The following Address of the Citizens and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, has been presented to the King by Sir Charles Warwick Bam-fylde, Bart. and John Baring, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Wait-ing: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the undersigned Citizens, and some of the principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with the firmest Assurances of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Animated by the truest Esteem for our most excellent Constitution, and determined to preserve it pure and inviolate to the utmost of our Power, we intreat your Majesty to believe, that our general Sentiments of Loyalty can never lead us to engage in any Measure that may tend to embarrass your Majesty's Government, to foment the alarming Divisions that unhappily prevail amongst us, and impede the Progress of those conciliatory Measures by which alone the public Peace can be restored.

We entertain the fullest Conviction that the dearest Objects of your Majesty's paternal Care are the Welfare and Happiness of your People; and we cannot cannot but consider Union as the only stable Basis upon which the public Tranquillity and Safety can be rested.

Upon this Principle we form our Hopes, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to call to your Councils Men whose Abilities and Integrity may recommend them to your Royal Favor, and whose Measures may entitle them to the full Confidence and Support of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, has been presented to the King by Major General Peter Bathurst, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, and of the Clofe and Neighbourhood of the same.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, and of the Clofe and Neighbourhood of the same, humbly presume to lay before your Majesty, our sincere Expressions of Gratitude for the seasonable Dismission of the late Administration.

The very important Subject of India requires an Exertion of the whole Wisdom and Integrity of this Country. Notwithstanding which we have beheld (with Grief and Indignation) a crafty and alarming Project of Self-Advancement, substituted in lieu of adequate Provisions for the Relief of that unhappy Territory.

We therefore hold it our indispensable Duty to your Majesty, and an Act of Justice to ourselves, thus publicly to assure your Majesty of our entire Acquiescence in the Propriety of the late Removals: And we further presume (with all becoming Defiance) to submit to your Majesty's Wisdom, the Necessity of being always distrustful in future of such dangerous and active Ambition.

We also most sincerely thank your Majesty for the Confidence you are pleased to repose in the present First-Commissioner of your Treasury, assuring your Majesty that he possesses also (as far as we can observe) the Confidence of your Majesty's Subjects in general.

We cannot conclude this dutiful Address without adding our fervent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may continue for a long Series of Years yet to come; that it may be eminently distinguished for the Blessing of Liberty and constitutional Freedom, as being that which forms the peculiar Happiness of this Country, and the true Glory of its Sovereign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town Chepping Wycombe has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Mahon, and Robert Waller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, in the Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolate Attachment to your Royal Person, Government, and Family.

We have beheld, with Concern, an Attempt of your Majesty's late Ministers, to create an Influence new and dangerous to the State, and nearly affecting the Chartered Rights of this Kingdom; we therefore offer our most sincere and respectful Thanks to your Majesty, for the recent Instance given of your paternal Affection to your faithful People.

The Prerogative of the Crown has always been considered as a necessary Part of our glorious Constitution, and we have the Happiness of seeing that Prerogative in your Majesty's Hands exercised for the constitutional and salutary Purposes of preserving the Rights and Privileges of every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, and the Balance of our happy Form of Government; we beg Leave therefore, with all Humility, to assure your Majesty of every Support we can give for the full Exercise of it; and we sincerely pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a grateful, free, and united People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to the King by Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough and Corporation of Preston, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our sincere Regard for the happy Constitution of this Country, both in Church and State.

It was with great Concern we lately saw a Measure supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, which, had it been carried into Execution, would have deprived a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, and in its Consequences might have proved destructive of other Charters and Grants within your Majesty's Realms, and would also, we humbly apprehend, have armed such Ministers with Powers unknown, and repugnant to the Principles of this free Government.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for having, by the legal Exertion of your Prerogative, dismissed those Ministers from your Councils, and to assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times, both in our publick and private Stations, support your Majesty in the Exercise of those Powers with which you are invested by the Constitution of this Country, and in the preserving and promoting the Peace and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign; and we most humbly pray that your Majesty may long reign to your own Glory, and continue to be a Blessing to a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town Hall of the said Borough, the Fourth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, 1784, and in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Delaval, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and the Honourable Lieutenant General John Vaughan, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DE E P L Y impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, and entertaining a most firm and steady Attachment to the constitutional Rights of this Kingdom, we beg Leave, with all dutiful Respect, at this alarming Period, to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the well-timed Interference of your Prerogative, in removing from your Councils those Ministers who endeavoured to violate the Charter of the greatest of Commercial Companies; a Measure equally inimical to your Majesty's Prerogative, and the Chartered Rights of a free People.

We rejoice at their Dismission, and in your Majesty's calling to your Councils Persons on whose constitutional Principles and distinguished Characters we place the greatest Confidence.

We most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support your just Prerogatives, and pray that your Majesty may enjoy a long and uninterrupted Reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fifth Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, has been presented to the King by Henry Dawkins, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, have beheld with the utmost Concern your Majesty's late Ministers endeavouring to deprive the first Commercial Company in the World of their Chartered Rights; a Measure pernicious in its Consequences and highly inimical to the Safety of this free Government.

We heartily rejoice that your Majesty has been graciously pleased to exert your Royal Prerogative, in dismissing from your Majesty's Councils, Men of such dangerous Principles, and appointing those on whose distinguished Abilities and Integrity we place the utmost Confidence. We hope your Majesty will not be deterred from the just Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, whenever the Situation of your faithful Subjects shall require it.

And we assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready and willing to support your Majesty in the Defence of your Crown and Dignity, trusting that the present Administration will pursue such Measures as will be conducive to your Majesty's Happiness, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom; and we heartily pray that your Majesty may long enjoy an uninterrupted Reign over a happy and free People.

St. James's, February 10.

AS several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have from Time to Time gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms; The following Abstracts of Two Acts of Parliament of George the First and George the Second, to prevent such Practices, are published for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them.—And it will be observed, that they extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, and in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries, out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted, shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from thenceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Person shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, and of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise or Purchase; and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made upon Oath before any Justice of Peace that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted, or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid; such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of one Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Goal till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted upon Indictment of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give give such Security to the King, not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary, or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland, into any Foreign-Country, not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted upon Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary, or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with, or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in Case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on Board any Ship or Boat not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall for every Offence forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on Board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.
