Whitehall, May 31.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Earl of Leven His Majesty's High Commissioner, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

THE very gracious Letter with which your Majesty hath honoured this Meeting of the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland, was received with the Respect and Gratitude due to such a distinguishing Proof of your Royal Favour.

The Satisfaction which your Majesty is pleased to express with our Attention to the great Cause of Religion and Virtue, and with our Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, is a fresh and a very powerful Motive to induce us to apply ourselves, with Zeal and Activity, to diffuse among the People committed to our Care the warmest Sentiments of Religion, and the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government.

We receive, with the greatest Satisfaction, the renewed Assurances of your Majesty's constant Resolution to support and maintain the Church of Scotland, as by Law established, in the complete Enjoyment of Her Rights and Privileges, and we rely on them with the most perfect Confidence.

We have received, with the utmost Respect, your Royal Recommendation of the Continuance of that Harmony which will give Dignity to our Proceedings; and we are happy in the Persuasion that, by avoiding all narrow Distinctions, private Animosities, and personal Altercations, and by confining our Deliberations to the great and laudable Work of promoting Christian Virtue, and discouraging every Tendency to Vice and Immorality, we shall render ourselves acceptable to your Majesty; and we are fully convinced, that such a System of Conduct will, at the same Time, be of permanent Advantage to the Church of Scotland.

We have had so much Experience on former Occasions of the Loyalty, Integrity and Zeal for your Majesty's Service, of the noble Lord whom your Majesty hath been pleased to appoint to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly; and we are so fully satisfied of his exemplary Regard for Religion, and his particular Affection for the Church of Scotland, that we cannot but consider your Majesty's repeated Nomination of him as an additional Mark of your Royal Favour to us.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that it is our firm Resolution to conduct the Business of this Assembly with that Unanimity and brotherly Affection which, we trust, will secure to us the Continuance of your Majesty's Approbation, and which we know to be essentially requisite to promote the great Purposes for which we are assembled.

Your Majesty's Donation of One Thousand Pounds we accept with all Gratitude, as a Proof of the Continuance of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the spiritual as well as the temporal Interests of your People, even in the most remote and uncultivated Parts of your Kingdoms; and it shall be our Study to apply it in such a Manner as may most effectually promote the pious and benevolent Purposes of the Royal Donor.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may bless your Majesty with all spiritual and temporal Blessings, and render your Reign long and prosperous; that the Favour of Divine Providence may ever attend your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen; and that the Most High may be the Guardian and Protector of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and of all your Royal Family, are, and ever shall be, the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

H. Moncreiff Well-wood, Moderator.
