St. James's, February 3.

The following Address of the Dean, High Steward, Deputy Steward, Two Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, Assistant Burgesses, and other Household-ers of the City and Liberty of Westminster, has been presented to the King by James Sayer, Esq; Deputy Steward, accompanied by Sir Cecil Wray, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, and several of the Burgesses, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously-

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Dean, High Steward, Deputy Steward, Two Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, Assistant Burgesses, and other Household-ers of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-jects, the Dean, High Steward, Deputy Steward, Two Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, Assistant Burgesses, and other Household-ers of the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most zealous Assurances of Loyalty to your Person, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmost Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers, to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, by the Bill brought into Parli-ament, which, had it passed into a Law, would have been a dangerous Precedent, and created a new exe-cutive Power unknown to the Constitution of this Country.

We most sincerely thank your Majesty for the Dismission of those Ministers from their Employ-ments; and assure your Majesty that we have great Confidence in the Principles of the present Admini-stration, and that whilst they pursue Measures con-ducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true In-terests of their Country, they may safely rely on the Support of the People.

The following Address of the Freemen and Citi-zens of York, has been presented to the King by Henry Duncombe, Esq; one of the Representa-tives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's

[Price Seven-Pence.]

Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freemen and Citi-zens of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-jects, the Freemen and Citizens of York, assembled at the Merchants Hall in the City of York, the Thirtieth Day of January, 1784, con-sider it incumbent on us, at the present alarming Moment, to approach the Throne, with the warmest Assurances of our most faithful and constant At-tachment to your Majesty's Person and Govern-ment.

We have lately beheld, with infinite Concern, the Progress of a Measure, which, while it tended, by alienating Property without the Consent of the Proprietors, and by vesting an enormous Patronage in a few Individuals, to create a new and formi-dable Power unknown to this free Government, and, by destroying the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company, to annihilate the Validity of all Charters, threatened at once to encroach on the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, to subvert the Liberties of the Subject, and to take away the legal Securities of Property from your Majesty's faithful People.

As this dangerous Measure was undertaken and warmly supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, we heartily rejoice in their Dismission, as Men who have justly forfeited the Confidence both of your Majesty and of your loyal People; and we most humbly thank your Majesty for exercising your Prerogative in a Manner so salutary, so sub-servient to the Public Good, and consequently so Constitutional.

It is impossible for us to consider the late Event without fresh Admiration of the Constitution handed down by our Ancestors; and we trust, that in the well balanced Legislation of this Kingdom, there will ever be found some Branch ready to maintain the lawful Prerogative of the Crown, to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preserve inviolate the Faith and Honour of Par-liamentary Engagements; and we earnestly wish your Majesty to be assured, that as the Prerogatives of the Crown have been annexed thereto for the Good of the Public, we will always support the Constitutional Exercise of them to the utmost of our Power.

Highly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection for your People; and convinced, by this recent Instance, of your Royal Regard to the essential Principles of Justice, and to our excellent

cellent Form of Government, we pray the Almighty, that He will prolong your Reign, render your Majesty the happy Instrument of your People's Welfare and Union, and, in their Security and Peace, establish and preserve your own.

C. Rawdon, Chairman.

The following Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter has been presented to the King by Sir Charles Warwick Bamfylde, Bart. and John Baring, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN the present arduous and critical Situation of the Kingdom, we your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, consider ourselves bound in Duty to give every Proof of our sincere and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, your Majesty's gracious Disposition, during your Reign, to support the Rights and Liberties of your People, and to preserve inviolate the happy Constitution transmitted to us by our Ancestors; and we rely, with the most perfect Confidence, that your Majesty, when it shall be necessary, will freely exercise the Prerogatives of your Crown to that End for which they were wisely designed, the Good and Welfare of your People.

It is with infinite Concern and Alarm that we have seen the late Attempt made to intrench upon the Powers of the Crown, and to destroy the sacred Chartered Rights of a great Commercial Company repeatedly confirmed by various Acts of Parliament; and we beg Leave to return our Thanks to your Majesty for having dismissed from your Councils the Advisers of so dangerous a Measure.

In this, and every other Constitutional Exercise of your Prerogative, your Majesty will at all Times receive our most hearty and zealous Support; and it shall be our constant Endeavour, in our several Stations, to fix in the Minds of our Fellow Citizens that Spirit of Loyalty, and Regard for the Laws and Constitution of our Country, from which alone we can hope for a Continuance of the Blessings we enjoy.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we are truly sensible of their Value; and most earnestly pray that your Majesty may long reign in Peace, over a free, happy, and united People.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our most cordial Attachment to your Person and Government, and our Reverence for the Constitution, as established at the glorious Revolution.

We cannot reflect upon the peculiar Situation of this Country at the present Moment, without representing the Necessity that appears for the most diligent and active Endeavours of those whom your Majesty has thought proper to intrust with the Conduct of the Public Affairs; and we trust that such Measures will be pursued as may tend effectually to establish the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign and the true Interests of your People.

We beg Leave to thank your Majesty for having removed your late Ministers, and having appointed others whom we are persuaded possess the Confidence of your Subjects; and we assure your Majesty of our Resolution to unite in the Support of your Royal Prerogative and our happy Constitution.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Colchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, having beheld with the utmost Concern the unjustifiable Attempt of your Majesty's late Ministers to subvert the Basis of this happy Constitution, in their Endeavours to annihilate the Chartered Rights of our Fellow-Subjects; setting up a new Power inimical to the Safety of this Free Government. We most sincerely rejoice in their Dismission, humbly thanking your Majesty for the Exercise of this Constitutional Right; and beg Leave to confirm the Assurances of our faithful and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.
