Hague, September 16.

HIS Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, after having assisted at the Assembly of the States General the Day before Yesterday; announced his intended Journey to Breda, for which Place he is since set out: And Yesterday Morning Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, with the young Princes and Princess, set out for Frieland.

General Post-Office, September 12, 1785.

MR. PALMER having engaged to accomplish his Plan for the Conveyance of His Majesty's Mails to all Parts of the Kingdom as soon as possible, the Letters for every Part of Great Britain and Ireland, must be put into the Receiving Houses before FIVE o'Clock in the Evening, and into this Office before SEVEN, in order to prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen to the Public from Two Deliveries in London on the same Day, and the sending out the Mails at different Hours on the same Evening.

The Letters are intended to be sent out regularly from hence between the Hours of Nine and Ten in the Morning, so as to reach the most distant Parts of the Town by Twelve at Noon.

It is necessary that all Newspapers should be put into this Office before Six o'Clock, otherwise they cannot be certain of an immediate Conveyance.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Sec.

The following are the Mail Coaches already established.
