St. James's, February 28.

THE following Address of the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster has been presented to the King by Sir Cecil Wray, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Mahon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most zealous Assurances of Loyalty to your Person, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmost Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights by the Bill brought into Parliament, which, had it passed into a Law, would have been a dangerous Precedent, and created a new executive Power, unknown to the Constitution of this Country.

We most sincerely thank your Majesty for the Dismission of those Ministers from their Employments; and assure your Majesty, that we have great Confidence in the Principles of the present Administration, and that whilst they pursue Measures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Interests of their Country, they may safely rely on the Support of the People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, has been presented to the King by General John Lambton, and John Tempest, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient City of Durham, do, with Hearts impressed with unfeigned Regard for your Royal Person, presume, with the utmost Gratitude, to approach your Throne, humbly to thank your Majesty for your paternal, continual, and constitutional Regard, Attention, and Attachment to the general Interests of your Dominions, wherein and wherewith your Majesty's Royal Prerogative, political and personal Dignity, are inseparably interwoven; the supporting whereof, at this alarming Crisis, calls for the Interposition and Assistance of every Man devoted to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government. Relying totally upon such your Majesty's paternal Goodness and wise Councils, we do, in the most humble and dutiful Manner, presume to thank your Majesty for the Measures lately adopted, which we humbly conceive have tended to maintain inviolate our happy and much envied Constitution. We do most fervently and devoutly pray, that the Almighty will keep your Sacred Majesty, our most gracious and beloved Queen, and all your Royal and Illustrious Offspring, under His most Holy Protection; and that your Majesty and your Royal Progeny may reign over these Nations, and in the Hearts of a happy and united People, in universal and perpetual Peace, to the End of Time. Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said City, this Nineteenth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Address of the Freemen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to the King by Sir Watkin Lewes, Knt. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the City of London, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freemen and Citizens of the City of Worcester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Citizens of Worcester, humbly beg Leave to approach you with this Testimony of our Affection to your Royal Person, and Government, and our sincere Attachment to the Constitution of this Country, to offer our Thanks for the Change of your late Ministry, and for removing from your Royal Councils and Confidence, those whose Measures might have been destructive to this Country, and whose Attempts were not only an Infringement of your Royal Prerogative, and a Violation of this happy Constitution, but tended to the total Annihilation of the Chartered Rights and Privileges of your People. Allow us to express the Happiness we individually feel under the Government of a Sovereign so well disposed to support the Liberties and Good of His Subjects. May the Blessings of Providence attend you; and may you always have in your Royal Confidence, those whose Integrity may direct their Councils to the Public Good, restore the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom, and relieve the Burthens occasioned by the late unfortunate War.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Merchants, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to the King by Sir Mathew White Ridley, Bart, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Merchants, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in the Guildhall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with earnest Assurances of our most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to testify our most grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your People, in dismissing from your Councils Men actuated by Principles equally hostile to the just and necessary Prerogatives of the Crown, and to the Chartered Rights and Privileges of the People; and in placing the Administration of public Affairs in the Hands of others, whose eminent Talents and unblemished Integrity justly entitle them to your Confidence.

We trust your Majesty will graciously be pleased to persevere in such Measures as in your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet, to preserve the Lustre of your Crown undiminished, and to guard the Freedom of your People against the Designs of any Faction.

Permit us also, (zealously attached as we are to those Principles which placed your Majesty's illustrious Family on the Throne,) to express our warmest Approbation of and Readiness to support that proper and constitutional Exercise of the Royal Prerogative, which we deem essentially necessary to the Preservation of our dearest Civil Rights and Religious Liberties.

Given under our Hands this 13th Day of February, 1784.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable James Grenville, and the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most grateful Thanks for the paternal Regard your Majesty hath shewn to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, by dismissing from your Councils those Persons whom, with the greatest Concern and Indignation, we beheld attempting to violate the Chartered Rights of your Subjects, and at the same Time to establish a Branch of Government, hitherto unknown to our Constitution.

We also beg Leave to testify our Gratitude and Satisfaction at the Choice your Majesty hath made in selecting for your present Ministry, Men whose Virtues entitle them to the Confidence of the People, and whose Abilities are requisite, and we trust adequate, for promoting the Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Permit us also to assure Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and that we will at all Times stand forth in Defence of the just Exercise of the Prerogative vested in you by our excellent Constitution, and withstand every factious Attempt that shall be made in Opposition thereto. Truly sensible of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government, it is our hearty and sincere Wish that your Majesty may long reign in Peace over a free, united and happy People.

The following Address of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, has been presented to the King by Lieutenant-General Sir Henry Clinton, Knight of the Bath, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, and of the Inhabitants of the said Borough.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, and the Inhabitants of the said Borough, think it our Duty, at this important Period, to express our zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the excellent Constitution of this Country.

