The London Gazette.

qubltue bp Rituthouty

Sierin, Decemb. 3 I.

E Aff makiking hare gresh preparationt, noonfidening the condition of zkis plucten, fom whe reception of his Eletoral Hehneffr who maks bis solemn En ity an the 6, hof the next Month Aprongthe othen ceremonies, it is appoinsed that two Boys in Mourxing, fuuh without tho Guyte Prefent his Elciforal Highnefs, ,be one wpith a Silver Kes, baving WajecWaids engravet on it, Accipe, Serva, \& Confer: va, (Receive, Keeph, and Preferve,) abd ashet with a Ducal Hat, wpith therfe Words, Quod Deus da:,( Which God gires.) 2. Within the Gate, fix young Vitgint, bis Elettorat Highnefs, the firf to Prefens bim with aCyprefs Wreathe, will theft blords wrought in woib Thread of Gold, Vitoori Cruentatam Virginitatem (Ablooty Virginityto the Vitfor.) The fecond will Piefens ibrelgariands in a Gilded scole, writh thefe words written Uount's Preces pro'Betceolentia, (Prayers for Bencvolence) in each Garland fball be - little Hill of Mirrhe, and between the Ebree Gar(antud ajcrafo umiex wabich the Word, Prope, (Hard bywi) The thirdisve Prefeat to the Eletio, al Frince, a Hat of Orange Leaves, with blefe Wiords, Paterna Virtute Au ©tam Augendam, (Encreafed by the Fathers Valor, thall yet be Greaters) The foutth soill PreJent to Prince. Euxis, and Ample on woblict is to bc writen with gildd Cloves, Natura Æratem, (Nature brings with zhiffe Wrords, Perge fine noora \& habes, (Purfue withont dedy, and you fhall have.) The $f_{x \in t} b$ is to Prefent a Nofegay of Flowers, with thefe Words, Deo Gratias ; and all ard to fay, Happinefs and long Life to the Elector, and to the Princes and Princeffes of steting Whendis Blefforal Highrefs alights from bis Horfer swelve other young Gentlcwomen of the principal in the rown are upon carpets 30 fitrow Gieen Herbs before his Elefitoral Highnifs.
Riga in Livonia, Decemb. 10. We ale affured, that the Army in this Counsry will very fuddenly march; however the Troops that are to compofe it, areas tet in their quatters ; but the general Rendezvous is appointed to be held on the finft of fanuary near this City; Colust Bent Horne, who is to command thems, in not yer artived, our laf advices ielling Us, thay be was detained by conurary Winds in Finland, though his Raggage is arrived at Reuet 3 in care he flay xoolong, wease told his Brorber Count Cbrifepher Herne, Governor of chis Provinces. will take upon him the command of thic Army. There is a very Gine Iriin of Arrillery prepared, which fandes ready, and may very eafily be carried on Sleds. There dia report as if the Lithuanian General Patz would difpyte the paffige of our Troops through the Rolijh Terfitoofle, but if is withqut any ground. Monfieur $\varphi$ apeh the King of Dexmark's. Envoy to the Czar bf Afofcoury, is at prefent at $\mp$ lificid, on the Frentiers of this Province, where he is refolved to flay as long as the Mofcovites will perimit him. He hach breen very aetive in fis endeavors to perfuade that Court go enter infsos War againft suedgn ${ }_{f}$ bus, wifhous any furcerf, Whaninets being pufficmily a aken up wift the Wan they $\qquad$ $\mathrm{s}_{2}^{2}$

 apprehenfive of the pefigns af the Fritich, ant Bat wapting in their cire and rigiliagfe for the fifety and fecuricy of this Crity and emong pther things, haws ordered that the Rutwhars hayl be wercificdia Arms to be made fig Gor ation, in arle , here be opostion, mich we knop nap hom Coon my hyppen f for amons cannot imagine what ufe they inffadito purto unidus it befo atcempt fhe burniqg of pyr bridges Tronpp are dsawing togecherf pear Frischert and sis didux, theiry defign we cannpy yer larns There is a pants, and to oblige them to jepaff the, Ruiseghbue others (ay chat beq wift belioge fopis plafe 1 amping thefe various feporys if is only sime thas ead truly inform us.

