And whereas by another Act also passed in this present Session of Parliament, the Powers granted to His Majesty, by the said first recited Act, are further continued until the 5th Day of April, 1785; His Majesty doth thereupon; by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that any unmanufactured Goods or Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Oil) and any Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Indico, Malts, Yards and Bowspits, being the Growth or Production of any of the United States of America, may (until further Order) be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British or American Ships, by British Subjects, or by any of the People inhabiting in, and belonging to, the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port in this Kingdom, upon Payment of the same Duties as the like Sort of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to, if imported by British Subjects, in British Ships, from any British Island or Plantation in America, and no other, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law:—

Whitehall, August 21, 1784.

The King has been pleased to appoint Colonel Thomas Carleton to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, in America.

Naples, July 3. The British Squadron under the Command of Commodore Sir John Lindsay, consisting of the Trusty, Thetis, Andromache, Sphinx, and Rattlesnake, which sailed from Leghorn the 14th of June last, anchored in this Bay on the 17th. On hearing of its Arrival, the King of Naples was pleased to command that it should be immediately admitted to Pratick, notwithstanding the Quarantine lately laid on all Ships from whatever Quarter they come.

The King and Queen of Naples having previously signified to the Commodore their Intention of honouring the Squadron with a Visit; their Majesties set out on the 24th in the Morning from the Galley Mole, attended by General Acton, and several other Officers of the Court, and by the Captains of the Squadron, in their respective Barges. As soon as their Majesties were at a little Distance from the Shore, all the Ships manned their Yards, except the Sphinx and Rattlesnake, which being dressed with Colours, displayed them at the same Instant the others manned; and after their Majesties were on board the Trusty, all the Rest of the Squadron fired a Royal Salute.

Their Majesties visited the Ship above and below, and then the King went into the Commodore's Barge, and visited all the other Ships of the Squadron, returning again to the Trusty. On leaving the Squadron their Majesties were saluted by all the Ships with 21 Guns each; and the Commodore with the Captains had the Honour of dining with their Majesties on Shore, and the following Day on board the King's Yacht, which, with Two of the King's Gallies, was dressed with Colours after the English Manner, the English Flag being at the Yacht's Foretopmast Head.

At Dinner on board the Yacht their Sicilian Majesties drank to the Health of the King and Queen of Great Britain, when a Royal Salute was immediately fired from the Yacht and the Two Gallies. Their Majesties, during the Dinner, were pleased repeatedly to express their Satisfaction at seeing an English Squadron in the Bay of Naples, and appeared desirous by every Means in their Power to manifest their Friendship for His Britannick Majesty.

His Sicilian Majesty having fixed on Thursday the 1st of July to honour the Squadron again with his Presence; and to see a few Evolutions performed in the Bay, his Majesty, attended by General Acton and the Officers of the Court, arrived at the Time appointed; and the Ships being in all Respects prepared and quite ready, slipped their Cables and sailed in good Order about Eleven o'Clock, with a very fine Sea Breeze.

The Exercising of the Squadron began immediately; and such Manœuvres as could be performed by so small a Number of Ships, were executed at Half past Two o'Clock. His Majesty was pleased to honour the Commodore with his Company at Dinner, when the Commodore took an Opportunity to drink the Queen's Health; and fired a Royal Salute from the whole Squadron.

About Four o'Clock the Evolutions recommenced, and were continued until Half past Six, when the Ships resumed their former anchoring Stations in the Bay of Naples. The several Manœuvres of the Squadron were honoured with repeated Expressions of Applause by his Sicilian Majesty, who testified a perfect Knowledge in every Part of that Business. He was saluted on his coming on Board and going on Shore, by all the Ships, with 21 Guns, each, and attended on both Occasions by the Captains in their respective Barges.
