St. James's, February 24.

THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, has been presented to the King by John Wilkes, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy,
and Freeholders, of the County of Middlesex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DETERMINED as we are to resist at all Times every Innovation on any Branch of our happy and glorious Constitution, and to continue to us the Rights and Privileges of Englishmen, struggled for and obtained by our Ancestors at the Price of their Blood, permit us to assure your Majesty, that we view with honest Indignation the Conduct of your Majesty's late Ministers and their Adherents, who in Combination, under a specious Coalition, attempted

To violate the Rights of the first Commercial Company in the World, granted by Charter, and confirmed by the solemn Faith of the Country, viz. the Acts of its Legislature.

To raise up a new executive Power in the State, unknown to the Constitution of this Country.

To deprive, or at least overawe, one Branch of the Legislature from constitutionally exercising its just Prerogative for the Good of the People.

Happily for this Country, your Majesty has been pleased to remove from your Councils Men of such turbulent and tyrannical Dispositions, for which we beg Leave to render your Majesty our humble and hearty Thanks; and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support and defend the just Prerogative of the Crown, the Freedom of Parliament, and the Rights and Privileges of the People, as essentially necessary to the Welfare of this Country.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, has been presented to the King by James Patey, Esq; Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy,
and Freeholders of the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, assembled at a

[Price Seven Pence.]

General Meeting convened by public Advertisement, think it incumbent upon us, at the present alarming Crisis, to approach the Throne with firm Assurances of our Attachment to your Royal Person, and the free Constitution of this Country.

Having beheld with much Anxiety the late Attempt to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East India Company, a Measure which would have formed a Precedent dangerous to every Charter in the Kingdom, and which would have established a new executive Power, equally destructive of the Rights of your Crown and the Liberties of your People, we venerate the Wisdom of that Branch of the Legislature which stopped the Progress of so unconstitutional a Bill.

We are sensible of the Propriety with which the Crown is vested with the Power of appointing and dismissing its Ministers: We have perfect Confidence in the Abilities and Virtues of those who have been lately appointed; and we see with infinite Concern the violent Steps which have been taken to wrest from your Majesty this necessary Power, and to force into Office the Authors of the late dangerous Attack upon the Chartered Rights of your Subjects. Under such Circumstances both our Duty and our Inclination prompt us to assure your Majesty of our warmest Support in the Exercise of all your just Prerogatives; and we trust that, through the Blessing of Divine Providence on your Majesty's Councils, a speedy End will be put to the present Distractions; and that you will long reign over a free, united, and happy People.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, has been presented to the King by Sir William Lemon, Bart, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Assize Hall at Bodmin, in the said County, this Eighteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, beg Leave, in the present alarming Times; unanimously to acknowledge, with great Satisfaction, the Wisdom of our happy Constitution; which places in your Majesty's Hands the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the Great Offices of executive Government. We have the firmest Reliance in your Majesty's known Wisdom and paternal Goodness, that you will be anxious to call into and continue in your Service, Men the most deserving of the Confidence of the Parliament, and the Public in general.

In this Confidence we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most earnest Assurances that we will, upon all Occasions, support your Majesty in the just Exercise of those Prerogatives, which the

the Wisdom of the Law has entrusted to your Majesty, for the Preservation of our Lives and Properties, and upon the due and uninterrupted Exercise of which must depend the Blessings which the People derive from the best of all Forms of Government. Christopher Hawkins, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Merchants and Manufacturers of the City of Aberdeen has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Edinburgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Merchants and Manufacturers of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Manufacturers of Aberdeen, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, on this perilous Occasion, with Sentiments of the most steady and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

At a Period when a Bill was, with much Precipitation, carried through the House of Commons, under the specious Title of "regulating the Affairs of the East India Company," but calculated, equally, to encroach on the just Rights of the Crown, to annihilate the Charter of the East India Company, and to establish a new Power abhorrent to the Constitution, and, in the highest Degree, dangerous to its Safety, your Majesty's faithful Subjects were filled with the most just and alarming Apprehensions.

As this daring Measure was introduced by your Majesty's late Ministers, and in its Progress received their most determined Support, we most humbly thank your Majesty for the seasonable and constitutional Exertion of your Prerogative in their Dismission.