We should consider ourselves unworthy of the many Comforts we derive from these Blessings, if we neglected to offer to your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your paternal Regard to your People, in removing from your Councils an Administration coalesced and united with Men, to whom may be chiefly attributed the many Misfortunes that have of late Years overwhelmed the former Glory and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and who have been the Means of lessening that general Confidence of the People, which can alone give Stability and National Credit to any Administration.

We have felt a pleasing Reliance in your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in having appointed a Ministry in whom your People may repose their utmost Trust, and whose wise and careful Attention to our just Rights and Privileges do entitle them to the good Opinion of the Generality of your Subjects.

We devoutly pray, that your Majesty may long live to receive every Constitutional Support from a loyal and grateful People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Maidstone, has been presented to the King by John Morgan, Esq; Recorder of the the said Town, accompanied by Jacob Stone, Esq; Mayor, Thomas Dunant Funnett, Esq; Deputy Recorder, Edward Aegles, William Mercer, Esqrs. Senior Jurats, the Right Honourable Robert Peckham, Lord Mayor of the City of London, a Freeman and Inhabitant of the said Town, and Flint Stacey, Esq; Chamberlain, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, in the Court-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

STRONGLY impressed with Sentiments of the sincerest Duty and Affection for your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and anxious for the Preservation of our free Constitution, we beg Permission to address your Majesty on the present critical Situation of Public Affairs.

It was with the utmost Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, repeatedly confirmed by Acts of Parliament; and we humbly conceive had the Bill framed by them passed, it would have been a dangerous Precedent, and would have created a new executive Power, unknown to our Constitution.

We most humbly thank your Majesty for the just and legal Exertion of your Prerogative, in the Dismission of those Ministers, and for the Appointment of your Majesty's present Ministers, in whose Principles, Abilities and Integrity, we have the greatest Confidence; and we are well convinced, that whilst they pursue Measures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Interests of their Country, they may safely rely on the Support of a free and grateful People.

We farther beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in every constitutional Exercise of your Prerogative, your Majesty will, at all Times, receive our most zealous Support.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of all your Subjects, we most humbly pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign with Glory over a free happy and loyal People.

The following Address of the Electors of the Borough of Aylesbury and other Inhabitants, has been presented to the King by John Aubrey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Wallingford, and John Wilkes, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Middlesex, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Electors of the Borough of Aylesbury and other Inhabitants, in their Town Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Electors and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Aylesbury, impressed with the sincerest Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, being influenced by no other Consideration than the Prosperity of our Country, consider it as our Duty, at the present alarming Moment, to approach the Throne with Assurances of the most true and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

Beholding, with the greatest Admiration, your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice in dismissing those Men from your Councils, whose Conduct shewed so strong a Disposition to annihilate Chartered Rights, we return your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for the Exertion of your Majesty's Prerogative, in a Manner so highly beneficial to the Welfare of your People.

At the same Time we take the Liberty of expressing the Confidence we have in the Abilities and Integrity of the present Administration, as we sincerely believe they possess the Hearts and Affections of your People in general.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous is the fervent Prayer of, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the resident Freemen, and such Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders and Housekeepers, has been presented to the King by Charles Brett, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Dartmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the resident Freemen, and such Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders or Housekeepers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We consider the free Use of the legal Powers of the Crown to be essential to the Preservation of our Constitution and Liberties, and therefore presume to assure your Majesty of our determined Resolution to support your Majesty at all Times in the constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative.

We fervently pray that your Majesty may enjoy Health and Peace, in a long Reign over a happy, free, and united People.

Given under our Hands, the Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and in Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, has been presented to the King by Andrew Stuart, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Lanark, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, think it our Duty, in the present alarming Situation of Publick Affairs, to express express our most zealous Attachment to your Person and Government, and, at the same Time, our Veneration for the Constitution, as established at the Revolution. From that Æra we date the Rights of the People, the Privileges of the Peerage, and the genuine Dignity and just Prerogative of the Crown. The Appointment to all executive Offices we have ever considered as your Majesty's undoubted Right, and as such we reprobate every Endeavour to deprive your Majesty of a Power so sacred, whether it is attempted by open Violence, or by the dangerous Arts of refined Policy.

Situated at a Distance from the Seat of Government, we feel ourselves but little interested in those common Struggles for Power, which naturally attend a Constitution formed upon such Principles as that of Great-Britain, and have ever been unwilling to trouble your Majesty with our Opinions either of Ministers or their Measures: But when, at a most critical Period, we see the Execution of all Publick Business entirely prevented, and our Existence as a Nation upon the Point of being sacrificed to the Interests and Passions of a few Individuals, we think ourselves called upon to declare the Satisfaction we felt at the Dismission of the late Ministry; and to assure your Majesty, that we have the firmest Reliance and most perfect Confidence in the Virtue, the Integrity, and Abilities of the present: Therefore from our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person we cannot conclude, without wishing your Majesty every possible Success, in supporting the just and undoubted Prerogative of your Crown.

Signed in Presence, and by the unanimous Appointment of the Meeting held at Hamilton, this 20th of February, 1784.

