

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 20, to Tuesday March 23, 1784.

St. James's, March 23.

THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, has been presented to the King by John Parry, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, unanimously resolved on at a numerous and respectable General Meeting, held at Carnarvon on the Fifteenth of March, 1784, convened by public Advertisement from the Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned Acknowledgments for the Dismissal of your late Ministers, who had justly forfeited all Public Confidence.

In your Majesty's present Selection of Ministers, we see, with heartfelt Satisfaction, Men called to your Councils of high Reputation for Public Virtue, Love of Freedom, and distinguished Attachment to the British Constitution.

Whilst we observe that your Majesty's Ministers do not at this Time possess the Confidence of the Commons House of Parliament; so essentially requisite, according to the original Principles of our free Constitution, to the Existence of every Administration, we consider with serious Concern that the Sense of the People at large is not to be collected from their present Representatives.

We therefore humbly take this Occasion to shew to you Majesty our firm Reliance, that from your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, the Abilities, Zeal, and Integrity of your Ministers, and the evident Necessity of the Measure impressed on the Minds of your faithful Subjects, such Reformation of Parliament will take Place, that in all Circumstances the genuine Voice of a free and loyal People shall be fairly and fully expressed by their Representatives.

Signed by the unanimous Order of the Meeting.
R. Wynne, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Inverness, has been presented to the King by the Honourable Archibald Frazer, Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, duly assembled in Quarter Session, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors attending on this Occasion.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, duly assembled in Quarter Session, together with a considerable Number of Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors attending on this Occasion, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most cordial and unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

While we view, with the deepest Concern, the present distracted State of Publick Affairs, we cannot help lamenting that Faction and Party Spirit should so far prevail as not only to impede and obstruct the Measures of your Majesty's mild and benign Government, but also to occasion dangerous Delays in the Consideration of those important Objects, which your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, was pleased to recommend to the Attention of your Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session.

Under this Impression we think ourselves called upon, in the present critical Conjuncture, to declare our Abhorrence of such factious Proceedings, and at the same Time our firm and determined Resolution to support and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, if necessary, not only our own Constitutional Rights and Privileges, but also the just Prerogative of the Crown, (which we conceive to be essentially connected with the true Liberty of the Subject) whenever any undue Attempts are made to invade either.

May your Majesty live long to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Alex Chisholm, P.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Common Council, Gentlemen, Clergy, and

