Dublin Castle, August 13, 1785.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds; and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in the Royal Square at the Barracks. In the Evening a Play was given by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant to the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Rejoicings throughout the City.

Genoa, August 1:

Their Sicilian Majesties arrived on Monday Morning at the Apartments prepared for their Reception in the Brignole Palace. At Eleven o'Clock the King went on board the St. Gioachino, when the whole Neapolitan Squadron dressed and saluted him. His Britannick Majesty's Frigates the Thetis and Orpheus manned Ship as the King passed them, gave him Three Cheers, and saluted him with One and Twenty Guns each, as did the Medea Dutch Frigate. The like Ceremony was repeated at His Majesty's Return on Shore. In the Evening the King and Queen went to the Theatre. On Tuesday the Nobility of both Sexes, with the Foreign Ministers and Consuls, were admitted to their Majesties Presence; and in the Evening of that Day they went to a masked Ball, and partook of a Supper prepared in Two Palaces united on the Occasion, the Gardens of which were illuminated. Their Majesties have not yet fixed the Time of their Departure.

Genoa, August 4:

The Magistrates of the Health Office here, in consequence of the Intelligence that the Plague rages at Tunis, have prolonged the Quarantine of Ships coming from Barbary from Twenty-five to Forty Days.
