St. James's, March 6.

THE following Address of the Citizens of Bristol, has been presented to the King by George Daubeny, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Rodney, the Right Honourable Lord Hood, Sir James Laroche, Bart. William Jones, Esq; and Thomas Evans, Esq; Burgesses of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Bristol, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for your Person and Government which become the most faithful Subjects to the best of Kings.

And we most unfeignedly and gratefully thank your Majesty, for having dismissed from your Service a Set of Ministers who were desperate enough to sacrifice every public Good which stood in the Way of their unbounded Ambition; and who for that Purpose were endeavouring to annihilate the legal and Chartered Rights of a great Commercial Company.

The Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the true Interest of your People, are and ever will be inseparable: Your Majesty hath on all Occasions demonstrated to the World that you have both equally at Heart: And a stronger Instance of your Majesty's Goodness and Attention to the Interest of your People could not have appeared than in your Choice of the present Ministry; Men in whose Honesty, Abilities, and Rectitude of Intentions, we have the fullest Confidence.

For so seasonable an Exertion of the Royal Prerogative, we, the Citizens of Bristol, beg Leave to repeat our warmest Thanks, and to assure your Majesty, that we desire nothing more than the Preservation of our wife and excellent Constitution, in the same happy, firm, and envied Situation in which it was handed down to us from our Ancestors, and your Majesty's Great Predecessors.

The following Address of the Capital Burgesses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Falmouth, Recorder of Tregony, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, in this Hour of public Danger, with humble but sincere Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, confiding, as we do most cordially, in your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and in the Virtue of the present Ministers.

We humbly presume to hope, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to continue Men of such Integrity and Ability as your Councillors and Advisers, to the Comfort of your loyal Subjects; and to the Establishment of your Throne in Prosperity and Happiness.

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, has been presented to the King by Sir John Trevelyan, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Somerset, and the Right Honourable Lord Hood, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerset, beg Leave, at this alarming Crisis, to approach your Royal Presence, with the warmest Assurances of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble but most sincere Thanks, for the seasonable Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, in dismissing from your Councils the Persons who composed the late Administration; an unprincipled Set of Men, who, under the specious Pretence of correcting Abuses, and restraining the Commission of civil Injuries, made a most daring Attempt on the Chartered Rights of a considerable Body of your Majesty's Subjects, trifled with the most solemn of all legal Assurances, and aimed a fatal Blow at our excellent Constitution; we beheld with Indignation their alarming Conduct, and rejoiced that your Majesty's gracious Interposition put a Period to their dangerous Proceedings.

We feel the highest Satisfaction in your Majesty's calling into Office a different Description of Men, whose consummate Abilities and disinterested Integrity entitle them to the Confidence of your Majesty, and the Applause of a grateful Country.

We humbly pray that your Majesty may long reign over a free, united, and happy People; and in the several Relations of a Sovereign and a Father, may your Majesty be blessed and protected by the King of Kings.

Dated, this Twenty-seventh Day of February, 1784.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Charles Francis Greville and Robert Ladbroke, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

IN the present distracted State of public Affairs, we think it incumbent on us to assure your Majesty of our Loyalty and Affection to your Person and and Government, and the grateful Sense we entertain of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, in Dismissing from your Service Men whose Conduct shew'd their Principles injurious to the Rights of the Crown, the Spirit of the Constitution, and the true Liberty and Prosperity of the Subject.

Not contented with endeavouring to create a Power heretofore unknown to our glorious Constitution for Purposes too obvious to mention, they are encroaching upon your Royal Prerogative; and regardless of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and the Good and Happiness of the People, they have for a considerable Time withheld from your Majesty the necessary Supplies for carrying on the public Business of the Nation; and this with an avowed Intent to compel your Majesty to abandon your present Ministers, and to controul the Appointment of others, thereby wresting out of your Majesty's Hands the Exercise of that essential Part of your Royal Prerogative.

Under these very alarming Circumstances we think ourselves called upon by the Regard we have for our excellent Constitution, to declare to your Majesty our utter Abhorrence of the dangerous Measures lately pursued, and still pursuing, by these ambitious Men; that in our Opinion your present Ministers have a decided Superiority over their Opponents in the Hearts of your Subjects, because they have not deserted their Sovereign, nor deceived their Fellow-Subjects; and that it is our firm Resolution to support your Majesty to the utmost of our Power in the lawful Exercise of your Royal Prerogative for the Benefit of the Community.

And we consider ourselves absolutely called upon to make our Sentiments, on the present Occasion, known to your Majesty, to prevent an Inference being drawn from our Silence, that we approve of the violent Conduct of the disappointed Leaders of the discarded Administration, and to give some Proof that the Voice of the present House of Commons is not the Voice of the People.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Clergy, and Burgesses of the Borough of Tamworth, has been presented to the King by John Calvert, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Clergy, and Burgesses of the Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, with all Humility, to express our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, and to offer our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's firm Attention to the Prosperity of your People, and to the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution. We admire the Wisdom of our Ancestors in placing in the Crown the undoubted Right of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; and we trust that your Majesty, in your Wisdom and Goodness, will always exercise this legal Prerogative, to the Advancement of the Honour of your Crown, and to the Welfare and Prosperity of your free and grateful People.

