Dublin-Castle, September 7, 1785.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon Addresses to the Lord Lieutenant, the same were this Day presented to His Grace, and, with His Grace's Answers, are as follow :

To His Grace Charles Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Grace at the Conclusion of the present Session, with the sincerest Expressions of Affection to your Person and Approbation of your Administration. Our Experience of your Grace's amiable and manly Qualities, and of your judicious Exertions for the public Welfare, has fulfilled and gratified our Expectations, and excites us to solicit and to confide in the Continuance of His Majesty's Goodness, which, by entrusting the Government of this Kingdom to your Grace's Virtues and Abilities, essentially consults the Interests and Wishes of His People.

We request your Grace will accept our grateful Acknowledgements of the conspicuous Zeal your Grace so early manifested to promote the Prosperity of Ireland, by cementing its Connection with Great Britain. No Object can be more important to the Security of the Advantages we already enjoy, or can more contribute to the Harmony, Power and Stability of the Empire, than an equitable Arrangement of Commercial Intercourse with Great Britain for the mutual Benefit of both Kingdoms. And we shall esteem ourselves peculiarly fortunate, if we shall be enabled to pursue a Plan for this desirable Purpose, under your Grace's Auspices, with the Concurrence of the Nation, and to crown the Endeavors and augment the Fame of your Grace's Administration by its successful Accomplishment.

We are throughly convinced, from the whole Tenor of your Grace's Conduct, that your Attention is constantly directed to the true Interest and Prosperity of this Kingdom; and it shall be our anxious Study to render your Government as easy and honourable to your Grace, as it is satisfactory and advantageous to the Public.

*William Watts Gayer, } Cler' Parliament.
Edward Gayer,*

[ Price Three-pence Halfpenny. ]

To which Address His Grace was pleased to give the following Answer :

My Lords,
I REQUEST you to accept my sincere Thanks for this very obliging Address. To secure a Continuance of your Confidence and Approbation shall be the constant Endeavour of my Government, and I know no Method by which I can so effectually attain that Gratification, as by promoting to the utmost of my Power the essential Interests and Happiness of Ireland.

To His Grace Charles Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave humbly to express to your Grace, with unaffected Warmth, the Satisfaction which we feel in every Opportunity of testifying our Respect for your Person and our Attachment to your Government. We cannot reflect upon your Grace's constant Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of this Kingdom, without grateful Acknowledgments to His Majesty, that His Majesty has been pleased to give us so acceptable a Proof of His Royal Favour, as the continuing your Grace in the Government of Ireland. The generous Humanity of Disposition, and high Sense of Honor which distinguish your Grace's private Character, have, in Conjunction with your hereditary Spirit and Firmness, endeared you to the Nation by their happy Influence on your public Conduct.

We humbly desire your Grace to accept our sincere Thanks for those Exertions which, in consequence of our unanimous Address, and in Obedience to His Majesty's Commands, your Grace employed during the last Interval between our Sessions, in preparing a Plan of Commercial Intercourse with Great Britain. We are aware that the utmost Delicacy and Caution are necessary for the Conduct of Measures in which the Rights and Interests of both Kingdoms are equally concerned, and must be equally regarded. And we entertain a just Sense of the Attention your Grace has manifested to this Principle, that their Completion should depend upon the public Satisfaction. We trust, therefore, that the further Consideration of this Subject will be pursued with that Temper, that Spirit of Conciliation, and that impartial Attention to the general Welfare of the whole Empire, which alone can ensure Pernency to any System, or enable the Wisdom of Parliament to perfect such an equal, reciprocal, and just Arrangement, as may unite both Kingdoms for ever in Interest, and preserve in each a firm Confidence of mutual Affection.

It is our zealous and ardent Wish, that your Grace may long continue in the Government of this Kingdom, and contemplate, with growing Pride and Satisfaction, the successful Effects of your Government, in the increasing Affection of a generous People, and in the progressive Harmony and Strength of the Empire.

