St. James's, March 2.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable the Earl Bathurst, Recorder of the said Town: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, at the Guildhall assembled, the Sixteenth Day of February, 1784.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, at a General Meeting publickly convened, impelled by Motives of Duty and Loyalty, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our warm Affection for your Royal Person, and zealous Attachment to the free Constitution of this Country.

We could not but behold with the utmost Abhorrence the late violent and daring Attack upon the Chartered Rights of the East India Company, in a Bill, which if passed into a Law would have created a new Power, derogatory to the Dignity and Right of your Majesty's Crown, injurious to the Commerce of the Nation, and the Security of Public Credit. We sincerely rejoice in the Defeat of this Bill by the Wisdom and Integrity of the House of Lords.

Permit us therefore, Sire, with Hearts glowing with Zeal and Gratitude, to render your Majesty our hearty Thanks for the Dismission of the late Ministry, by whom this daring and dangerous Bill was urged and supported; and for calling up to the Administration of Public Affairs the present Ministry, in whose Integrity and Abilities we have the highest Confidence, and who, we trust, will pursue such Measures as will add to your Majesty's Happiness, and promote the Welfare and Prosperity of your People.

Under a just Sense of the Value of our excellent Constitution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready, to the utmost of our Power, to support the legal Exercise of your Majesty's Prerogatives, in such Manner as may, in your Majesty's Wisdom, be found necessary, for defeating the Attempts of a Faction, and to promote Firmness and Stability to your Majesty's Government, and Security to the Rights of your People.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Daventre, has been presented to the King by Lucy Knightley, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Northampton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Daventre, in the County of Northampton, at a Meeting publickly convened in the Town Hall, the Twenty-eighth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the Borough of Daventre, deeply affected by the present alarming Situation of Publick Affairs, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our humble and warmest Acknowledgments of Gratitude for the Dismission of your late Ministers, and for your calling those Persons to your Assistance, whose Integrity and Abilities bid fair to restore this once glorious but now distracted Empire, to its former Splendor and Greatness.

We observe, with Concern, Men exercising great Talents, for the avowed Purpose of Opposition, and some few Individuals of independent and fair Character, misled so far as (instead of exerting their Endeavours to promote the Public Good) to make and concur in an Attempt, by framing Resolution after Resolution, and at last protracting and withholding the Supplies, to impede the necessary Exigencies of the State, and to compel the Removal of those Persons from your Service, against whom no specific Charge, nor even fair Suspicion, either of Inability or Misconduct, has been alledged, and in whom the Nation at large have an entire Confidence; and that for no other Purpose than to replace in their Stead, Persons whose late Dismission from your Majesty's Service, claims, and has secured to your Majesty, the Gratitude and Affection of a loyal and free People.

We do therefore pledge ourselves to your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support your Majesty in such further constitutional Exertions of your Royal Prerogative, as the Conduct of the present seemingly otherwise indissoluble Band of Men, may render necessary.

has been presented to the King by William Morton Pitt, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government.

We could not behold, but with Astonishment and Concern, the Measures which were pursuing to deprive the India Company of their Chartered Privileges; Measures calculated to gratify Ambition, and impress Horror upon the Minds of all other your Majesty's Chartered Subjects; and we rejoice that, by a timely Interposition of the House of Lords, the Security of Charters are yet preserved.

We are truly concerned for the Welfare and Interests of the Kingdom, over which your Majesty presides, and therefore lament the unhappy Disputes at this Time prevailing in the House of Commons; and sincerely hope the Period is not far distant, when Harmony shall be restored, and the Business and true Interests of the Nation, promoted by every Individual.

We have Confidence in the Abilities and Integrity of your Majesty's present Ministers, and cannot but hope they may be the Instruments of promoting the Honor and Welfare of the Kingdom.

We pray that your Majesty may ever experience the Affections of a free People, and the Blessings of a long and prosperous Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses and Assistants, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Town of Wareham, has been presented to the King by Thomas Farrer, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses and Assistants, Freeholders and Inhabitants in general, of the Town and Borough of Wareham in the County of Dorset, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses and Assistants, Freeholders and Inhabitants in general of your antient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincere Expressions of Gratitude for the Dismission of the late Administration, deeming it our indispensable Duty to your Majesty, in the present Situation of Affairs, thus publicly to testify our entire Approbation of that Event.

And we feel ourselves impressed with the highest Degree of Gratitude to your Majesty for this Exertion of the just and undoubted Prerogatives of your Crown, in supporting the Rights of your People.

Though we sincerely join with the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in deeply lamenting the unhappy Divisions which obstruct and retard the Public Business, we have no Doubt but the Integrity of your Majesty's present Ministers, and the Support of your People, will tend effectually to preserve your Majesty's Prerogatives, and maintain the Constitution as established at the glorious Revolution.

