St. James's, January 31.

THE following Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, has been presented to the King by Samuel Smith, Esq; accompanied by John Rogers, Esq; Jackson Barwis, Esq; Matthew Towgood, Esq; John Withers, Esq; Philip Sansom, Esq; Mr. George Griffin, and Mr. Randle Jackson, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, assembled by publick Advertisement at the London Tavern, on the 23d of January, 1784.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of London, assembled in a General Meeting, publickly convened, are led by every Motive of Duty to give your Majesty, at this Time, a fresh Testimony of their Affection for your Royal Person and Government, and of their zealous Attachment to the free Constitution of this Country.

The general Security of your Majesty's People ever requires a solemn Adherence to the Faith of Parliamentary Engagements; but the particular Situation of Merchants and Traders is such, that any Breach of that Faith (which has hitherto been kept sacred) must be fatal to them: It is the Basis of Public Credit, and of the Commerce of the Nation; if it be undermined, or shaken, they must fall together.

The Merchants and Traders could not therefore be indifferent Spectators of the late violent Attack upon the Privileges of the East India Company, (in a Bill which bore a fatal Aspect on all the Chartered Rights of the Kingdom, and which would have erected a new Power, at once derogatory to your Majesty's Crown, and highly dangerous to the Liberties of your People). We sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the Issue of that Measure, and acknowledge your paternal Care in the Removal of the Ministers by whom it had been supported.

The Attempts which have been since made to impede the ordinary Issues from your Majesty's Exchequer, and to interrupt the established Course of Government, although calculated to excite Apprehensions in the Minds of the Public Creditors, and to disturb the Tranquillity of the State, we trust will be productive of a contrary Effect, and cause that Union amongst your faithful People, which is so important to their own Happiness and to your Majesty's Glory.

S I R E,

In a Moment so arduous as the present, when the utmost Exertions are necessary to restore and preserve the Commerce of your Kingdoms, to support the Public Credit, and to relieve the Burthens which a War of unprecedented Expence, has imposed, your Majesty has Occasion for all the Virtue and Abilities which can be found amongst your People: We do not despair that Virtue and Abilities, equal to the Exigencies of the Times, yet remain, and we acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, the Proofs of your Royal Determination to call them forth.

Knowing well the Value of our excellent Constitution as established at the glorious Revolution, we are resolved to preserve it free from Innovation. Your Majesty's just Prerogatives form a Part of that Constitution; and we beg your Majesty will be pleased to accept our faithful Assurances, that in such legal Exercises of them as may be necessary to restore Stability to your Government, and Security to your People, your Majesty depend on the firm and Ready Support of the Merchants and Traders of London.

Signed by Order of the Meeting

Samuel Smith, Chairman.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been presented to the King by James Hunter Blair, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, think ourselves called upon in the present Situation of Publick Affairs, to approach your Majesty's Throne with fresh Assurances of our Attachment to your Person, and unremitting Zeal for your Government. We could not help being greatly alarmed at the Attempt lately made to violate the Rights of a most respectable Body of your Majesty's Subjects; to impair the Security of every similar Title founded on Charter, or on the most solemn Acts of the Legislature; and even to raise up a new executive Power in the State, which might have been attended with the most pernicious Consequences. With Satisfaction, therefore, we observe, that a Measure so fatal, though hurried through one Branch of the Legislature, has been effectually checked in another; and we are happy in perceiving the Effect of that excellent Balance in our Constitution, which secures the whole from any dangerous Innovation, to which a Parliament may be inclined. With Gratitude to your Majesty, and with a just Sense of your Royal Wisdom, we learn, that the Persons who urged that dangerous Measure, are removed from your Councils.

That it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty as the Instrument of his beneficent Providence, in supporting the just Authority of Government; and Principles of the Constitution, so necessary to the Safety of your People, is the earnest Prayer of

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of your City of Edinburgh.

John Grievie, Provost.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, the Seal of the City being affixed, this Twenty-third Day of January, 1784.

The following Address of the Aldermen, Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, has been presented to the King by Edmund Ludlow and Samuel Miller, Esqrs. Aldermen of the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the said Town of Southampton, in the Council Chamber assembled, consider it our indispensable Duty, at the present important Crisis, to assure your Majesty of our most faithful and warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We humbly thank your Majesty for having exerted your Royal Prerogative, in removing from your Councils those Men, who lately attempted to deprive the East-India Company of their chartered Rights, (confirmed by repeated Acts of Parliament) and to take the Management of their Affairs, as well Commercial as Territorial, into their own Hands, and those of their Adherents, whereby a new Power would have been raised, inconsistent with our admirable Constitution, derogatory to the Dignity and Rights of the Crown, and inimical to the Safety of your Majesty's Subjects, inasmuch as that the Equilibrium necessary to be preserved in the Legislature of our Country, would have been much endangered. And we trust that the present Administration will devise and pursue such Measures, as will be conducive to the Happiness of your Majesty, and the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

Being sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, we heartily pray that your Majesty may enjoy a long and uninterrupted Reign, over a free and happy Nation.

The following Address of the Manufacturers, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Taunton, has been presented to the King by John Halliday and Benjamin Hammett, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Manufacturers, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Taunton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Manufacturers, Traders, and principal Inhabitants of this Town, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express, at this alarming Moment, our sincere and uninfluenced Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of Zeal for our excellent Constitution.

Impressed with these Sentiments, permit us to render to your Majesty our humble and hearty Thanks for your Majesty's Dismissal of your late Ministry, and for having called up to the Administration of Publick Affairs, Men, from whom we earnestly hope your Majesty and the Nation will receive every Proof of a well tempered Zeal for your Majesty's Prerogative, and for the Rights and Liberties of the People; and this we have the greater Reason to expect, when we reflect on the exalted Virtues and extraordinary Talents of the Right Honourable Gentleman who now fills the most important Departments of the State.

May faithful Counsellors ever surround your Majesty's Throne, and may the Supreme Providence crown your Majesty's Reign, with the Glory adherent to the Name of a wife and just Prince, over a free and happy People.

[ Signed by 188 Persons. ]

The following Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to the King by Sir Frederick Leman Rogers, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with Sentiments of the most unfeigned Loyalty, and sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

Truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under the happy Constitution of this Country, and your Majesty's most excellent Government, we (observing with Concern the present critical Situation of publick Affairs) do, at such a Period, hold it our indispensable Duty, as faithful Subjects, to assure your Majesty of our most zealous Desire to support and maintain the same in their original Purity; and conscious of that Regard for the Welfare of your People, which has ever distinguished your Majesty's Reign, we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to govern in an uninterrupted Peace, and perfect Tranquillity; a free, happy, and an united People.
