St. James's, February 7.

THE Four following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, were by his Lordship presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter and Suburbs.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the City of Exeter and Suburbs, think it incumbent on us, at this critical Period, to approach your Throne with the fullest Assurances of our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Ever faithful to Monarchy on the most trying Occasions, we have, with the utmost Concern, beheld the enormous Attempts lately made by your Majesty's Ministers, to raise a new Power in this State, totally unknown to the wise Framers of our excellent Constitution, which, by giving a most extensive Patronage to the Servants of the Crown and People, might, by the Ambitious, have been perverted to the Ruin of the Liberties of both.

With the highest Satisfaction we reflect on your Majesty's Interposition at so critical a Moment; and most humbly thank your Majesty for dismissing from your Councils the Men whose temerity dared attempt so unconstitutional a Measure.

It is impossible for us to consider that Event without fresh Admiration of the Constitution handed down to us by our Ancestors; and we hope that in the well-compounded Legislation of this Nation there will ever be found some Branch ready to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preserve inviolate the Faith and Honour of Parliamentary Engagement.

Sire! The Prerogatives of your Majesty's high Office were annexed thereto for the Good of the People; and we beg your Majesty will be pleased to receive our warmest Assurances, that your faithful Citizens of Exeter will always be ready to support the constitutional Exercise of them to the utmost of their Power: Truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection for your People, we pray the Almighty that you may long reign in Peace over a free, happy, and united Nation.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth and its Environs, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most profound Respect and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; to express to your Majesty the Anxiety we feel from the present calamitous Situation of Public Affairs, and our entire

[ Price Seven Pence. ]

Abhorrence to the late Proceedings of a desperate Faction, raised by a Set of Men lately dismissed from your Majesty's Councils, who, not content with attempting to rob a Part of your Majesty's Subjects of their Rights and Properties, are, by obstructing the immediate and necessary Measures of Government, aiming also at your just Prerogative.

We assure your Majesty we shall at all Times be ready to maintain, with our Persons and Properties, that noble Fabric the British Constitution, agreeable to its original Establishment; and that whenever your Majesty may find it necessary to exercise the Powers which the Laws have vested in you, be assured, Sire, that in us you will find firm and steady Support.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceston.

WE, your Majesty's faithful, loyal, and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceston, think it our Duty to approach your Throne with our sincere Professions of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We have beheld, with a Heart-felt Dissatisfaction, the Conduct of your late Ministers, and are sensible of the Tenderness and Regard you have shewn your People by their Dismission, flattering ourselves you will still continue to exert your Prerogative, whenever the Dignity of your Crown, and real Interest of your People, shall require such an Exertion.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceston, sensible of the Advantages we enjoy under your auspicious Government, will always exert ourselves in Support of your Majesty's constitutional Authority, to the utmost of our Abilities; and it is our most ardent Wish, that your Majesty may long, very long, reign a Patriot King, over a happy and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of your Ancient Borough of Sudbury, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this critical Period, with the warmest Assurances of our Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and at the same Time to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your People in dismissing from your Royal Council a Set of Men actuated by Principles equally hostile to the Rights of the Crown, and to the Chartered Rights and Franchises of the People.

No:

Not content with having endeavoured to undermine your Royal Authority, as well in your undoubted Prerogative of granting Royal Charters, as in that of appointing your own Ministers, they have even proceeded so far, as to threaten to impede the Wheels of Government by withholding from your Majesty the necessary Supplies for carrying on the Buiness of the Nation; and this with the avowed Design of obliging your Majesty to abandon your present Ministry, and listen to a Coalition, which may give them an Opportunity of once more obtruding themselves into your Royal Trust and Confidence.

Under these alarming Circumstances, we consider it as a Duty incumbent on us, to signify to your Majesty our just Abhorrence of the dangerous and unconstitutional Measures pursued and still pursuing by them; and likewise to express the Satisfaction we feel, and the entire Confidence we repose, in your Majesty's late wise Appointment of Men of such known Abilities and Integrity as those who at present fill the several Departments of Administration.

And we think ourselves the rather called upon to declare to your Majesty these our Sentiments on the present Occasion, from a thorough Conviction that the Voice of the present House of Commons, so clamourously insisted on by the disappointed Members of the late discarded Administration, is by no Means to be considered as the Voice of your Majesty's People.

As the Prerogatives annexed to the Crown are an essential Part of our happy Constitution, so, under the Conduct of a wise and good Prince, they are the Subjects best Defence against any daring Attempts that may be made to erect, in a few designing Individuals, a Power equally subversive of your Majesty's just Prerogatives, and dangerous to the Rights and Privileges of your People.