We cannot conclude these Sentiments of our Duty and Loyalty, without expressing our most hearty and fervent Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy, and prosperous over a free and happy People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been presented to the King by Sir William Lemon, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cornwall, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, beg Leave to approach your Majesty in the present alarming State of public Affairs.

We sincerely acknowledge the Wisdom of our happy Constitution, which places in your Majesty's Hands the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the great Offices of executive Government. We have the firmest Reliance on your Majesty's Wisdom and Concern for your People, that you will always be anxious to call into, or continue in your Service, Men the most deserving of the Confidence of our Country.

We also presume to hope, that your Majesty will continue to exert your legal Prerogative of dissolving your Parliament, whenever such an Exertion of it may be thought necessary, for the Good of the Publick and the Preservation of the Constitution.

In this Confidence we desire to assure your Majesty, that we will as far as in us lies, on all Occasions, support your Majesty in the just Exercise of those Prerogatives, which the Wisdom of the Law has intrusted to your Majesty for the Preservation of our Lives and Properties, and upon the due and uninterrupted Exercise of which must, in a great Measure, depend the Blessings we and our Fellow Subjects derive from the least imperfect of all possible Governments.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set our Names, and affixed the Seal of the said Borough, this Twenty-third Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glasgow, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable the Marquess of Graham, being being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glasgow, hereunto subscribing, think it our Duty, in the present critical Situation of Public Affairs, to assure your Majesty of our warmest Attachment to your Person and Government.

We revere the Constitution of Great Britain, as it was settled at the Revolution, by which the Prerogatives of the Crown, together with the Rights and Privileges of the Nobles and People, were mutually ascertained; and we reprobate every Attempt to innovate a Government so happily balanced. We sincerely lament those unhappy Divisions which have too long impeded the National Business; but we trust that the Violence of Party will ere long subside, and that the Rights of all your Subjects, together with the just Prerogatives of the Crown, will remain unimpaired.

Having full Confidence in your Majesty's gracious Assurances, that your constant Study in the Exercise of every Prerogative, by the Wisdom of the Law intrusted to your Majesty, is to employ it for the Welfare of your Subjects; and holding every Branch of the Legislature equally sacred, and equally essential to our Safety, Liberty and Prosperity, and to the Continuance of our happy Constitution, we are firmly resolved to the utmost of our Power to support and defend your Majesty in the just Exercise of those Prerogatives, which we consider as inseparably connected with the Rights and Privileges of the People.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Borough of Dumfries, has been presented to the King by Sir Robert Laurie, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Dumfries, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Borough of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANIMATED by the most loyal Dispositions, and the most sincere Wishes for the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution, we beg Leave, in the present critical Conjuncture of Affairs, to approach your Majesty, and to offer our most grateful Acknowledgements for that paternal Care which your Majesty has ever shewn for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and the tender Regard which you have ever manifested for happy Constitution.

It has, for some Time past, excited our most serious Apprehensions, to see a violent and dangerous Faction daring to usurp new Powers in the State, and attempting to encroach upon your Majesty's just and well known Prerogatives.

It was with Pleasure we lately saw the Leaders of of such a Faction dismissed from your Majesty's Councils; and that, in the pure and legal Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, your Majesty has made Choice of Ministers more deserving your Confidence, a Choice so consonant to the Wishes of your People.

It is with much Concern that we still see the necessary public Business impeded by a Set of Men, whose Struggle appears to be not so much for the Good of the State, as to proceed from a Desire of Power and the most self-interested Motives; but we trust that the Steadiness of your Majesty and your Ministers, and the Continuance of your Majesty's Exertion of the legal Prerogatives of your Crown, will soon put an End to the present Distractions, and restore Peace and Harmony to every Branch of the Legislature.

To promote and support such desirable Measures, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we will not be wanting in the Use of every legal Mean which Providence has put in our Power.

And that your Majesty may long continue to reign, as you have hitherto done, in the hearts of a free, grateful, and happy People, is the very sincere Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Common Council of Dumfries.

Subscribed by the Provost of the Borough, by our Appointment; and we have ordered our Common Seal to be hereunto appended.

David Blair, Provost.

February 24, 1784.

The following Addreses from Dumfermline, Innerkeithing, Queensferry, and Stirling, have been presented to the King by Major James Campbell, Representative in Parliament for the said Boroughs, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Dunfermline.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Dunfermline, beg Leave, in the present critical and alarming Situation of public Affairs, humbly to approach the Throne, and give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and testify our Approbation of that Constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, by which you have removed from your Service Men in whom you could no longer confide, and who, by Means which to us appear unjustifiable, were endeavouring to establish themselves in a Degree of Power and Influence, dangerous both to the Prerogative of the Crown and the Liberty of the Subject.

