

LATE SALISBURY BANK.

August 29, 1785.

ALL Persons who have any Demand on the Estate and Effects of BENJAMIN COLLINS, Esq; Banker in Salisbury, late deceased, and have not yet delivered Particulars thereof, are desired to transmit the same, without Delay, to BENJAMIN CHARLES COLLINS, on the Canal, Salisbury, Son, and one of the acting Executors of the Deceased.

And all Persons who have any just Claim or Demand on the said Estate, by Reason of any Bills of Exchange or Salisbury Bank Notes remaining unsatisfied, are desired to apply for Payment, the Executors being anxious to discharge the same immediately, together with legal Interest on all such outstanding Bills and Notes to the Date hereof.

Further, the Executors do intend to discharge all Monies now remaining deposited at Interest (of which due Notice will be given) as early as possible; and in the mean Time they will pay the Interest due, and growing due, on the said Monies, whenever they are called upon.

And whereas many Persons still remain indebted to the Estate of the said Deceased in large Sums, by Bond, Mortgage, and otherwise; they are hereby desired to consider this Advertisement as Notice, that unless their respective Debts are forthwith discharged, legal Steps must speedily be taken to enforce Payment thereof.

N. B. Persons living at a Distance and remitting any Bills or Notes may be accommodated with Drafts on London for the Principal and Interest due thereon to the above Date.

General Post-Office, August 29, 1785.

MR. PALMER having engaged to accomplish his Plan for the Conveyance of His Majesty's Mails to all Parts of the Kingdom as soon as possible, the Letters for every Part of Great Britain and Ireland, must, on and after Monday the 15th Instant, be put into the Receiving Houses before FIVE o'Clock in the Evening, and into this Office before SEVEN, in order to prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen to the Public from Two Deliveries in London on the same Day, and the sending out the Mails at different Hours on the same Evening.

From that Time likewise the Letters are intended to be sent out regularly from hence between the Hours of Nine and Ten in the Morning, so as to reach the most distant Parts of the Town by Twelve at Noon.

Notice will be given in a few Days when the Mail Conveyance upon Mr. Palmer's Plan will be established to Hampshire, Dorsetshire, Somersetshire, Devonshire, and Cornwall, as likewise to Shrewsbury, Worcester and Ludlow, and to Dover.

It is necessary that all Newspapers should be put into this Office before Six o'Clock, otherwise they cannot be certain of an immediate Conveyance.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Anthony Todd, Sec.

The following are the Mail Coaches already established.
