Petersburgh, July 1.

The Empress, upon her Arrival at Vischnei-Volotchok, thought proper to extend her Progress as far as Moscow. In that Capital and its Neighbourhood she remained Four Days; after which, returning by the same Road to Vischnei-Volotchok, her Imperial Majesty proceeded to Borowitz, where she embarked with her Suite upon the Msta; and after a very agreeable Navigation of Eight Days on that River, Lake Ilmen, the Volkow, the Ladoga Canal, and the Neva, arrived here Yesterday Evening. In the Course of her Tour various Orders of Knighthood, and other Marks of Distinction, were conferred by the Empress on the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of the Provinces through which she passed. Her Imperial Majesty also left some very considerable Sums of Money at Moscow, and in other Places, for the founding and endowing of Hospitals, and the carrying on of other important Public Works.

The Empress will set out this Evening for Peterhoff, to celebrate the Anniversary of her Accession to the Throne, and the Festival of St. Peter and St. Paul (the Great Duke's Name's Day) after which she purposes returning to Czarisko-Zelo.

Copenhagen, July 19.

An Edict has been published here lately, containing some Regulations with regard to the Bank in this Capital, by which no Bank Notes are to be issued in future, without a Deposit of the real Value, either in Cash or in Effects, which may immediately be converted into Cash; and upon such Effects only the Bank is to lend Money hereafter.