That your Majesty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of an happy and united People, is the sincere Wish of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our Hands this Twenty-sixth Day of February, 1784.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, has been presented to the King by John Cleveland, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, think, that it would be unpardonable in us, who have so long felt the Influence of your paternal Care, not to approach your Royal Presence, at this important Crisis, with the sincerest Professions of Loyalty and Affection.

Impressed with a due Sense of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gentle Government, we cannot but with sorrow perceive the Distractions which at present pervade the Great Council of the Nation, whilst at the same Time we lament and declare our Abhorrence of those pernicious Efforts of a disappointed Ambition, which seem to have been professedly made use of to disturb and confound its Deliberations: An Ambition, which endeavours to spread Anarchy and Confusion widely through this happy Land, which appears ready to trample under Foot the sacred Rights both of King and People, and sacrifice all Virtues, public and private, to promote its own selfish Ends, and destroy its Opposers.

Under such alarming Appearances to remain silent and unconcerned would ill become a People sensible of their present happy Constitution: With all Confidence and Humility, therefore, we declare our Reliance in your Majesty's Wisdom and Moderation for its Defence and Support; and we trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to believe a faithful and loyal People, when we declare ourselves ready, on all Occasions, to manifest to the World, that we have sincerely at Heart the Honour of our King, the Support of His Government, and the true Interest of this Country. That your Majesty may long reign in Peace and Tranquillity, over a dutiful and grateful People, is the ardent Wish of your Majesty's loyal and devoted Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, has been presented to the King by John Aubrey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the heartiest Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

It was with the utmost Concern and Alarm that we beheld the Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers upon the Charter of a great Commercial Company.

We felt for the Rights of this ancient Borough; we felt for those of every corporate Body in the Nation; which, had the Measure passed into a Law, would have been equally threatened and endangered by so fatal a Precedent. Such a Precedent would have shaken the Title of every Man in the Kingdom to his Property and Franchise; not merely by superseding without Necessity, but by treating, with with Levity and Contempt, chartered Rights of the first Order; and, at the same Time, creating, as far as the great Object of India is concerned, a new executive Power in the State.

Permit us then Sire, most sincerely to thank your Majesty for having dismissed from your Councils, Ministers who would thus dare to attack at once the Crown and the People.

We beg Leave to acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude and Joy, your Majesty's paternal Goodness in appointing an Administration, which is sustained by a Minister, with a Character the most exemplary, and of the highest Expectations: A Minister, whose Qualifications and Virtues claim equally the Admiration and Confidence of the Nation.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bridport, has been presented to the King by Thomas Scott, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most zealous Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government.

It was with great Concern we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, by the Bill brought into Parliament; which, had it passed into a Law, would, we humbly apprehend, have been an Infringement on the Constitution of this Country.

We beg your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for having dismissed those Ministers from their Employments; and we do assure your Majesty we have Confidence in the present Administration, and whilst they pursue Measures conducive to the Honour of the Crown, in Conjunction with the true Interest of their Country, they may, we trust, safely rely on the Support of the People.

That your Majesty, in perfect Tranquillity, may long reign over a brave and united People, is our sincere and most ardent Wish.

Given under our Common Seal this First Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, were by his Lordship presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County of Fife.

WE acknowledge with Gratitude the Wisdom of our Ancestors in annexing to the Crown of these Realms the undoubted Prerogative of appointing to all the Great Offices of Executive Government.

In this alarming Crisis we hope that your Majesty will be steadily and effectually supported in such wise and parental Measures as tend to the Security of established Rights, and to maintain the just Balance of those Three Powers, which form the Safety and Glory of our envied Constitution.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Cupar, the 24th Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Years.

Balcarras, Preses.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kirkcaldy.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ACTUATED by every Feeling of Attachment and Regard to your Majesty's Person and Government, permit your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Burgesses and others of your ancient Burgh of Kirkcaldy, to approach the Throne at this critical and alarming Period, when Discord and Party Spirit seem with too many to prevail over a Sense of Duty and Principle.

It was with no small Pleasure we lately beheld the Rejection of a Bill in Parliament by one Branch of the Legislature, which had received the Sanction of another. A Bill, as we conceive, destructive of the Rights of private Property, and calculated to establish a new and dangerous Influence, which, one Day, under the Direction of insatiable Ambition, might have proved equally hostile to your Majesty's just Prerogatives, and to the sacred Liberties of your People. The Dismissal, therefore, of those Men from your Councils, who seem bent on the Pursuit of these Measures, and the Appointment of others to the highest Departments of the State, who, it is hoped, will continue to merit the Confidence of your Majesty and the Public, cannot but be felt with extreme Satisfaction by all your faithful Subjects.

