Whitehall, December 27, 1785.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Monday the 12th Instant a Letter or Paper, with the Manchester Post-Mark upon it, was delivered by the Postman at the Warehouse of Thomas Phillips and Co. in Manchester, of which the following is a Copy:

“ To Phillips, Atkinson, Stonehouse, and Bowers.

“ If you do not discharge those Men you now imply and take in your own as before You and your Houses and Warehouses will be committed to the Flames, it is better for two or three Men to die than all Perish.”

Directed to
Thomas Phillips
Dolefield
Manchester.

His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the incendiary Letter above-mentioned, doth hereby promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, we the underwritten do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by us upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Tho. Phillips and Co.
Jof. Atkinson,
John Stonehouse,

December 26, 1785.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled, "An Act for the further Punishment of Persons going armed or disguised, in Defiance of the Laws of Customs or Excise, and for indemnifying Offenders against those Laws upon the Terms in this Act mentioned, and for Relief of Officers of the Customs in Informations upon Seizures," That James Standen, of Petersfield in the County of Southampton, and John Feddon, of the Parish of Hambledon in the said County, being Officers of His Majesty's Excise, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of Wednesday the 7th Day of December instant, in a Barn belonging to one — Green, a Farmer, and lying and being about the Distance of One Mile and a Half from the Town of Eastmeon, and within the Hundred of Eastmeon, did take and seize Sixty-four Four-Gallon Tubs full of Liquors; that is to say, Brandy, Geneva, and other strong Waters, the same being Goods forfeited on Account of the Duties chargeable thereon not having been paid or secured; that in about Three Quarters of an Hour afterwards Three Men, each armed with a Club, came to the said Barn, and demanded the said Goods as their Property; which being refused, they retired to an adjacent Lane, and in about a Minute returned to the said Barn with Three other Men; and all being armed with Clubs, assisted each other, and took away and rescued Twelve of the said Tubs so seized. That the said Officers, having by this Time procured a Cart, did, with their Assistants, put therein the Remainder of the said Tubs, and proceeded therewith towards Eastmeon; but about Half a Mile therefrom a Party of Men, of about the Number of Twenty, (among whom it is apprehended the first mentioned Six were,) overtook the Cart, tipped it up, and threw all the Tubs therein into the King's Highway, and then took and rescued the Whole of the said Tubs, which had been in the Cart, from the said Officers, whom they kept off with their Clubs, and compelled to retire. The said Persons so armed were variously dressed, some in Brown Frocks, others in Blue, others in White, and others in Swankin Waistcoats, and all of them were and are wholly unknown to the said Officers and their Assistants.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Christopher Oliphant, late of the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Gent. deceased, are to come in and prove their Debts before John Eames, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-inn, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 23d Day of January, 1786, or in Default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Duke of Ancaster against Mayer, the Creditors of Charles Bertie, of Uffington in the County of Lincoln, Esq; deceased, are, on or before the last Day of Hilary Term next, to come in and prove their Debts before John Wilmot, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, or in Default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Scott, late in Skelhill, in the County of Roxburgh.

THE Trustees for these Creditors require them to meet by themselves, or Doers properly authorized, within the House of Michael Stevenson, Innkeeper, in Hawick, on Wednesday the 25th of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, when a State of the Bankrupt's Funds, as far as have come to the Knowledge of the Trustees since the former Dividend was made, will be laid before the Meeting in order to a final Distribution.

Winchester, Hampshire, December 24, 1785.

THE Trust of the Estate and Effects of Edward Pyott, late of the City of Winchester, Merchant, deceased, vested in his Executors, expiring on the 25th of December instant; they hereby give Notice thereof, and desire all Persons having any open Accounts with the said Executors to deliver in the same immediately to them, in order that such Accounts may be settled.
