

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Corporation, Freemen, and others, Inhabitants of your ancient City of Wells, beg Leave to approach your Majesty in this Hour of public Danger, with humble but sincere Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, confiding, as we do most cordially, in your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and in the Virtue of the present Ministers.

We humbly presume to hope that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to continue such Men of Integrity and Ability as your Counsellors and Advisers, to the Comfort of your loyal Subjects, and to the Establishment of your Throne in Prosperity and Happiness.

Wells City, the 17th of February, 1784.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, has been presented to the King by Sir John Wrottesley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Stafford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford.

S I R E!

THE Misrepresentations of a desperate Faction, having marked, with an unmerited Obloquy, our loyal Address to your Majesty, as not containing the general Sentiments of the Inhabitants of this Town, we feel ourselves again compelled to approach your Royal Presence.—Bold in the Spirit of Independence, we stand superior to the despicable Views of Party Interest, unbiassed by the Influence of Wealth, unawed by the Mandates of Nobility.

Determined to support the Constitution, as delivered down to us by our Ancestors, we will resolutely assert our own Liberties, and your Majesty's Prerogatives.

The Time approaches when we trust your Majesty will take a decided Resolution: The Voice of your People rises from every Part of your Dominions, and claims the Exertion of your constitutional Prerogative, to liberate your Royal Person, and your faithful Subjects, from the aspiring Infolence of disappointed Ambition

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, has been presented to the King by Penniston Portlock Powney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

STRONGLY impressed with Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, we the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, humbly beg Leave to return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's constant and uniform Attention to the Welfare of your People, the prudent Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, and the Defence of our glorious Constitution.

We also beg Leave to offer our warmest Acknowledgments, and to express our Gratitude to your Majesty, on the Choice of an Administration, in whole Integrity, Abilities, and Rectitude of Intentions, we have the utmost Confidence.

Your Majesty may rest assured that we shall, on all Occasions, be ready and willing to support your Majesty in the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, and in the Pursuit of all such Measures as may be conducive to the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Andevor, has been presented to the King by General Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knt. of the Bath, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Andevor, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, approved Men, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough of Andevor, beg Leave humbly to thank your Majesty for your Royal Attention to the Good of your People, in dismissing from your Majesty's Councils your late Ministers.

Your Majesty's Steadiness to support the Rights of your People, and to preserve the just Prerogative of your Crown, cannot but impress the Minds of your loyal Subjects with a Degree of Gratitude equal to their Abhorrence of the Violence of the Men, who attempted to destroy the Chartered Rights of the India Company from ambitious Motives, and with an Intent to create an Influence new and dangerous to our happy Constitution.

Though we lament the present unhappy Divisions which impede the public Business of the Nation, we doubt not but the Conduct of your Majesty's present Ministers, and the Support of your People, are and will be such as to maintain your Majesty's Crown and the Constitution inviolate.

Attached to no Party, but animated by these Considerations, we rest in Confidence of your Majesty's Wisdom, in rejecting Men of such discordant Principles as formed your late Ministry; and employing such only who can justly claim the Confidence of your Majesty, and the Support of your People.

We sincerely pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; over a free and happy People.