As the Powers with which your Majesty is invested by the Constitution will, we trust, be always exerted for the Good of your People; so, on the present Occasion, it must afford Matter of peculiar Joy to your Majesty, to find the well-timed Exercise of your Prerogative accompanied by the humble Approbation of your Subjects, as is evident by those fresh Instances of their Affection and Respect, which your Majesty is daily receiving. Deeply impressed with a Sense of your paternal Concern for promoting the Interests of your People; it is no less our Inclination than our Duty earnestly to desire that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, in the Hearts and over the Persons of a free and prosperous Nation.

The following Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow, has been presented to the King by Sir William Cunyngham, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Shire, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow.

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow, sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and just Administration, think it our Duty, at this critical and alarming juncture of Public Affairs, to approach the Throne with the warmest Assurances of Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend the just Prerogatives of the Crown, and the Liberties of the Subject, from all Encroachments and Innovations.

It is with the deepest Regret and Concern that we observe that of late the Business of the Nation has been obstructed and impeded, from Motives which we cannot approve of, to the great Hurt and Detriment of Public Credit; and that one of your Majesty's undoubted Prerogatives has been attempted to be encroached upon, and transferred to a Branch of the Legislature to which it does not belong.

Attached to no Set of Ministers, excepting such as may prove themselves to be deserving of the Confidence

Confidence of the Nation on Account of their Integrity, their Public Virtues, and their useful Services to their Country, our sincere and ardent Prayer is, that upright and able Men of your Majesty's Choice may ever surround your Throne, and assist in your Councils.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, the 24th Day of February, 1784.

Rosebery, Prefes.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Traders and Citizens of the Burgh of Ayr, has been presented to the King by Sir Archibald Edmonstone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Burrough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Traders and Citizens of His ancient and loyal Burgh of Ayr, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, deeply impressed with a Sense of your paternal Affection to all your Subjects, and unremitting Attention to their just Privileges; we, at the present alarming Crisis, feel ourselves called upon in the most forcible Manner, to join our grateful Voice to that of our other Fellow Subjects, who have so seasonably acknowledged your Majesty's truly constitutional and patriotic Exertions, in dismissing from your Councils those Men, who, upon the Annihilation of Chartered Privileges and Publick Faith, would assume the Government of this Country, and deprive the Crown of that undoubted and invaluable Prerogative of appointing its own Servants.

We would fondly hope there is still that Degree of Knowledge and Virtue remaining among your loyal Subjects, as will enable your Majesty to select a Ministry capable of retrieving the Dignity of this enfeebled and distracted Country; and we beg Leave to express our fullest Confidence, that the God in whom you trust will direct your Majesty to the Faithful of the Land, whose Plans of Economy and Government will insure lasting Happiness to your Majesty's Empire.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, and the Common Seal of the Burgh appended hereto, by

Wil. Campbell Fairfield, Provost.

Ayr, February 26, 1784.

* * Several other Addresses have been presented to His Majesty, but are omitted for Want of Room.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of March, 1784,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint Robert Howell Vaughan, of Havod Owen, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Merioneth, in the room of David Roberts, of Blaen-yddol, Esq;

Carlton-House, March 6.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will not have a Levee until the First Saturday in April.

Dublin Castle, February 24.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Thomas Orde to be his Chief Secretary.

Dublin Castle, February 24.

This Day Richard Earl of Mornington, and Thomas Orde, Esq; were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in this Kingdom, and took Places at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, March 6, 1784.

WHEREAS on Monday the 9th of last Month, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, as John Harrison, Head Supervisor of the Riding Officers in the Service of the Customs at Scarborough, was, in the Execution of his Duty, attending upon the Sands within the Harbour, in Company with other Officers of the Customs and Excise, to look after any Person or Persons who might be concerned in the landing or carrying away any Sort of Prohibited or Uncustomed Goods, he received a Ball discharged from a Gun or Pistol, which went through his Great Coat, and through that Part of his Under Coat, where his Pocket was, and hitting on the Right Hand Side against his Powder Flask (in his Coat Pocket) which is Brass covered with Leather, though it dented the Flask, was thereby repelled, but gave a great Shock to the said Harrison, who then heard the Report of a Gun or Pistol.

That on Mr. Harrison's receiving the Ball so discharged, he took out his Pistol, and, with a Dragoon who was in Company with him, immediately advanced to the Place from whence the Gun or Pistol was supposed to be fired, but could not find any Person there, or any Fire Arms.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to the Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Person who actually fired on the Officer as aforesaid, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

William Stiles, Secretary.

Custom-House, London, March 1, 1784.

WHEREAS the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs have received sundry Letters, some of which are signed, "Impartial," and others, "An Impartial Friend to the Revenue," stating, that Frauds are committed in one of the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, highly prejudicial to the Revenue as well as to the fair Trader;

The Commissioners do hereby give Notice, that if the Writer of the said Letters will make himself known to their Secretary, he may be assured that every Attention will be paid to any Information he may give, by which the Revenue can be benefited; and that his Name will be kept secret.

Wm. Stiles, Secretary.