Thos. Ellis, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Grace's Answer.

I THANK you sincerely for this very honourable and flattering Testimony of your Approbation. I prize too highly the Confidence of the House of Commons, not to use my anxious and strenuous Endeavours to preserve it by a constant Attention to the true Interest of Ireland; they are inseparably interwoven with those of Great Britain; and whatever System shall tend to promote the mutual Advantage of the two Countries, and to connect them by closer Ties of Harmony and Affection cannot fail of having my utmost Assistance.

AFTER having received the above Addreses his Grace went in State to the House of Peers, with the usual Solemnity, and the Commons being sent for, gave the Royal Assent to

An Act for the better carrying into Execution the several Laws for providing a Maintenance for Parish Clerks, and for other Purposes.

An Act for directing the Application of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pounds granted to the Dublin Society for the Encouragement of Manufactures, Arts, and Sciences.

An Act to explain and amend several Laws now in Force for the Encouragement of Agriculture.

An Act to prevent the Exportation of Hay from this Kingdom for a limited Time.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Qualifications of such Persons as shall take out Commissions of the Peace for Counties at large.

An Act for repealing an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Measures made Use of in buying and selling of Corn, and for promoting Husbandry in this Kingdom.

An Act to carry into further Effect an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament in this Kingdom, intituled, An Act for the due accounting for all Money granted for public Works, Charities, and Hospitals therein mentioned; and for the ordering a regular Account in future of all Monies entrusted to the Corporation, for carrying on the Inland Navigation; the Trustees of the Linen Manufactures; the Dublin Society; the Corporation for paving the Streets of Dublin; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

An Act to amend an Act, intituled, An Act for cleansing the Ports, Harbours, and Rivers of the City of Cork, and of the Towns of Galway, Sligo, Drogheda, and Belfast; and for erecting a Balloft-Office in the said City, and each of the said Towns.

And to Two Private Bills.

His Grace was then pleased to make the following Speech:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

ALTHOUGH the very advanced Season of the Year renders it expedient to conclude the present Session of Parliament, I flatter myself that the great Object of adjusting a Commercial Intercourse with Great Britain has not in vain engaged your Attention, and protracted your Deliberations.—You have repeatedly expressed your Wishes for the Attainment of an equitable Settlement; and I have the Satisfaction to observe, that you continue to be impressed with a true Sense of its Necessity and Importance. You will have now the fullest Leisure to pursue your Consideration of the Subject in private, with that dispassionate Assiduity which it so eminently deserves.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am to thank you in His Majesty's Name for the liberal Provision you have made for the Public Service, and the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government. In your generous Contribution of Supplies, you have not less consulted the Dignity of His Crown than the real Interests of His People.—The Necessity of preventing the Accumulation of Debt, cannot be too strongly enforced; and it shall be my earnest and constant Endeavor to render your wise Exertions for this salutary Purpose effectual and permanent.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I feel the truest Satisfaction in observing the various beneficial Laws which have passed during this Session, and the wholesome Effects of your Wisdom, in the returning Tranquility and Industry, and in the rising Prosperity of the Kingdom.—The Conduct of Parliament has had its just Influence. Their deliberate Spirit, and approved Attention at all Times to the Public Welfare, has inspired the People with full Confidence in the Legislature, and will teach them to consider their true Interests with Calmness and Discretion.

The noblest Object to which I can direct my Attention, and which will ever constitute the Happiness and Pride of my Life, is the Establishment of the Prosperity of Ireland, by extending and extending and securing her Commerce, and by cementing and perpetuating her Connexion with Great Britain. And I trust you will continually cherish the Sentiment in the National Mind, that the Stability and Strength of the Empire can alone be ultimately insured by uniting the Interests and Objects of both Kingdoms in a general and equitable System of reciprocal and common Advantage.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by His Grace's Command, said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is His Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday, the 22d Day of November next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 22d Day of November next.
