

Rights of your Subjects, we pledge ourselves, on all Occasions with our Lives and Fortunes, to maintain and preserve both equally inviolate.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Morgan Jones, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, has been presented to the King by Henry Rawlinson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, accompanied by Owen Salisbury Brereton, Esq; Recorder, Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County Palatine of Lancaster, Mr. Sparling, Mr. Dawson, and Mr. Wilding, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Principal Inhabitants residing in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the Assurance of our most cordial Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Sensible we are of the great Blessings derived to this Nation by the happy Constitution which was established at the late Revolution; and under the strongest Persuasion and Conviction that it is your Majesty's most earnest and gracious Intention to preserve that Constitution pure and inviolable, we beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for the late Exertion of your undoubted and lawful Prerogative, in placing at the Head of Public Affairs Men, who, we doubt not, will prove themselves worthy of their distinguished Appointments; and we assure your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, maintain and support the just and lawful Prerogatives of your Crown; and that it is our sincere and hearty Prayer that you may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People.

[Signed by 812 Persons.]

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants and Freemen of the Town of Bedford, has been presented to the King by Sir William Wake, Bart. and Samuel Whitbread, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants and Freemen of the Town of Bedford, humbly approach your Majesty's Presence at this very important Crisis, to express, in the most public Manner, our Gratitude to your Majesty for having been graciously pleased to comply with the Wishes of your People, by removing from your Royal Person and Councils, an Administration, who in Violation of the most Sacred Principles of the Constitution, presumed not only to propose, but to urge, with the utmost Violence and Precipitation, a Measure subversive of the Rights and Immunities of your Majesty's Subjects, and in the highest Degree derogatory to your Majesty's Prerogative; a Measure obviously tending to destroy the Balance subsisting between the different Branches of the Legislature, and to erect an independent and formidable Power, unprecedented in its Origin, and most alarming in its Consequences.

We also, with all Humility and Reverence, declare to your Majesty our full Confidence in, and entire Approbation of those Ministers to whom your Majesty has now entrusted the great executive Offices of Government, and given so decided and honourable a Support; and we are firmly persuaded that such Exertions of your Majesty's undoubted and Constitutional Prerogative, as may be deemed necessary to give Force and Efficacy to your Majesty's Determinations, will be highly acceptable to your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and will meet with their most zealous Concurrence; and we trust that the unremitting Efforts of a wise and upright Administration will, under the Favour of Divine Providence, operate to the speedy and total Removal of these complicated Distractions which have been unhappily so long prevalent in these Kingdoms, and we most ardently wish that the just and constitutional Prerogative of the Crown so wantonly invaded, and the Rights and Privileges of the Subject so daringly attacked, may descend unimpaired and undiminished to the remotest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our Names, this Fourth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord Christ 1784, at a General Meeting called by public Advertisment.

[Signed by 207 Persons.]

The Two following Addresses have been presented to the King by Henry Duncombe, Esq; one of the Representative in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty, that it is with the utmost Concern we observe the unhappy Disputes in Parliament, which fomented by Party, and agitated with Violence, not only interrupt (at this critical Time) the National Business, but endanger the true Principles of the Constitution, in the Maintenance of which we are deeply concerned. Anxious as we are for the Preservation of your Majesty's just Prerogative, we are not less so for the real and constitutional Rights of the other Two Branches of the Legislature; and however favourable we may think of the Institution of a House of Commons, and feel ourselves interested in supporting its just Rights, yet we think ourselves called upon to declare, that any Attempt (however disguised) to wrest from the Crown the real Power of appointing to the Offices of executive Government, and placing it in that House, appears to us neither Constitutional or likely to be productive of the Public Welfare. And the well timed Exercise of your just Prerogative, in dismissing from your Council those Ministers, by whom the late bold Attempt to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company was made and supported, furnishes a still additional Reason why we ought not to wish the Crown to be deprived of its due Authority. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever be ready to support such legal Exercise of your Prerogative, as may best tend to give Strength and Vigour to your Government, and secure the just Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 5th Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of Rotherham in the County of York, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we observe, with the utmost Concern, the unhappy Disputes in Parliament, which, fomented by Party, and agitated with Violence, not only interrupt the National Business, but endanger the true Principles of the Constitution, in the Maintenance of which we are all deeply interested. The Preservation of your Majesty's just Prerogative, and the real and Constitutional Rights of the other Branches of the Legislature, are Objects for which we are equally anxious; we venerate, as we ought, the Institution of a House of Commons, but think the Evils arising from the present unequal Representation of the People in that House, have seldom been more severely felt than at this Time; and although we are much interested to support that Part of the Constitution in the