the Postage beforehand, there is now a Necessity for the Postage on all Letters from any Part of Great-Britain or Ireland for North America to be paid up to London, without which they must be opened and returned to the Writers, but the Packet Postage of one Shilling for a single Letter and so in Proportion between London and New-York, may or not be paid at each Place before-hand.

And all Persons upon the Continent of Europe and of North America corresponding with each other by these Packet Boats are to take particular Notice, that they are to put their Letters under Cover to their Friends in London.

Likewise, all Persons in Great-Britain or Ireland desirous of sending any Letters for the United States of America by the French Packet Boats, are to cause them to be put under Cover to some Correspondent at Paris.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Sec.
