St. James's, January 27.

THE following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Middlesex has been presented to the King by George Byng, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, assure your Majesty of our most cordial Attachment to your Person and Government, and our Reverence for the Constitution as established at the glorious Revolution.

We cannot reflect on the very peculiar Situation of the Country at the present Moment, and the melancholy State of the National Credit, without representing the Necessity that appears for the most diligent and active Endeavours of those whom your Majesty shall think proper to intrust with the Conduct of the Public Affairs, to relieve the one and to restore the other; but we must despair of seeing their utmost Exertions attended with the least Success, unless they are assisted and promoted by the Co-operation of your Parliament.

Therefore, considering it as the best Pledge we can give of our Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty, we most humbly implore your Majesty to appoint such an Administration as may possess the Confidence of your Parliament and the Public; that, by the Means of their united Efforts, such Measures may be pursued as may tend effectually to establish the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign, and permanently secure the true Interests of all your Dominions.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury, has been presented to the King by George Gipps and Charles Robinson, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of this ancient City, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and Determination of supporting your Government on constitutional Principles.

We have seen, with the utmost Concern, an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to encroach on your just Prerogative, and to deprive a great Commercial Body of their Chartered Rights, which we humbly conceive to be repugnant to the Principles of a free Government, and a direct Violation of the Faith of Parliament.

We therefore heartily rejoice that your Majesty has dismissed those dangerous Ministers from their Employments, and assure your Majesty that we shall at all Times be ready and willing to support your Majesty in preserving the well digested Legislature of this Country, without which we cannot long subsist as a great and Free People.

We are thoroughly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Regard and Affection for your Subjects, and sincerely pray to the Almighty, that you may long reign over a free and happy Nation.

[Signed by 466 Persons.]

The following Address of the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark, has been presented to the King by William Dowson, Esq; Chairman, accompanied by James Bullock, William Golding, Edward Layton, Esqrs. Mr. William Hodgson, Mr. Joseph Stafford, and Mr. Thomas Griffiths, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Antient Town and Borough of Southwark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants of your Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, in Common Hall assembled, are led by every Motive of Duty to give your Majesty a fresh Testimony of their Affection for your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and their Zeal for the Support of the Constitution.

We sincerely trust that your Majesty, under the Direction of Providence, will be assisted by a firm and permanent Administration, whose Wisdom may be equal to direct the important Concerns of these Kingdoms, at this critical Conjunction of Affairs, in whose Integrity your People may confide, and on whose Zeal and Diligence they may securely depend.

To such an Administration your faithful Subjects now look up, and congratulate your Majesty on the Admission of Men into your Councils, on the late Choice of Ministers, whose Wisdom and Integrity afford the firmest Ground of Confidence.

While your Ministers shall uniformly pursue Measures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, the true Interest and Happiness of your People, your Majesty may safely rely on the Support of all the Subjects of the British Empire, and may rest assured that none will distinguish themselves with warmer Zeal than the Inhabitants of the Borough of Southwark.

Wm. Dowson, Chairman.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Leicester, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Booth Grey, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Leicester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal Inhabitants of your ancient Town of Leicester, during the present
