

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 2, to Saturday March 6, 1784.

St. James's, March 6.

THE following Address of the Citizens of Bristol, has been presented to the King by George Daubeny, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Rodney, the Right Honourable Lord Hood, Sir James Laroche, Bart. William Jones, Esq; and Thomas Evans, Esq; Burgesses of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Bristol, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of that Zeal and Affection for your Person and Government which become the most faithful Subjects to the best of Kings.

And we most unfeignedly and gratefully thank your Majesty, for having dismissed from your Service a Set of Ministers who were desperate enough to sacrifice every public Good which stood in the Way of their unbounded Ambition; and who for that Purpose were endeavouring to annihilate the legal and Chartered Rights of a great Commercial Company.

The Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the true Interest of your People, are and ever will be inseparable: Your Majesty hath on all Occasions demonstrated to the World that you have both equally at Heart: And a stronger Instance of your Majesty's Goodness and Attention to the Interest of your People could not have appeared than in your Choice of the present Ministry; Men in whose Honesty, Abilities, and Rectitude of Intentions, we have the fullest Confidence.

For so seasonable an Exertion of the Royal Prerogative, we, the Citizens of Bristol, beg Leave to repeat our warmest Thanks, and to assure your Majesty, that we desire nothing more than the Preservation of our wise and excellent Constitution, in the same happy, firm, and envied Situation in which it was handed down to us from our Ancestors, and your Majesty's Great Predecessors.

[Signed by 3879 Persons.]

The following Address of the Capital Burgesses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Falmouth, Recorder of Tregony, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, in this Hour of public Danger, with humble but sincere Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, confiding, as we do most cordially, in your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and in the Virtue of the present Ministers.

We humbly presume to hope, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to continue Men of such Integrity and Ability as your Councillors and Advisers, to the Comfort of your loyal Subjects; and to the Establishment of your Throne in Prosperity and Happiness.

[Price Seven Pence.]

February 27, 1784.

[Signed by 126 Persons.]

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, has been presented to the King by Sir John Trevelyan, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Somerset, and the Right Honourable Lord Hood, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerset, beg Leave, at this alarming Crisis, to approach your Royal Presence, with the warmest Assurances of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble but most sincere Thanks, for the seasonable Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, in dismissing from your Councils the Persons who composed the late Administration; an unprincipled Set of Men, who, under the specious Pretence of correcting Abuses, and restraining the Commission of civil Injuries, made a most daring Attempt on the Chartered Rights of a considerable Body of your Majesty's Subjects, tristed with the most solemn of all legal Assurances, and aimed a fatal Blow at our excellent Constitution; we beheld with Indignation their alarming Conduct, and rejoiced that your Majesty's gracious Interposition put a Period to their dangerous Proceedings.

We feel the highest Satisfaction in your Majesty's calling into Office a different Description of Men, whose consummate Abilities and disinterested Integrity entitle them to the Confidence of your Majesty, and the Applause of a grateful Country.

We humbly pray that your Majesty may long reign over a free, united, and happy People; and in the several Relations of a Sovereign and a Father, may your Majesty be blessed and protected by the King of Kings.

Dated, this Twenty-seventh Day of February, 1784.

[Signed by 125 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Charles Francis Greville and Robert Ladbroke, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

IN the present distracted State of public Affairs, we think it incumbent on us to assure your Majesty of our Loyalty and Affection to your Person and

