St. James's, November 10.

This Day the Baron de Lynden, Envoy Extra-ordinary and Plenipotentiary from the States General, had a Private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Credentials.

To which he was introduced by the Marquis of Carmarthen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Stephen Courell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, November 13.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Lord Howard de Walden to be His Majesty's Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Essex.

Brussels, November 8. Accounts have been received here, that last Night the Dutch broke one of their Dikes near Lillo, by which several Persons were drowned. They attempted to break a second, but were prevented by the Imperial Troops. This Event has spread an Alarm at Ostend, and has occasioned an extraordinary Diligence in compleating the Works on the Ramparts there.

London, November 9.

Yesterday Richard Clark, Esq; Lord-Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryars, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present some of the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.
R U T L A N D.