 have given qut Compmiffiogh for the raifing of feveral Companies of Foof, and Trpops of Horfe to scoint force this Garifon, whigh is khoughe to be very net ceffary as this time, when we are lo full of sears and apprchenfions of the defigns off the French. Thred days fince the Resimenc of the Marquis, de Graza 3 which badbentodged in the Calla of Leabenich, ark rived at Bonne; there is thow no mpre ralt of reltoig fing fhar City to our filpetar, pus op the coarrary it appears moft plainly o that the Lpaperialitits will not part wirk fo confiderable a Pafs of the Rhine cill & Peace be concluded, wiyh fomp pepglp fecm to pest foade themflyes is nees at hands The tegtern foom above aring nothing of dppmest m the Trpops heing everywherf in their Wigersquaters, makes shinga vety quief. By Larters fram #ienyte Me-are afureds. that the Exyprefs was shref manthe gone wish Child, which pecafioned a very great poy $x$ that Court W/E hear nothing of late of sher Rebels of Humgaty? 解离 not doubred buit that they are undernand affited by the Turks, who it the Gime time enasemain cho Court good corref pondence.
 nualparma by their mocions fromplace to place ; they goon to block $u p$ Mons pon all fides. Two days finct the Baron de Quimcy mas as Haure with 2 gea Horfr, and hath pur Arong Gapifípng inst atl the Gaxtles in itofo parts; ahd out Advices from the Erench Conquefts tell us, thas by the syth of this month, lome confides Bble Itertipt witl be made by the Enemy, which we are endeaviouing to prevent, or to render unfuccefs ful, by reinforcing all thofe Garifons whith hie expofed, anduufinifitis the place\%, assfar as we are able, withall things accefary. From Trever they write that the Frenct continue to make very great prepara. tionsar-Mesq-and- N ancsf whieh - makes the Inhabitants of Treves very apprekenfive of a Siege, as we hear they are likewife at Luxcmburg. In lite mannet the French make greatepreparations in AIfref, and that at Bitfac they are providiag ápreat many fonald Veffels, which they fill with combuftible maters, to make them Fire Thips. This niakef thofe of strasbourg, look about it's faid, are degignec to invef it's dee "edne, to deb. Wut governor'-General' has 'This' day fent two Expraffertio the Prince bf órange, to glve hín an account *s Nieuport, it 1 fifl the Govetnoir in thle their be ocurimb, and the Witaquls do conflans is Sene to fores. © Ditth, Fan. $x_{4}$ At the writing of our laft Letzerschis day feverinighter, we verily believed Monf Woullo tave been befieged zre this y for all thinds hookr to

