St. James's, March 23.

THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, has been presented to the King by John Parry, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, unanimously resolved on at a numerous and respectable General Meeting, held at Carnarvon on the Fifteenth of March, 1784, convened by public Advertisement from the Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned Acknowledgments for the Dismissal of your late Ministers, who had justly forfeited all Public Confidence.

In your Majesty's present Selection of Ministers, we see, with heartfelt Satisfaction, Men called to your Councils of high Reputation for Public Virtue, Love of Freedom, and distinguished Attachment to the British Constitution.

Whilst we observe that your Majesty's Ministers do not at this Time possess the Confidence of the Commons House of Parliament; so essentially requisite, according to the original Principles of our free Constitution, to the Existence of every Administration, we consider with serious Concern that the Sense of the People at large is not to be collected from their present Representatives.

We therefore humbly take this Occasion to shew to you Majesty our firm Reliance, that from your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, the Abilities, Zeal, and Integrity of your Ministers, and the evident Necessity of the Measure impressed on the Minds of your faithful Subjects, such Reformation of Parliament will take Place, that in all Circumstances the genuine Voice of a free and loyal People shall be fairly and fully expressed by their Representatives.

Signed by the unanimous Order of the Meeting.
R. Wynne, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Inverness, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Archibald Frazer, Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, duly assembled in Quarter Session, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors attending on this Occasion.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, duly assembled in Quarter Session, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors attending on this Occasion, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most cordial and unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

While we view, with the deepest Concern, the present distracted State of Publick Affairs, we cannot help lamenting that Faction and Party Spirit should so far prevail as not only to impede and obstruct the Measures of your Majesty's mild and benign Government, but also to occasion dangerous Delays in the Consideration of those important Objects, which your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, was pleased to recommend to the Attention of your Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session.

Under this Impression we think ourselves called upon, in the present critical Conjuncture, to declare our Abhorrence of such factious Proceedings, and at the same Time our firm and determined Resolution to support and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, if necessary, not only our own Constitutional Rights and Privileges, but also the just Prerogative of the Crown, (which we conceive to be essentially connected with the true Liberty of the Subject) whenever any undue Attempts are made to invade either.

May your Majesty live long to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Alex Chisholm, P.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Common Council, Gentlemen, Clergy, and and Inhabitants of the City of Chester, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Thomas Grosvenor, and Richard Wilbraham Bootle, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen,
Sheriffs, Common Council, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Chester.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, fully sensible of the Excellency of our happy Constitution, and of your Majesty's paternal Regard to the uniform Preservation of every Part of it, humbly approach your Throne with the most earnest and zealous Assurances of our firm Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family and Government.

Truly sensible that it is your Majesty's invariable Wish, on every Occasion, to advance the Welfare and Prosperity of your faithful Subjects, we with Gratitude acknowledge the Wisdom which induced your Majesty to remove from your Councils those Ministers, who in their Conduct of Publick Affairs appear to us to have attempted an Establishment of their own Influence upon the Destruction of your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative, and upon the Ruins of the Chartered Rights of your Subjects; and to assure your Majesty that we place the highest Confidence in the Integrity and Abilities of those Persons whom your Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint in their Stead, to the executive Offices of Government.

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign over a free, happy, and united People.

The following Address of the Lords of the Manor, Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Bridlington, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable the Marquess of Carmarthen, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the East Riding of the County of York: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Lords of the Manor, Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants of Bridlington, and the Port of Bridlington Key, in Town Hall assembled, humbly think it our Duty, at this critical Juncture, to express our faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Veneration with which we regard our excellent Constitution.

We observe, with the deepest Regret, the National Business (which depends upon the Wisdom of Parliament) retarded by the private Ambition of Party; and we observe, with the greatest Indignation, the Attempt made by one Branch of the Legislature to assume the Powers of the Whole, and to negative the legal Appointments of the executive Power.—To your Majesty is given by the Constitution the Trust of appointing your Ministers; in no other Hands could it be so safely lodged; and we are at this Time particularly grateful that it is so, by your Majesty's late prudent and timely Exertion of it.

Sensible how paternally careful your Majesty has been in preserving inviolate the Rights of every Branch of the Constitution, we will, as far as lies in our Power, firmly resist every Attempt to encroach upon your legal Prerogative.

And we most sincerely pray, that your Majesty may long enjoy a happy Reign, in the Affections of an united People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Bailiffs, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Guildford, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Onslow, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Surrey, and High Steward of Guildford, and the Right Honourable Lord Grantley, Recorder of Guildford: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Bailiffs, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Guildford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with the strongest and sincerest Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government. Impressed with the deepest Sense of the distressed and degraded State of the Country, and justly alarmed for the Safety of the Constitution, we do, with the utmost Gratitude, acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness and Wisdom in the Dismission of your late Ministers, and for your Majesty's firm and timely Interposition in maintaining the just and undoubted Prerogatives of your Crown, against the daring and unconstitutional Attempts which have been made to endanger the Rights and Liberties of your People, and to shake even the Throne itself. And we do likewise consider ourselves as bound to acknowledge your Majesty's most gracious Attention to the Happiness of your People, in the Appointment of a Minister, on the Purity of whose Character, on whose Integrity and Abilities, we, and as we believe, the Kingdom at large, have the strongest and most well-grounded Reliance. And we do assure your Majesty, with the utmost Truth, that we will ever support, with our Lives and Fortunes, the just Exercise of those Prerogatives which the Laws, for the Benefit of the Subject, have wisely vested in executive Government, and which your Majesty has always constitutionally exercised for the Good and Welfare of your People, which are the great Ends of Government, and which we most gratefully acknowledge to have been the sole Aim and Object of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Free Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants

Inhabitants of the Borough of New Radnor, has been presented to the King by Edward Lewis, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, Free Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of New Radnor, in the County of Radnor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we the Bailiff, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, Free Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of New Radnor, in the County of Radnor, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most cordial Thanks to your Majesty for having, in your Wisdom and Goodness, removed from your Councils those Ministers whose Conduct had so plainly demonstrated a Disposition to invade the sacred Privileges of the Crown, to annihilate the Chartered Rights of their Fellow-Subjects, and to grasp at Powers incompatible with the Freedom of the Constitution.

Conscious that your Majesty's just Prerogatives form a Part of that invaluable Constitution, we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall be always ready to support them to the utmost of our Power.

We heartily pray that your Majesty may long reign over a free, grateful, and loyal People.

AS several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have from Time to Time gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms; The following Abstracts of Two Acts of Parliament of George the First and George the Second, to prevent such Practices, are published for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them.—And it will be observed, that they extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, and in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries, out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS or the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted, shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months; and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from thenceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Person shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, and of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise or Purchase; and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made upon Oath before any Justice of Peace that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer Artificer hath contracted, or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid; such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of one Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Goal till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted upon Indictment of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King, not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary, or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland, into any Foreign Country, not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted upon Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary, or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with, or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Goal of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in Case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publickly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on Board his Vessel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.
