AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of April, 1784,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Petition of several Merchants of London, in Behalf of themselves and others, trading to Spain, humbly praying, for the Reasons therein contained, That all Ships and Vessels coming from the Ports of Spain, within the Mediterranean Sea, laden in such Ports with the Products of Spain only, may be exempted from the present Orders for Quarantine: His Majesty having taken the said Petition into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Obstructions upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Health and Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, be taken off, so far as respects Ships and Vessels coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, within the Mediterranean, or from the Island of Minorca, laden with the Products of Spain only; and that all such Ships, as also all Ships and Vessels arriving from the Town or Port of Gibraltar, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine; provided that they bring with them clean Bills of Health; and that the Master or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, do first make Oath before the Custom House Officer, or Chief Magistrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that they did not touch at any infected Place, nor had Communication with any infected Ship during the Voyage, and that their Crews are free from all Infection. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain

Steph. Cottrell.
