

Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Ginger and Pimento, may (until further Order) be exported by British Subjects, in British Built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any of the said Islands, to any Port or Place within the said United States, upon Payment of the same Duties on Exportation, and subject to the like Rules, Regulations, Securities and Restrictions, as the same Articles by Law are or may be subject and liable to, if exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America; and the Bonds and Securities heretofore required to be taken for such Ships carrying such Goods, shall and may be cancelled and discharged, upon the like Certificates as are required by the above recited Act to discharge any Bonds given in Great Britain for the due Landing any other Goods in the said United States of America.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, April 17.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, late one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Buckingham, John Aubrey, Esq; and Henry Thomas Gott, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

We presume to return our most cordial Thanks to your Majesty, for having dismissed from your Majesty's Councils, Men who, by their public Conduct, have forfeited the Confidence of the People.

And we further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always be ready to support your Majesty in the just and beneficial Exercise of your legal Prerogatives.

[Signed by 1472 Persons.]
