By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Definitive Treaties of Peace and Friendship between Us, the States General of the United Provinces, and the United States of America, have been concluded at Paris, and the Ratifications thereof duly exchanged: In Conformity therunto, We have thought fit hereby to command, That the same be published throughout all Our Dominions: And We do declare to all Our loving Subjects Our Will and Pleasure, that the said Treaties of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably, as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Publick Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God in His Great Goodness to put an End to the late Bloody, Extended, and Expensive War in which We were engaged; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the Great and Publick Blessings of Peace do call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgements, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His Mercies be observed throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant July: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command that the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as We can justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.