We trust your Majesty will be graciously pleased to persevere in such Measures as in your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet, to preserve the Lustre of your Crow undiminished, and to guard the Rights and Liberties of your People against the meditated Encroachments of a desperate and designing Faction; and in this Hope we further pray the Almighty long to continue to us the Blessing of your Majesty's Reign.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set our Names, and affixed the Seal of the said Borough, this Thirtieth Day of January, in Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford, has been presented to the King by Sir John Wrottesley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Stafford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with Sentiments of the sincerest Duty and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, and anxious for the Preservation of our present Free Constitution, we beg Leave to address your Majesty, on the present critical Situation of Public Affairs.

We admire your Majesty's Conduct in dismissing from your Councils Men who have trampled on the Chartered Rights of your Subjects, and denied your Majesty's constitutional Prerogative of appealing to your People; Men whose Avidity for Places and Emoluments would break down the Barriers of the Constitution, and involve their Country in Anarchy and Confusion. We feel ourselves impressed with the fullest Sense of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Happiness of your Subjects; we confide in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Appointment of your present able and upright Ministers, and in the Exercise of your just Prerogatives.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dysart has been presented to the King by Sir John Henderson, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Burgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dysart, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dysart, in Council assembled, think it our Duty, at this critical Time, to approach the Throne with sincere Assurances of our warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

It is on all Hands admitted, that a Bill for regulating the Affairs of the East-India Company is become indispensably necessary, but we your faithful Burgesses humbly consider the one proposed, and strongly supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, as a violent Encroachment upon Property, and tending to establish a Power hitherto unknown; and altogether incompatible with the British Constitution.

We therefore rejoice at the Rejection of a Bill fraught with the most alarming Consequences, and beg Leave to express our grateful Approbation of the wise and seasonable Exercise of the Royal Prerogative, in the Dismissal of Men whose Principles, from promoting such a Measure, must appear subversive of the sacred Rights and Liberties flowing to us from our free and admirable Constitution.

Deeply sensible of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of all your Subjects, we most humbly pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign over an happy and loyal People.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council, by Alexander Thompson, Ch. Mag.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Major General James Murray, Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, think it our Duty, at this critical and alarming Juncture of Public Affairs, to approach the Throne with the warmest Assurances of Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which, as it has ever been distinguished by an inviolate Regard to the Laws and Constitution, we shall be ready at all Times to support and defend with our Lives and Fortunes.

We

We cannot, without the deepest Regret and Indignation see this Empire and its Dependences, since the Pride and Envy of the World, torn and dis- severed by the Mismanagement of some Ministers, and shrunken to its Basis by Factions and Parties intent on raising themselves, while the Public Good lies neglected and forgot, and the most clear and fun- damental Prerogative of a Sovereign, who never has stretched or abused the Powers entrusted to him, is encroached on and denied, with Turbulence and Clamour.

Conscious of the Benefits we derive from our present excellent Constitution, and that we are equally interested to maintain it in all its Branches; we cannot behold, but with Abhorrence, every Attempt to invade the Powers of any of these which must ultimately tend to subvert the Whole; and we should be wanting to ourselves if we were not ready to oppose, to the utmost of our Power, every such Attempt.

Attached to no Ministers or set of Men farther than their Virtues and Publick Services render them worthy, our ardent Wish is for the Glory and Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign; and that we may ever see upright and able Men of your Majesty's Choice surround your Throne and assist in your Councils.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the said Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, at Perth, the 27th of January, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Flood, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, by public Notice in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Belfast, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with the deepest Impressions of Veneration and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Deeply interested in the Welfare of the British Empire, and anxious for the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects, we sincerely rejoice in the late Dismissal, from your Majesty's Councils, of Men whose Principles and Conduct are inimical to the just Prerogatives of the Crown, the Privileges of the Lords, and the inherent Rights of the great Body of the People. We most humbly thank your Majesty for exerting, in so salutary a Manner, a Power which the Constitution hath wisely lodged with your Majesty, for the Good of the People; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, to the Utmost of our Abilities, we will at all Times support the constitutional Exercise of the just Prerogatives of the Crown.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous, and happy; that disdaining the Trammels of corrupt and ambitious Faction, which obliterates the nobler Features of the Constitution, the Gracious Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland may place himself at the Head of the People, and dignify the present Era, by giving Energy to their united Wishes, to purify the polluted Streams of Legislation, is the fervent Prayer of Millions of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Signed in the Name, and at the unanimous Desire of the Inhabitants of Belfast, in Common

Hall assembled, the Twenty-fourth of January, 1784.

Thomas Stewart,
Chairman of the Meeting.