Hamilton and Brandon, Præses.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordship been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

At Glasgow, and in the Black Bull Inn there, the 19th Day of February, 1784 Years, convened, a Number of the Præseses of the different Societies, in and about Glasgow, who represent many Thousands of His Majesty's loyal and well-affected Subjects, and unanimously agreed upon the following Address.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Præseses of a Number of the Societies in and about Glasgow, as representing, and in Name and Behalf of many Thousands of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, acknowledge with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction the Wisdom and Excellence of our happy Constitution, which has vested in your Majesty the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; and from the late salutary and constitutional Exertion of that Authority in the Dismission of the late Ministry, we have the firmest Assurance and Reliance in your Majesty's Honour, Wisdom, and fatherly Care, that your Majesty will in future show the same Attention and Anxiety to call into, and continue in, your Majesty's Service, Men of the most distinguished Abilities, of eminent Worth and Integrity, and meriting the Confidence of your Majesty and the Nation at large; and it rejoiceth us to be able to assure your Majesty, that Nineteen of Twenty of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects entertain the same Sentiments with us upon this important Point.

We were lately filled with the deepest Regret at the unexpected Dismemberment of this once flourishing Empire, occasioned entirely by the Faction of self-interested Men, intent upon raising themselves and their Connexions, totally negligent and forgetful of the public Good: And now we are distressed to observe the fundamental Prerogative of our Sovereign, never hitherto abused, and lately so properly exerted, agitated and discoursed of in the most indecent Language, and attempted to be encroached upon by the most ungrateful of Men; wherefore we are humbly of Opinion, we would be wanting to ourselves, and deficient in that Affection we owe to your Majesty, were we not to declare our Detestation of such Measures, and our Readiness, at all Times, to oppose such Attempts.

Attached to no Set of Ministers, (or Ministry,) or Men, whatever; further than their Virtues and National Services call for our Esteem and Gratitude, our sole and sincere Desire is, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, glorious, and prosperous, and that your Majesty's Council may be always filled with able and upright Men, of your Majesty's Choice, possessing the Confidence of your Majesty and People.

In firm Confidence then, that your Majesty will still continue to exercise the same Care and Attention to your People's true Interests, we beg Leave to approach the Throne with all due Humility, and with our most earnest Assurances, that we will, upon all Occasions, support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in the just Exercise of these Prerogatives, which the Wisdom of the Constitution has entrusted to your Majesty; and upon the due and uninterrupted Exercise of which, our Liberties, Civil and Religious, and every other Blessing which we can derive from the best of all Forms of Government, must depend.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Mr. John Paterson, our Præses.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee, has been presented to the King by Archibald Douglas, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Forfar, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee.

TO approach the Throne is the Privilege and Birthright of every British Subject: Permit us then, most gracious Sovereign, at this alarming Crisis, when Division, in its most threatening Forms, has invaded the high Councils of the Nation, to address your Majesty with Assurances of Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, Assurances not the Result of slavish Principles, or improper Influence, but the warm Effusions of grateful Minds, sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under the best of Kings.

The preserving entire and inviolate the several Rights and Privileges intrusted by the Constitution to the different Branches of the Supreme Power, legislative and executive, is the Basis on which we found our Hopes for a Continuance of our distinguished political Liberties.

The Prerogative vested by the Constitution in your Majesty's Royal Person, we consider equally sacred with the Privileges of either House of Parliament, and any Infringement on this Prerogative as a deadly Wound Wound to that admirable System of Government which has long been the Pride of Britons, and the Envy of the World.

While we admire your Majesty in your political Capacity, exerting, with the Firmness of a Man, and the Dignity of a King, the Rights inherent in one Branch of the Constitution, we must feel and deplore that Spirit of Party which so violently agitates another Branch, impeding the public Service in Matters on which our very Existence as a Nation depends, and losing Sight of the great End of all Government, the Happiness of the People.

We look forward with Pleasure to that happy Period, when these Convulsions shall cease, and their dreaded Consequences be averted. We rely on the Wisdom of your Majesty in the Choice of Ministers, whose Integrity and Abilities may be equal to so great an End.

Signed by Appointment of the Council, and at the Request of the Heritors, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Dundee, John Pitcairn, Provost.

Dublin Castle, February 18, 1784.

Yesterday being appointed for celebrating Her Majesty's Birth-Day, the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a very numerous Assembly of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, of both Sexes, at the Castle, who appeared in great Splendor, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, set to Music, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy throughout this City.

Whitehall, February 17, 1784.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Months of September and October last, divers Gangs of Armed Men assembled in the Night-Time, at the Towns of Hindon and the De-wizes, in the County of Wilts, and by Force and Violence took away from certain Houses in the said Towns a large Quantity of Tea, which had been seized by the Officers of Excise, and deposited in the said Houses, discharging their Fire-Arms against all who opposed them, to the great Terror of the Inhabitants.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrages abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discoveries, to be paid by their Secretary on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