Sensible as we are of the manifold Blessings of our happy Constitution, we firmly trust that Providence will long preserve it pure in its Principles, and in the due Connexion and proper Balance of all its Parts.

Fully convinced that the Liberties and Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects are the first Objects of your Royal Care, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that in the Support of your constitutional and just Rights, we are ready, at all Times, to stand forth with our Lives and Fortunes.

Deign therefore, most gracious Sovereign! to accept this our most dutiful and loyal Address, and to believe that our earnest Prayer to the Almighty Disposer of all Events is, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, loyal, and happy People!

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants and Traders of the Borough of Banbury, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordship been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty has been pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the principal Inhabitants and Traders of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the principal Inhabitants and Traders of this ancient Borough, deeply impressed with the highest Sense of your Majesty's constant and unremitting Attention to the Ease, Prosperity, and Welfare of your People, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the strongest Assurances of Loyalty and Affection, now called forth into the most lively Exercise, by the recent Instance which your Majesty hath afforded us of your truly paternal Care and Regard, in dismissing from your Councils Men, who, with the most dangerous Temerity, have proved themselves equally hostile to the just Prerogatives of the Crown, and the chartered Rights and Franchises of the Subject.

We cannot but contemplate that very happy and pleasing Event, with the greatest, the most heart-felt Satisfaction; since, whilst it excites our warmest Gratitude, it leads us to admire the Excellency of the British Constitution, as established at the glorious Revolution, and handed down to us by our Ancestors, the well-compounded Branches of which are so happily adapted to secure to us the Possession of every reasonable and desirable Liberty.

Sire! At a Juncture so very critical and interesting as the present, we behold, with Concern, the bold and daring Attempts of disappointed Men, who, to obtrude themselves again into your Royal Trust and Confidence, seem disposed to run every Length, and risque every Measure, however violent and destructive, to acquire that Power and Patronage they aim at.

These are Circumstances so peculiarly alarming, as to inspire us with a just Abhorrence of such dangerous Attempts, and would fill us with the utmost Anxiety, were it not for the entire Confidence and Trust we repose in your Majesty's Wisdom, so conspicuous in appointing Men of such known Abilities and tried Integrity as at present do Honour to the several Departments of Administration.

Dated at Banbury, the 16th Day of February, 1784.

We beg Leave farther to express to your Majesty our sincere Thanks for calling to your Service your present present Ministers; Men of acknowledged Abilities, possessed of public and private Virtues, and who have, (as far as we can observe) the Confidence of your People in general.

In this and every other Constitutional Exercise of your Prerogative, your Majesty will at all Times receive our most hearty and zealous Support; and it shall be our constant Endeavour in our several Sessions to fix in the Minds of our Fellow Subjects that Spirit of Loyalty and Regard for the Laws and Constitution of our Country, from which alone we can hope for a Continuance of the Blessings we enjoy.

Permit us to assure your Majesty we are truly sensible of their Value, and sincerely pray that your Majesty may long reign in Peace over a free, happy and united People.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Principal Inhabitants of this Town and Port, assembled in the Common Hall, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most sincere Attachment to your Royal Person.

Fully sensible of the many Blessings and Benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we have seen with Surprise and Concern the Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to infringe and violate the Chartered Rights of the greatest Commercial Company in this Kingdom, which filled us with Apprehensions for the Safety of every other valuable Possession secured to us under the Faith of Parliament.

We therefore rejoice that your Majesty (the Guardian of your faithful People) has dismissed from your Councils those Ministers, who have so justly forfeited the Confidence of your Majesty and the Publick; and we entirely disapprove of those Men, who, since their Dismission, would deprive your Majesty of the just Rights of your Prerogative, and who are still attempting, by every artful Means, to impede the great Business of the Nation.

On the Contrary we beg your Majesty will condescend to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for removing from your Councils Men who had justly drawn upon them your Majesty's Displeasure, and call forth the Interposition of an high and most honourable Part of the Legislature, and whose Principles and Conduct were ill suited to obtain the Confidence, or answer the just Expectations of the Public, which, at this arduous Juncture, demand the Exertion of those many illustrious Qualities that so eminently adorn the Persons whose Wisdom, Integrity, and Virtue have determined your Majesty's Choice of your present Ministers.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted upon Indictment of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King, not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.
