

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 6, to Saturday April 10, 1784.

St. James's, April 10.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Hertford, has been presented to the King by John Calvert, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Hertford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our humble Acknowledgments for your constant and unwearied Attention to the Interests of this Nation, and Assurance of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our excellent Constitution, as consisting of King, Lords, and Commons, which we are happy to find is the general Voice of our Fellow-Subjects. We congratulate your Majesty, that the late Acts of Government have attained the End which we persuade ourselves is the great Object of your Majesty's Wishes, the Public Satisfaction. The Removal of the late Administration, (whose Conduct was founded neither on sound Policy, nor constitutional Restitude) has been and must ever be considered as a Measure of the highest Propriety: And the Appointment of those Persons, whom your Majesty has been pleased to call to your Councils and the Great Offices of State, gives us the most flattering Prospect of all the Success that is naturally expected to result from Integrity and Ability. The Dissolution of the late Parliament appears to us to have been an Expedient the best calculated for the Restoration of Public Order, and for the frustrating and breaking the Combinations against the true Interests both of your Majesty and your People. And as we cannot but respectfully admire your Majesty's Firmness in resisting all Attempts to defeat so salutary a Purpose, and in Support of your own Royal and legal Prerogative, so we must with Gratitude applaud your Majesty's Disposition and Declarations to maintain likewise the Rights of your Subjects, both reciprocally necessary for the Preservation of the Public System and Welfare.

We trust that the best Consequences will flow from the seasonable Appeal now made by your Majesty to the Sense of your People in the Choice of their Representatives; and that such Persons will be returned to Parliament as will bring with them the best Intentions to concur with your Majesty and your Ministers in all such Measures as may tend to promote Commerce, invigorate Credit, and settle and support good Government through this Kingdom and all its Dependencies; and it is our hearty Wish and earnest Prayer to the Great King of Kings; that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and at length united People.

[Signed by 319 Persons.]

The following Address of the Portreve, Recorder, Capital Bailiffs, Commonalty, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Langport Eastover, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreve, Recorder, Capital Bailiffs, Commonalty, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Langport Eastover, in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IM P R E S S E D with the sincerest Attachment to your Royal Person, and with the highest Veneration for our Constitution, handed down to us by the Virtue of our Ancestors, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreve, Recorder, Capital Bailiffs, Commonalty, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Langport Eastover, beg Leave to address your Majesty with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude for having graciously exerted that Power so wisely invested in the executive Branch of Government, by the Wisdom of the Constitution, in calling to your Majesty's Councils; Men, in whose Abilities, Diligence, Integrity, and public Virtue, we have the highest Confidence, and to whom we look up for a Restoration of that Glory and Prosperity which heretofore so eminently distinguished the British Empire: We cannot but feel the greatest Satisfaction at your Majesty's having dismissed from your Councils Men, in whom we could not but review a dismembered Empire, and who threatened the Annihilation of every Chartered Right, by the most daring Attack on the Properties of an opulent Company, granted and confirmed in the most solemn Manner, by numerous Acts of the Legislature. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in the Exercise of this Branch of your Prerogative, your Majesty has the Approbation and Applause of your Subjects in general, whose ardent Prayers are, that you may long reign over, as well as in the Hearts of, a free, happy, and grateful People.

[Signed by 190 Persons.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of April, 1784.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WH E R E A S there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Petition of several Merchants of London, in Behalf of themselves and others, trading to Spain, humbly praying, for the [Price Seven-Pence.]