 * temain in the fame uricertaintifasto the Enemils of the Kings Baggage's itopt, atit that he has pur off hit (wny jutryy for lome'dayst the latef comes confirm. eakrem Pain IIn the mean rimathe Marefthil $d^{*} \dot{H}^{\prime} u-$ minterendwith 3500 men, 44 pieces of Cannon, and trood Ploheeis'the Grammont. He hith comminded greakguantitits of Forage and Prbvifions to be brought Fimercherregding to yotrifie isioft as they have done Grammont, and are doing at Enghien. The Dhak det lefence with Count' Waldeck, about drabining the Dutch Troopry which ape farthelt off, nearer to this place, Fhey are at prefent to thatend, bre their match, His Ene klenty hath like wife ptovided his Ttain of A piltery. Monfieaj de Lomvigny is gond solyilvird to donfer wit PM Monfeur $C$ hatvet, General of the chnenbarg Tmops. Doh Catlos de Borgbit, nis'Excellenciés Néphetwa is arrived Rerefrotri Engtidity, whether he was Fenk to Complimient their Majaeflife 'dna' their' Rofyal Highneffes upon the matriage bf the Pritace tind Brinaefs of Ordingey being ricreamly factsfied with his, recepcionand entertainmentlat 1 lat Cbuir. nuaimferdahts fan. II. The Leteets we receive form setevin, teive us an laccount, that the Garifon was marched ont of steting confifting bily in $x 20 \mathrm{Fbor}_{3}$ -atral about 90 Horfé, oo which bnely 9 were mounted, Wheseasiat the beginning of the Siege they made up the King of Dedinith will bave ihthe Spring a Fleet of 30 Men of Wat at Sea, and' 2 ghb $^{6} \mathrm{~J}$ men in the Fifid. Some diforder hadrkately happened among the Seamen trcopenbagex, who complained of the wane of their Pay; but it was compofed by the exemplary punifhment of fome of the finot mucinouts. From Frencfort they purite, that the French are fiting, feveral Veflels ap Brifac and Swhleftadty for doing' fóme great execution Byfire; whict makes thofe 6F Strdisbourg apprehend thie Ernch havèa defign to burn their'Bridge, Hagwe, 耳ankary in His Highneffll was pyeflerday fome hours in the Cruncil of State, to perfeta feveral matters of imfortance before them, and as is believed, to par the laft hand to the sta:e of the War fof the next year. The Lettets, we rective frdm Nim guin, fpeak of a report fpread alout in that place, that the French Ambafadors were going to leave the place, which we know not how to give credit to. This day, the States of Holland re-a fembled; it is believed The State of the War will in a day or two be broughe into their Afferibly to have their approbation. The Spanifh Ene voy Don Emanzel de Litre, has uf late had feveral Conferenees with the Depuries of the-5tate concerning the pretthe Affeits If is faid That the Prince of Qxarge will receive the Sicur Wulf, who commanded for the Suedes in Stetin, into the fervice of this State, he is 2 German, and obliged by the Emperors Avocatoria to quit the Suedes fervice. Hees-is much talk of Peace, but upon whap ground we know fot certoin it is, that the. French concibme their great preparan cuons as well id Fiandrrs as -in Germany for the nexe Campagnes Ditte, Fin. ${ }^{14}$. The ath inltant che Deputiesof the Province of Over I/fel had, audience of his Highnels, to whom they prefented an AQ of the Scatds df that Province conflitue ting his Highnefs their Hert diraft Stadtholder, dit. The fame day his Highnef went hencé rés Socfitike.

The Perfonseqpointed to Preach before His Majefty the enfuing 4 EN T , are as followio.
Fibruary
13 A fhuednefday, Dean of the Chappety
15 Friday, Dean of St. Pauls.
17 Sunday, Bilhop of saramb.
2a WKedne/day, Dr Spraf.
22 Friday, Dean of Sarum, Dr. Pearće]
24 Suvday, Bifiop of Ety. "
22 Wedne $\int 1 a y$, Di. Megort.
 3 Suntay, Bifhopof oxford.
$5 W^{\prime}$ cidnefday, Dr. cradock. \$ diFriday, Dr. Noxth. sa sunday, Bilhop of Cbefter.

13 Wednefdıy, Drafames.
15 e Friday, Dean of Durbam, Dr. Sudbury
${ }_{7} 7$ suxday, Bifhop of Basb and Wells.
-20 Wedne $\int d a y$, Mr. Faller of Iincoln. 22 Frilag, Dean of St.Afaph, Dr.stralfordil
24 Palm Sunday, Archbifiop of Cantertury Or fome ocker for himd

27 Wednefday, Dr. Allefiree.
29 Good Friday, Dean of Wefminflera
31 Eifter Day, Lord Almoner.
ARLINGTON,

Advertifements.

(1) The General Sale of Mr. Ogilby's Books and the Map of Lothow, &ee. with greater advanctage than formerly, will beopened on whe $y$ sth of this in fanf;near the Cbancory: Cuars in WefminfervHall, and continuc every day from Nine till Threc Afterapon, by widiam Morgan, His Majefties Cormographer'; to raife n oney to finifh the Englift dhtias. The Locs may. be fent fot and opened at the Ade vencurers honfes.

AN Engilh Pink, called the! Fudith and - Anne, Burthen A soo Tuns or thereaboyts, of which Ricbertd Nowet was $\mathrm{Ma}_{2}$ ter, lader with Wines and Brandy from Boxrdeakx, and tound tor Loidom, was driven our bf the Bay of Sendwirb the fourth inftant at night. Whoevef fhall give notice of the Shall be well rewarded for their pains.