Whilst, with deep Concern, we view the distracted State of the British Senate, and lament its baneful Influence on the Business of the Nation, we promise your Majesty the firmest Support in our Power, in your constitutional Endeavours to maintain inviolated that just Equilibrium between the different Branches of the Legislature, so necessary to the Stability of Government, and Permanency of the British

British Constitution, in the Preservation of which the Glory of your Majesty's Reign and the Happiness of your People are inseparably connected. This signed in our Presence, in Name and by Order of the Whole, and the Seal of Burgh is also hereunto affixed, at Dunfermline, the Thirteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty four years, by John Wilson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Innerkeithing.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of Innerkeithing, in Council assembled, impressed with Sentiments of Loyalty and good Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, and sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, cannot but express our Concern for its Safety and Permanence, and our Abhorrence of all Attempts to the Prejudice thereof.

At a Time when Peace is happily restored, and we have nothing to fear from Foreign Enemies, we are sorry that the public Tranquillity should be disturbed, and the National Business interrupted, by the late unhappy Differences among the Representatives of the People. We wish that Men of great Abilities and Influence, instead of contending for Power, would employ their Talents in promoting the Arts of Peace, encouraging Industry, Navigation and Trade, and repairing the Calamities of War.

We approve of your Majesty's Choice of Ministers; and hope they will concur with your Majesty in promoting the public Good. We are persuaded that their eminent Virtues, which have recommended them to your Majesty's Favour, will secure to them the Confidence of People, to the Disappointment of the ambitious Views of factious Men.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty, under the Protection of Heaven, may be long preserved as a Blessing to these Kingdoms, and continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Name,
by Will. Currie, P.

Innerkeithing, February 19, 1784.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Queensferry, in Council assembled, beg Leave, with becoming Respect and Affection, to approach your Majesty's Throne, in the present critical and alarming Situation of public Affairs, and to join our Fellow-Subjects in assuring your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family, and Government.

Totally unconnected with all Party-Men, and uninfluenced by their Sentiments, we have only to express our humble, though anxious Hope, that, through the Blessing of Him who alone can bring Good out of Evil, your Majesty, with the Assistance of a wife, a disinterested, and an efficient Ministry, equally possessing your Majesty's Confidence and that of your People, will soon be able to restore internal Peace and Concord to this much-injured Nation.

That this happy Event may be speedily brought about is our most fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and at our Desire, by our Chief Magistrate, the Seal of the Borough being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, this Twenty-third of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Years.

Geo. McCallum.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with a deep Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty for the mild and prudent Exercise of the Royal Prerogative upon all Occasions, and the Duty we owe to your Majesty for that and your paternal Care of the Rights and Interests of the Subject, uniformly observed through the Whole of your Majesty's Reign; We, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Stirling, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with Humility and Loyalty, to approach the Throne upon the present Situation of Public Affairs, and in the warmest Manner, to assert the Rights of the Royal Prerogative, and free Exercise thereof; and that your Majesty's constitutional Powers of a free Choice of your Ministers, and the dissolving of Parliament, when at any Time such Step appears necessary to the Royal Wisdom, are not to be attempted to be restrained by any Set of Men, under Pretence of the Powers of another Department of State, or under Pretence that Ministers do not possess the Confidence of the House of Commons, for your Majesty's Choice entitles them to the Confidence of that House, and of the People at large, while they draw not upon themselves Suspensions from any Acts of Mal-Administration.

In our most excellent Constitution, the Prerogative of the Crown, and the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, are wisely balanced and well secured; any Attempt therefore upon the Prerogative would be unjust in itself, and detrimental to the whole Frame of the Constitution.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to declare our firm Resolution to support the constitutional Powers of the Crown, and the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our ardent Wishes that your Majesty may long and happily reign over a free and loyal People.

Subscribed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, at Stirling, the Eighteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Years, by James Moir, Esq; Provost of the Borough, and Præses of Council.

James Moir.

AS several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have from Time to Time gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms; The following Abstracts of Two Acts of Parliament of George the First and George the Second, to prevent such Practices, are published for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them.—And it will be observed, that they extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, and in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries, out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS or the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted, shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from thenceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Person shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, and of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise or Purchase; and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made upon Oath before any Justice of Peace that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted, or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid; such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of one Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Goal till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted upon Indictment of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King, not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Judicatory, or the Circuits there:

Statute 23. George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland, into any Foreign Country, not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted upon Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Judicatory, or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland: the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with, or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Goal of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in Case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on Board any Ship or Boat not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall for every Offence forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on Board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufférance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One-Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.
