Ph. Stephens.

Victualling-Office, June 3, 1785.

THE Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy having received the following Copy of a Clause of a Bill that has passed the Honourable House of Commons, respecting the Time of Delivery of Victualling Bills left at this Office, to have the Interest upon them set off, viz.

“ And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen, that from the Multiplicity of Computations to be made upon the several Bills that may be brought to the respective Offices of the Navy or Victualling to be marked, and the Interest thereupon computed up to the 5th of July, 1785, the same cannot be completed, so as to be delivered to the Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-master or Cashier, within the Time limited by this Act, for the said Treasurer, or his Paymaster or Cashier, to form the proper Calculations, and make forth such Certificates as are herein directed to be transmitted to the Bank of England; in all such Cases, any Person or Persons intitled to such of the said Navy and Victualling or Transport Bills, as shall be tendered to and left with the Officers herein directed to receive such Bills, on or before the said 6th Day of June, 1785, upon producing to the Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-master or Cashier, any Bill or Bills, marked and computed in the Manner herein directed, shall be intitled to recover from the said Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-master or Cashier, a Certificate to the Bank of England for the Sums contained in such Bill or Bills, provided such Bill or Bills shall be demanded at and received from the respective Offices of the Navy or Victualling on or before the 30th Day of September, 1785, and shall be delivered to the said Treasurer, or his Paymaster or Cashier, within Thirty Days after the same shall be received from the said Navy or Victualling Offices respectively, notwithstanding the Time of tendering the same to the said Treasurer, or his Paymaster or Cashier, shall be after the Day herein limited for that Purpose; And the several and respective Officers above mentioned are hereby authorized and required to issue such Bills and Certificates accordingly.”

They do hereby give Public Notice thereof, that the Possessors of such Bills may govern themselves accordingly.

Navy-Office, June 4, 1785.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy having received from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury the following Clause in a Bill that has passed the Honourable House of Commons, respecting the Time of Delivery of any Bills left at this Office to have the Interest upon them set off, viz.

“ And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen, that from the Multiplicity of Computations to be made upon the several Bills that may be brought to the respective Offices of the Navy and Victualling to be marked, and the Interest thereupon computed up to the 5th Day of July, 1785, the same cannot be completed; so as to be delivered to the Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-Master or Cashier, within the Time limited by this Act, for the said Treasurer, or his Pay-Master or Cashier, to form proper Calculations, and make forth such Certificates as are herein directed to be transmitted to the Bank of England; in all such Cases, any Person or Persons intitled to such of the said Navy, Victualling or Transport Bills, as shall be tendered to and left with the Officers herein directed to receive such Bills, on or before the said 6th Day of June, 1785, upon producing to the Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-master or Cashier, any Bill or Bills marked and computed in the Manner hereinbefore directed, shall be entitled to receive from the said Treasurer of the Navy, his Pay-master or Cashier, a Certificate to the Bank of England for the Sums contained in such Bill or Bills, provided such Bill or Bills

Bills shall be demanded at and received from the respective Offices of the Navy or Victualling, on or before the 30th Day of September, 1785, and shall be delivered to the said Treasurer, or his Pay-master or Cashier, within Thirty Days after the same shall be received from the said Navy or Victualling-Offices respectively, notwithstanding the Time of tendering the same to the said Treasurer, or his Pay-Master or Cashier, shall be after the Day herein limited for that Purpose; and the several and respective Officers abovementioned are hereby authorized and required to issue such Bills and Certificates accordingly.

They do hereby give Public Notice hereof, that the Possessors of such Bills may govern themselves accordingly.

Navy-Office, May 31, 1785.

WHEREAS many Persons have not paid due Attention to that Part of the Advertisement from this Office of the 14th Instant, for receiving Navy Bills for being funded, which requires the Parties holding them, and for whom they are to be taken out of Office, to put their Names and Places of Abode at the Bottom of each Bill, whereby it was intended to sort each Persons Bills separately when ready for Delivery, without which great Irregularity and Confusion, as well as Delay, may arise when the Bills are applied for to be carried to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; all Bill Holders are desired to pay particular Attention thereto, and such who have given in their Bills without such Notation, are desired to deliver forthwith, at the Office of the Comptroller of the Treasurer's Accounts, a List of the Bills they have delivered, with their Names and Places of Abode, and the Date, Number and Sum of each Bill, for the Reasons abovementioned.
