Westminster, January 25, 1785.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AFTER the laborious Attendance of the last Session of Parliament, it has given Me peculiar Pleasure, that the Situation of Public Affairs has admitted of so long a Recess.

Among the Objects which now require Consideration, I must particularly recommend to your earnest Attention the Adjustment of such Points in the Commercial Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland, as are not yet finally arranged. The System which will unite both Kingdoms the most closely on Principles of reciprocal Advantage, will, I am persuaded, best ensure the general Prosperity of My Dominions.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that notwithstanding any Appearance of Differences on the Continent, I continue uniformly to receive, from all Foreign Powers, the strongest Assurances of their good Disposition towards this Country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you. I confide in your Liberality and Zeal to grant the necessary Supplies, with a just Regard as well to the Economy requisite in every Department, as to the Maintenance of the National Credit, and the real Exigencies of the Public Service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Success which has attended the Measures taken in the last Session towards the Suppression of Smuggling, and for the Improvement of the Revenue, will encourage you to apply yourselves, with continual Assiduity, to those important Objects. You will, I trust, also take into early Consideration, the Matters suggested in the Reports of the Commissioners of Public Accounts, and such further Regulations as may appear to be necessary in the different Offices of the Kingdom.

I have the fullest Reliance on the Continuance of your faithful and diligent Exertions in every Part of your Public Duty. You may at all Times depend on My hearty Concurrence in every Measure which can tend to alleviate our National Burthens, to secure the true Principles of the Constitution, and to promote the general Welfare of My People.

Dublin Castle, January 26.

THIS Day the Parliament having met, according to the last Prorogation, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a Message from his Grace to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Grace in the House of Peers: The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Grace made the following Speech to both Houses.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IHAVE His Majesty's Commands to meet you in Parliament, and to desire your Advice and Co-operation upon those Affairs of Importance which, in the present Circumstances of the Kingdom, require your most serious Attention.

Whilst I lamented the lawless Outrages and unconstitutional Proceedings which had taken Place since your last Prorogation, I had the Satisfaction to perceive that these Excesses were confined to a few Places, and even there condemned: And I have now the Pleasure to observe, that, by the salutary Interposition of the Laws, the General Tranquillity is re-established.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Publick Accounts to be laid before you. I have the fullest Reliance on your approved Loyalty to the King, and Attachment to your Country, that a due Consideration of the Exigencies of the State will lead you to make whatever Provisions shall appear to be necessary for the Publick Expences, and for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government.

My

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I am to recommend, in the King's Name, to your earnest Investigation, those Objects of Trade and Commerce between Great-Britain and Ireland which have not yet received their complete Adjustment. In framing a Plan with a View to a final Settlement, you will be sensible that the Interests of Great-Britain and Ireland ought to be for ever united and inseparable. And His Majesty relies on your Liberality and Wisdom for adopting such an equitable System for the joint Benefit of both Countries, and the Support of the Common Interest, as will secure mutual Satisfaction and Permanency.

The Encouragement and Extension of Agriculture and Manufactures, and especially of your Linen Manufacture, will, I am persuaded, engage your constant Concern. Let me likewise direct your Attention, in a particular Manner, to the Fisheries on your Coasts, from which you may reasonably hope for an improving Source of Industry and Wealth to this Kingdom, and of Strength to the Empire.

The Liberality which you have always shewn to the Maintenance of your Protestant Charter Schools, and other Publick Institutions, makes it unnecessary for me to recommend them to your Care. You cannot more beneficially exert this laudable Spirit, than by directing your Attention to improve, and to diffuse throughout the Kingdom, the Advantages of good Education. Sensible of its essential Consequence to the Morals and Happiness of the People, and to the Dignity of the Nation, I am happy to assure you of His Majesty's gracious Patronage; and shall be earnest to give every Assistance in my Power to the Success of such Measures as your Wisdom may devise for this important Purpose.

It is the Province of your Prudence and Discretion to consider what new Provisions may be necessary for securing the Subject against Violence and Outrage, for the Regulation of the Police, and the better Execution of the Laws, as well as for the general Encouragement of peaceable Subordination and honest Industry. It will be a pleasing Task to me to assist and promote your Exertions for the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, for upholding the Authority of the Legislature, and supporting the true Principles of our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

The Uniformity of Laws and of Religion, and a common Interest in Treaties with Foreign States, form a sure Bond of mutual Connection and Attachment between Great-Britain and Ireland. It will be your Care to cherish these inestimable Blessings with that Spirit and Wisdom, which will render them effectual Securities to the Strength and Prosperity of the Empire.

Dublin-Castle, January 17.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint Richard Boyle Townshend, of Castletownsend, Esq; to be High Sheriff of the County of Cork for the present Year.

Vienna, January 5.

The last Letters from Transylvania bring the agreeable Account, that the Insurrection in those Parts is entirely suppressed without Bloodshed, the Insurgents having laid down their Arms, and returned peaceably to their Dwellings, except their Chief, with a few of his Companions, who had fled for Refuge to the Woods and Mountains.

Navy-Office, January 19, 1785.

IN Obedience to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 4th of February, 1784, the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have been pleased to direct, that Nineteen Chaplains of the Royal Navy, who have served longest on board His Majesty's Ships during the late Hostilities with the United States of America, France, Spain, and the States-General of the United Provinces, be added to the List of those entitled to the Bounty formerly granted by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 1st of February, 1765, under the same Provisions as therein mentioned; and that Four of the said Nineteen be allowed Two Shillings and Sixpence a Day, and the remaining Fifteen Two Shillings a Day, to commence on the 1st of January, 1784, Notice is hereby given to such Chaplains as have been actually borne and mustered during the Space of Four Years, between the 29th of August, 1775, and the 3d of September, 1783, to deliver into this Office, on or before the 31st of March next, a List of the Ships they have served in, together with an Affidavit, made before a proper Magistrate, that they have not enjoyed the Benefit of any Ecclesiastical Living or Preferment from the Crown, or otherwise, of the annual Value of Fifty Pounds, between the 1st of January and the 31st of December, 1784.

Navy-Office, January 5, 1785.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to contract for the Stores under-mentioned, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, that they may attend with their Proposals accordingly, viz.
