

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 9, to Tuesday July 12, 1785.

Whitehall, July 12.

THE King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Sir John Dick, Bart. One of the Comptrollers of the Army Accounts, Sir William Musgrave, Bart. William Mollifon, Esq; the other Comptroller of the Army Accounts, or the Comptrollers of the Army Accounts for the Time being, John Thomas Batt, and John Martin Leake, Esqrs. to be His Majesty's Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend George Champagné, Master of Arts, to the Vicarage of Nuneaton, in the County of Warwick and Diocese of Coventry and Litchfield, void by the Death of the Reverend Doctor Thomas Edwards.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Doctor John M'Farlane to be His Majesty's Almoner in Scotland, in the room of the Reverend Doctor Alexander Carlyle, who has resigned.

General Post-Office, February 25, 1785.

THE Post-Boy bringing the Mail to this Office from Kingston was stopped near to the Bald Faced Stag Alehouse adjoining to Wimbledon Common, between Four and Five o'Clock this Morning, by Two Men on Foot, who broke open the Cart, and took away the Mail containing the following Bags, viz.

Portsmouth,	Godalmin,	Kingston,
Petersfield,	Haslemere,	Essex,
Chichester,	Midhurst,	Farnham,
Arundel,	Ripley,	Havant,
Guildford,	Petworth,	Cobham.

One of the Persons who committed this Robbery is described to be about Fifty Years of Age, Five Feet Nine or Ten Inches high, luffy made, his Hair grey, which he wears hanging upon his Shoulders, smooth Face, and is supposed to be dressed in a blue Surtout Coat.

The other Person is about Thirty-six Years of Age, Five Feet Six or Seven Inches high, thin made, his Face red, wears his own Hair, and is supposed to be dressed in a dark-coloured Coat. They had both the Appearance of Farmers, and were seen in London the Evening of the Robbery.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Persons whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be entitled to the same. Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS; and will also receive His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Sec.

Watchmakers and Jewellers are desired to be cautious of whom they take Bank Notes or Bills.

Whitehall, July 9, 1785.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 26th Day of June last, between the Hours of Three and Four in the Afternoon, the House of Mr. Thomas Orrell, No. 47, in Charlotte-street, Portland Place, was, in the Absence of the Family, entered, and a Robbery, accompanied by a most barbarous Murder of the Servant Maid, committed and perpetrated by some Person or Persons unknown: And whereas, notwithstanding all diligent Enquiry and Search has been made, the Person or Persons who committed the said Robbery and Murder has eluded the Pursuits of Justice: And whereas, from the various Circumstances which have transpired, it is strongly suspected that there are Accessaries after the Fact who are acquainted with the Perpetration of the said horrid Murder, His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the said Robbery and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall make a Discovery of the Perpetrator or Perpetrators of the said Robbery and Murder, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the same) so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. Thomas Orrell does hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Perpetrator or Perpetrators of the said Robbery and Murder.

Tho. Orrell.
